MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

EVANS-HORSLEY

A wedding of beautiful simplicity was that of Miss Laska Evans, daughter of Mrs. Claude Evans, to William Horsley, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Horsley, which was performed Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. T. J. Johnston on Harrison avenue.

The living room and hall were decorated with pink gladioli and Queen Anne's lace, with tall white tapers in silver candle sticks, making a beautiful setting for the wedding.

The couple entered the living room unattended to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Ben W. Woodruff. The Rev. J. A. Flanagan, of the Presbyterian church, performed the marriage, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in her traveling dress of beige galawind trimmed in brown with accessories to match. Her corsage was of pale pink rose buds.

The couple left immediately for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends at the Dowdle apartment.

Only the families of the bride and groom and a few close friends attended the marriage.

Mrs. Horsley is a graduate of the Hazelton high school, of Hazelton, Pa., and Mr. Horsley is a graduate of the Franklin high school and holds a position with the Perry Drug store in Franklin.

BAPTIST W. M. U. TO MEET JULY 21

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Franklin Baptist church will meet on Thursday, July 21, at 3 o'clock. Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. R. M. Ledford on Iotla street and will be assisted by Mrs. C. D. Baird. Circle No. 2 will meet with Mrs. Herbert McGlamery at her home on East Main street, on the same afternoon at the same hour.

U. D. C. HOLDS REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING

The Macon County Chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy met on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of Miss Nora Leach, on West Main street, for their regular monthly meeting.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Carl S. Slagle, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. H. E. Church, chairman of the program committee. After a report from the committees of the work done the past month, Mrs. Church read a very interesting article on who designed the "Stars and Bars," the first official flag of the Southern Confederacy.

This flag was designed by Major Oren Randolph Smith, of Louisville, N. C., and was raised at Louisville March 4, 1861.

The visiting members present were: Mrs. Florence Davis, of the Georgetown, Miss., chapter; Mrs. J. E. Abernethy, who is a member at Lexington, N. C., and Mrs. Pope Ellard, of Cornelia, Ga.

The next meeting will be held with Miss Lilly Rankin at her home on Riverview street the second Monday in August.

Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

BAPTIST W. M. U. MEETS AT ARROWOOD

The regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Franklin Baptist church met at Arrowood Glade on Thursday afternoon with 34 members present and one visitor.

The devotional was led by Miss Charlotte Conley, with the treasurer's report being made by Mrs. O. C. Bryant.

Mrs. Sam Gibson, county superintendent of the Woman's Missionary Union, was presented a W. M. U. pin from the Franklin society in appreciation of the splendid co-operation and service she has rendered the society during her leadership.

The hostesses, Mrs. J. Horner Stockton, Mrs. A. R. Higdon, Mrs. J. H. Carelock and Mrs. O. C. Bryant, served delicious ice cold watermelons.
