McDOWELL-RIDEOUT

Miss Tessie McDowdell and Harold Rideout, of Highlands, were married in Clayton, Ga., on Tuesday afternoon, May 10. Mrs. Rideout is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McDowell. Mr. Rideout is a co-owner of the Corner Soda Shop. Both are popular citizens of Highlands.

MRS. MARTHA McLOUD CELEBRATES 79th BIRTHDAY

On Sunday, May 15, a dinner was given at the home of Mrs. Robert I. Beal, honoring her grandmother, Mrs. Martha McLoud, on her 79th birthday. Since Mrs. Beal's birthday was the 16th day of May, this occasion served as a joint celebration. Mrs. McLoud, always happy when in the midst of a gathering of her friends and relatives, was equally as gay and "chipper" as any of the 19 present. Among this number were four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

BUSINESS PLACES INSTALL NEW SIGNS

Several business houses and hotels have had new Neon signs installed during the past week. This is a great addition to the appearance of the town, particularly at night, when the bright lights can be seen in every direction. A decorative sign has been installed at the Highlands Theatre which can be seen from Main street; and the following places have signs announcing the name and nature of their business: Hotel Edwards, Corner Soda Shop, Potts House, Helen's Barn, Highlands Hardware Co., and Fairview Inn.

JOHN PALMER McKINNEY PASSES WEDNESDAY

John Palmer McKinney, one of Highlands' oldest citizens died at about 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Mr. McKinney, who was 84 years old, suffered a paralytic stroke about 10 days ago and his condition had been steadily growing worse each day.

Mr. McKinney came to Highlands many years ago as one of the earliest settlers. He was married to Margaret Jane Gribble, of Franklin, who died two years ago, just five days before the couple would have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

A. D. McKinney, their oldest son, is said to be the second "white" child born in the town of Highlands. Mr. McKinney owned and operated a lumber mill for many years. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. F. H. Potts, Mrs. Helen Thompson, Mrs. Hiram Paul, and Miss Montie McKinney, all of Highlands, and three sons, A. D. McKinney, of Birmingham, Ala., C. F. McKinney, and W. W. McKinney, of Highlands. A fourth son, Tom, died four years ago. There are 27 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church, the Rev. W. F. Beadle officiating. The Rev. R. B. DuPree was in charge of the music. The oldest grandsons in each family acted as pallbearers. Interment was in the Highlands cemetery.

HIGHLANDS SCHOOL CLOSED FRIDAY

The Highlands school closed on Friday. Closing was later than usual this term due to the two weeks holiday enforced by the health department and Professor Summer during the winter.

Following is the honor roll for the eighth month of the school year:

First grade, Mary Crunkleton, Peggy Gibson, Willard Johnson, Louie Johnson, Doris Keener, Mary Phillips, Maxine Talley, Fay Reese. Second grade, Elwood Johnson, Mary Gibson, Sarah Hall, Irene Lowe, Betty Potts, Edna Norton, James Potts.

Third grade, Lena Crane, Charles Mincey, Clarence Miller, Hazel Beale, Evelyn Phillips.

Fourth grade, Barbara Zoellner, Edith McCall.

Fifth grade, Maxine Wright, Nancy Potts.

Sixth grade, Edna Phillips, Marie Houston, Wilma Owens.

Seventh grade, Reba Beal, Jessie Potts, Margaret Rogers, Malcolm Zoellner.

High school, Felicia Edwards, Jessie Keener, Margaret Dendy.

SEVENTH GRADE GRADUATION EXERCISES

The graduation exercises of the seventh grade of the Highlands school took place on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. The program was announced by Margie Neely and opened with the salutatory address by Margaret Rogers. Seven boys then recited their "Creeds" asserting belief in their town, state, nation, and the world, the boys and girls of the Highlands school, and in the future citizens of the town. Seven girls then proposed "toasts" and presented bouquets of flowers to representatives of each group. Their toasts were to the school, the principal, the superintendent, the teachers represented by Mrs. Jack Hall; mothers, represented by Mrs. Effie Hunt; fathers, represented by Mr. Harve Beal, and friends, represented by Mrs. Frank Bloxham.

The large audience was delighted with the presentation of gifts from the "Magic Bush." A pickled rod was given to Professor Summer, a lighted candle to Miss Calloway, rouge to Miss Young, a candy stick to Miss Veva Howard, peanuts to Mrs. K. Rhinehart. Each gift was accompanied by an appropriate speech by Marie Neely. This was followed by the presentation of diplomas by Mr. Summer. The class then sang a farewell song accompanied by Mrs. Jack Hall at the piano, and Jessie Potts made the valedictory address.

