MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

CURTIS-ORR

Mrs. Aileen Curtis, of Asheville and Franklin, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Annie Lee Curtis, to James Ray Orr, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Orr, of Andrews.

The wedding ceremony was performed in Hiwassee, Ga., on Saturday, July 3, 1937, at the home of the Rev. Frank Lloyd, the officiating minister.

Mrs. Orr is a graduate of the Franklin high school and a popular member of the young social set of Franklin. Mr. Orr is a graduate of the Andrews high school and of the University of Georgia Forestry school of the class of 1938.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr will reside in Andrews for a short while.

JAMES PORTER ENGAGED TO OHIO MUSICIAN

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Ellen Jane Lorenz, of Dayton, O., to James Bryson Porter, of Franklin and Tuscon, Ariz. Miss Lorenz, daughter of Karl Lorenz, head of the Lorenz Music publishing company of Dayton, and Mrs. Lorenz, is an associate editor of that company and was recently elected a member of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

The bride-elect has published more than 100 compositions including organ numbers, anthems, school choruses and cantatas. A recent composition, a madrigal for women's voices, will be sung by students of the Westminster Choir school, Princeton, N. J., in their annual spring festival. The poem which Miss Lorenz set to music is by Frances Frost.

Miss Lorenz majored in musical theory at Wellesley college, where she was graduated with musical honors and won the Billings prize. She was chosen student organist and choir director at Wellesley. After graduation she taught music in Akron, O., and studied composition with Nadia Boulanger in Paris while directing the activities of the student house of the American church. At this period she won a prize offered for composition by the Society for Feminine Arts. Since her return to Akron, Miss Lorenz has been director of a choir in that city.

Mr. Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas William Porter, of Franklin, attended Duke University, Durham. He later took a course in architecture from the University of Chicago. He studied music with Miss Irene Weaver at Franklin and later studied organ under Dr. Arnold Dann and Dr. James Alderson, of Asheville. He was organist and choir director of the Methodist church, president of the 1935 McDowell Music club, and head of the community choral club, all of Franklin. In 1935 he went to Tucson and has just completed a course in public accounting at Arizona School of Commerce there. He has been active in church and musical circles in Tucson. He is vice-president of the Cavillon club and organist and director of the junior choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church in that city. Mr. Porter has given organ and choir concerts in Asheville, West Asheville, Waynesville and Knoxville, Tenn.

The date of the wedding will be announced later.
