MAJOR AND MRS. CARMACK ENTERTAIN SAT. EVENING

Major and Mrs. J. Frank Carmack, managers of the Franklin Lodge and Golf club, entertained informally Saturday evening on the occasion of the opening of the lodge to the club members and their friends.

Round and square dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening by the large crowd attending.

The lodge will be used during the summer as a club house for the golf and tennis clubs, and also carries a social membership for the people of Franklin, who may care only for the social advantages of the club.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cakes and punch were served during the evening.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MRS. W. T. LATHAM

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Franklin Presbyterian church met with Mrs. W. T. Latham at her home on Buck creek for their regular May meeting. Eighteen members went from Franklin, and members of the Hayesville Auxiliary were also present.

The meeting was held in the lobby of the ranch house. The day was cool and a glowing fire burned in the huge fireplace.

At the May meeting each year the Auxiliary birthday is observed and a special offering is taken.

This year marks the 26th anniversary of the Auxiliary in the southern Presbyterian church.

The offering this year goes for Presbyterian missions among the foreign people in the United States.

The program was given by the women from the Franklin church. Mrs. J. A. Flanagan, president, presided and a short business meeting was held. Mrs. McGuire then took charge of the meeting and gave the devotional. Her subject was "Women of the Bible Who Served." She gave a very able and inspiring talk on the services of these women. Mrs. Gus Leach closed the devotional with a prayer of thanks for the example of Christian service set by these women.

Mrs. Flanagan then opened the birthday program by calling on the group to sing two stanzas of "America." Mrs. Wilson Smart was the leader for this part of the program. Members of the Auxiliary represented each mission to be aided by the birthday offering this year. Those taking part were: Mrs. Lee Leach, Miss Lilly Rankin, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Pearl Wright, Mrs. Jim Gray, Mrs. Gus Leach, Mrs. George Bulgin, Miss Virginia McGuire, Mrs. McGuire, Mrs. Ted Gribble, Mrs. George Slagle, Mrs. Hayne Arthur and Mrs. Hugh Leach. Other members present were Mrs. Lee Leach and Miss Annie Slagle. Little Miss Anne Flanagan took the offering, after which the meeting closed with singing one stanza of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and repeating the benediction.

A most delightful social period was enjoyed. Mrs. Latham took the woman on a tour of the ranch house leading the group at last into the dining room where coffee, sandwiches and sweets were served. The hostess poured coffee from a hand wrought pewter urn made in Holland and a gift from Mrs. Latham's son-in-law. The coffee cups were of antique Saxony China, more than two hundred years old. These also were a gift sent over from Holland.

After the refreshments the guests were invited to the flower garden where a riot of early spring flowers were a delight to see.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR J. W. LEDFORD

A dinner in celebration of the 92nd birthday of J. W. Ledford was given at the home of his son, Marion Ledford, at North Skeenah, on Sunday, May 8. About 150 guests were present to enjoy the occasion.