The declamation and reading contests followed the graduation of the seventh grade. Peggy Thompson acted as chairman of the reading contest and introduced each speaker. The goal medal was given to Carolyn Potts for the best speech in the opinion of the judges. Her subject was "The Swan Song" by Katherine Brooks. The judges of this contest were Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Dr. J. Z. Moreland, and Mrs. Frank Bloxham.

Carlton Cleveland acted as chairman for the declamation contest, and presented the speakers. The gold medal for the best speech was given to Steve Potts, whose subject was "Supposed Speech For the Declaration of Independence" by Daniel Webster. The judges were the Rev. Frank Bloxham, Mr. J. C. Mell and Mr. S. T. Marett.

The senior play, "The Path Across the Hills," by Lillian Mortimer, was presented on Tuesday evening to a large and enthusiastic audience. All players acquitted themselves well and again Jim Hines gave an outstanding performance as Samuel Crawford, "grandpa."

COUNTRY CLUB TO OPEN JUNE 1

The Highlands Country club will open for the season on June 1. Three new cottages have been finished this spring and are ready for occupancy. The golf course is already open and being used.

David Black, of Atlanta, opened the Black cottage on Satulah mountain last week.

Messrs S. E. Potts and F. H. Potts made a business trip to Asheville last Friday.

Mrs. Jay Chapman, of Atlanta, arrived on Saturday to spend several days in Highlands attending the commencement programs.

Trades Eye for Her Life

Nestling in the arms of Nurse Betty Parkin is little Helaine Judith Colan, Chicago, victim of glioma, a dread eye disease. A debate of days to decide whether to operate at the expense of blindness, or permit the dread disease to take little Helaine's life was settled when after a conference of scientists, the left eye was removed. An attempt is being made to save the right eye.

Mrs. R. B. DuPree and her infant son returned home on Friday from the Angel hospital.

Mrs. Robert W. Crenshaw and Mrs. H. C. Moore, of Atlanta, are guests in Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, of Thomasville, entertained a house party last week-end at Webbmont.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jennings, of Jacksonville, Fla., arrived on Saturday to open their home "Puckrup," on Satulah mountain. Mr. Jennings returned to Jacksonville on Sunday but Mrs. Jennings will stay for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sheppard and their son, Charles, of Atlanta, entertained a house party of eight at their home at the club last week.

Mrs. Margaret DuPree and Mrs. Mae Stoddard, of Owings, S. C., arrived on last Thursday to spend some time with the Rev. and Mrs. Robert DuPree. Mrs. Carrie Hickman, of Ellenboro, Mrs. DuPree's mother, is also a guest of Mr. and Mrs. DuPree.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Diefenbach, of Florida, are occupying the Evins cottage for the summer. Mr. Diefenbach operated Do-Se-Do at the Dugout.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, of Porto Rico, and Mrs. Overstreet, of Baxley, Ga., are occupying the Silas Johnson cottage for a short time.

Mrs. G. A. Worley and Mrs. Armstrong, of Miami, Fla., are visitors in Highlands.

HEALTH ACTIVITIES OF 4-H CLUB MEMBERS

One of the most important features of 4-H club work is that of health improvement. This work is conducted with the help of the county health department. In fact, it would be impossible to do an effective piece of work without their cooperation.

Each year at the beginning of the year the 4-H club members are checked thoroughly by the county doctor and nurse. During the year members work to correct any defects, among which are poor teeth, tonsils, posture and other physical disabilities. It is to be urged that parents lend their cooperation in order that this work may be effective. It does very little good to tell a child that his teeth need attention or that his tonsils should be removed unless something can be done about it. These corrections will mean health insurance for our children during their later years. It is most important for their future happiness and for the continued progress of the state and nation. At the end of the school year the children are again checked to note any improvement. Instruction is given throughout the year on nutrition posture and related subjects and a record kept by each member on health activities.

Health Contest

Each year the outstanding boy and girl in each club is selected to enter a county contest. The winner of the county contest enters a district contest and the winner of the district a state contest. The state winner attends the national contest.

Winners in Macon county for the past year are as follows:

Slagle school—Emma Lou Hurst, Myra Slagle, Barbara Hurst, Frederick Slagle.

Holly Sprigs—Mildred Franklin, Harry Kinsland.

Hickory Knoll—Catherine Young, J. B. Hoglen.

Otto—Bernice Cabe, Margaret Corbin.

Cowee—Mary Alice Rickman, Charles Allen.

Otter Creek—Hazel Pannell, Jessie Baldwin.

Dixie Morrison, Violet Lackey, Lewis Crunkleton.

Higdonville—Eloise Teem, Jessie Ruth Stewart.

County winners were as follows: Emma Lou Hurst, Barbara Hurst, Myra Slagle, Frederick Slagle.

Since there is a ruling that only members 14 years of age, or over, may attend the state contest, Barbara Hurst who is the only county winner 14 years of age will represent Macon county in the district contest at Asheville May 31. Frederick Slagle will represent the boys.
