

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

DOWDLE-WILLIS

Among one of the most important social events scheduled for June will be the wedding of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Dowdle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Dowdle, and William Ellison Willis, Jr., of Greer, S. C., which will take place in a formal ceremony at the Franklin Methodist church on Saturday evening, June 18, at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. J. E. Abernethy, pastor of the bride-elect, will officiate. Prior to the ceremony and during the taking of the nuptial vows a program of special music will be rendered by Mrs. W. B. Kesler, of Salisbury, with Seth Gabriel, of Mooresville, and Miss Mathilda Geiger, of Mt. Airy, as vocalists.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father.

Miss Elizabeth Sloop, of Mooresville, will be maid of honor, while Ida Mae Dowdle, sister of the bride, will be junior maid of honor.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Elizabeth McGuire, Miss Margaret Slagle, Miss Margaret Franks and Miss Leeida Beshears, of Franklin; Miss Nancy Barbee, of Seaboard, N. C.; Miss Kathleen Capps, of Arcola, N. C.; Miss Janet Griffin, of Rich Square, N. C.; and Miss Margaret Fulton, of Walnut Cove, N. C., all former classmates of the bride-elect at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The ribbon bearers will be Carolyn Long, a cousin of the bride-elect, Elizabeth Wiseman, Christine Troutman and Betty Lindsay, of Kannapolis, and the flower girl will be little Miss Mary Ann Killian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Killian, of Franklin. Master Jimmy Harbison, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harbison, of Kannapolis, will be ring bearer.

The candle lighters will be Tommy Angel III, Victor Perry, Frederick Johnston Houk, of Franklin, and Billy Fesperman, of Kannapolis. The trainbearers will be Frank L. Henry III, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Frank L. Henry Jr., and Richard Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Jones, of Franklin.

Charles Gasque, of Wareshoals, S. C., and a classmate of the groom at Woffard college, will act as best man. The ushers will include C. N. Dowdle, brother of the bride-elect, of Franklin; Thomas Willis, a brother of the groom, of Cottageville, S. C.; Joe Price, of Greenville, S. C.; Pink Dobbs, of Barnesville, Ga.; Bill O'Daniel, of Greer, S. C., and Leon Willis, of Columbia, S. C.

The bride-elect is being extensively entertained by a series of pre-nuptial parties prior to her marriage.

Miss Dowdle has a charming personality. She is a graduate of the Franklin high school and of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. For the past two years she has taught in the public schools at Kannapolis.

Mr. Willis is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Willis, of Cottageville, S. C. He was graduated from Woffard college in Spartanburg, S. C. For the past three years he has held the position of camp educational advisor in the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Many out-of-town guests will arrive the middle and latter part of next week for the wedding.

YOUNCE-JAMISON

Miss Geraldine Younce and John Jamison were married in Clayton, Ga., Wednesday night in a very quiet and simple ceremony, with Ordinary Smith performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Jamison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Younce, of Rainbow Springs, while Mr. Jamison is the son of Grover Jamison, a prominent business man, and the late Mrs. Jamison, of Franklin.

They were accompanied to Clayton by Miss Kate Cox and Otto Arvey, of Franklin.

SEWING PARTY GIVEN FOR BRIDE-ELECT

On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock Miss Virginia McGuire, bride-elect of June 18, was honor guest at a sewing party and kitchen shower, given by Mrs. Ben Woodruff at her home on Harrison avenue.

The guests were asked to bring sewing kits and the morning was spent embroidering tea towels, which were presented to the honor guest. Miss McGuire received many useful and attractive gifts from the guests. Miss Elizabeth Dowdle, also a bride-elect of June 18, was remembered.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. James L. Averell and Mrs. Frank Killian.

Those attending the party were: Miss Virginia McGuire, Miss Elizabeth Dowdle, Mrs. J. A. Flanagan, Mrs. M. L. Dowdle, Mrs. Joe Dowdle, Mrs. J. S. Conley, Miss Margaret Cozad, Mrs. W. B. McGuire, Mrs. J. S. Sloan, Mrs. Reba Tessier, Mrs. James L. Averell, Mrs. T. J. Johnston and Mrs. Frank Killian.

SHOWER AND PARTIES FOR MISS DOWDLE

Miss Elizabeth Dowdle, bride-elect of June 18, was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. J. S. Conley on Harrison avenue Tuesday afternoon.

Hostesses for the occasion assisting Mrs. Conley were: Mrs. W. A. Rogers, Miss Virginia McGuire, Miss Margaret Cozad and Miss Grace Conley.

The living room and dining room, which were thrown ensuite, were beautifully decorated in arrangements of pink larkspur and baby's breath. The dining table, covered with an exquisite lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of pink larkspur and baby's breath, while the buffet held similar flowers, and was flanked with tall pink tapers. The color scheme of pink and white was furthered in the refreshments.

Miss Dowdle was taken on a treasure hunt by following a string through the house and across the lawn. At intervals along the way and at the end packages were hidden.

Those attending were: Mrs. M. L. Dowdle, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. C. N. Dowdle, Mrs. W. B. McGuire, Mrs. E. W. Long, Mrs. Lyman Higdon, Mrs. Frank L. Henry, Jr., Mrs. W. T. Miss Elizabeth Sloop entertained at contract at her home in Mooresville in honor of Miss Elizabeth Dowdle, whose marriage to William Ellison Willis, Jr., of Greer, S. C., will be a social event of June.

Miss Dorothy Carson, was winner of the high score prize and Miss Jane Hildreth won low score prize. Miss Dowdle was presented a shower.

The hostess was assisted in serving a salad course by her mother and Miss Doris Jones, of Goldsboro.

Miss Sloop will be maid of honor for Miss Dowdle at her marriage.

Miss Dowdle was the honoree at one of the prettiest parties of the spring Thursday night at the home of Mrs. J. T. Fesperman, on South Main street.

The living room of the Fesperman home was lovely with white flowers, including magnolias, larkspur and feverfew. A miniature bride marked the place where Miss Dowdle was to sit.

Contract was played at five tables, with Miss Lazelle Fellows, Mrs. J. W. Harbison and Miss Elizabeth Sloop winning prizes. An electric iron was presented Miss Dowdle.

The guest of honor received a telegram during the evening telling her to go to another room in the home. Arriving there she found gifts piled high for a kitchen shower.

The hostesses served a salad course following out the bridal scheme of green and white.

Miss Margaret Fulton entertained at a house party at her home in Walnut Cove, honoring Miss Dowdle, and Mr. Willis, with 20 invited guests present.

Miss Dowdle was honor guest at a bridge party given by Miss Norma Montgomery, with three tables of bridge in play. The honoree was presented linen guest towels. A salad course was served at the conclusion of the playing.

Mrs. W. J. Bullock was hostess at two tables of bridge, complimentary to Miss Dowdle. The honor guest was presented hose. The hostess served a delicious salad course.

A further courtesy tendered Miss Dowdle was when Mrs. Roy W. Reece entertained with eight tables of bridge in play. The honoree was presented a set of sherpets in the crystal pattern. The hostess served a salad at the conclusion of the playing.

Good Judgment

After logical consideration of life's hazards men build defenses against emergencies. Life insurance is one of the best safeguards used by precautionary wisdom.

At times of bereavement a family often fails to use the sound judgment they exercise upon ordinary occasions. We firmly counsel all to avoid allowing extravagant notions of elaborate funerals work avoidable hardships on the living.

We assist all to choose a service whose cost is in keeping with their resources.
