

Franklin Social News

(Continued from Page Three)

DINNER PARTY GIVEN BY EASTERN STAR

One of the outstanding social events of the season was a dinner party given by the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star at The Tavern, Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Athalea Brown, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina.

Other guests of honor were John Orr, Grand Chaplain, Miss Leuna Tatham, district deputy worthy matron for the 12th district, Mrs. Amy Morgan, district committeewoman and Mr. Robert Wells, the principal of the Franklin school, and Mrs. Wells.

The table decorations were yellow and bronze gladioli in blue bowls with yellow tapers in blue candle holders.

Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, worthy matron of the local chapter, was hostess, and Superintendent M. D. Billings, from the local Masonic lodge, was host.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Elizabeth Slagle and presented to the receiving line, composed of Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, M. D. Billings, Mrs. Athalea Brown, John Orr, Miss Leuna Tatham, Mrs. Amy Morgan, Mrs. Eunice Hill Church, Mrs. Leola Penn and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wells.

After dinner talks and expressions of welcome were made by the following: Paul Gerrard, from the U. S. forest service; John Archer, president of the Rotary club; Mrs. Henry Slagle, chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary and Gold Star Mother; the Rev. H. S. Williams, pastor of the Franklin circuit; Mrs. Lyman Higdon, owner and manager of the Frances Shoppe; A. R. Higdon, adjutant of the American Legion; R. V. Miles, president of the Chamber of Commerce; J. S. Conley brought greetings and words of welcome from George B. Patton, mayor of Franklin and chairman of the Governor's hospitality committee, and Superintendent Billings spoke in behalf of the local Masonic lodge.

Mrs. W. C. Penn gave a toast to the honoree, Mrs. Athalea Brown to which she responded very graciously.

Covers were laid for approximately 50 guests. Immediately after the banquet, members of the Order proceeded to the Masonic Hall where a special meeting was held for Mrs. Brown, who was making her official visit of the year.

U. D. C. TO MEET WITH MISS LILY RANKIN

The Macon County Chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy will meet on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of Miss Lily Rankin on Riverview street. All members are requested to attend.

METHODIST W. M. S. TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY

The meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church, which was announced for Friday of this week, has been postponed until next Thursday, August 11, and will be held at the church.

MRS BARRINGTON ENTERTAINS FOR GUESTS

Mrs. J. C. Barrington entertained at a breakfast at her attractive home on the Georgia road, Tuesday morning, in honor of her guests, Mrs. Athalea Brown, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of North Carolina, Order of the Eastern Star, and Miss Leuna Latham, district deputy worthy matron for the 12th district, Order of the Eastern Star.

The breakfast table cover was of beautiful Irish lace, the center piece a mirror reflector with a lovely blue, transparent bowl containing yellow golden glow and maiden hair fern. The living and dining rooms were very artistic with decorations of lemon colored dahlias, shasta daisies and golden glow.

The following were invited: the honorees, Mrs. W. C. Penn, Mrs. R. V. Miles, Miss Elizabeth Slagle and Mrs. W. T. Moore.

Mrs. J. W. McCrary, of Atlanta, is a guest at Trimont Inn.

Charles Ingram, of Daytona Beach, Fla., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Ingram, at her home on Franklin Route 4, and his sisters in Clayton, Ga.

Miss Evelyn Sondheimer left Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Ware for Clermont, Fla.

R. N. Stiles, of Franklin Route 2, was among the business visitors here Tuesday.

William Elmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Elmore, of West's Mill, left Thursday for Washington, D. C., where he will enter training for the United States immigration service.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Angel, of Haines City, Fla., are here for a visit with Mr. Angel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Angel, Sr.

Miss Helen Burch, of Davidson, is spending a couple of days in Franklin, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones. Miss Burch was formerly a teacher in the Franklin high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Murphy, of Leesburg, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Clarke Soper.

Mrs. Stribling, who recently underwent a very serious operation at Angel hospital, was able to be taken to Highlands Tuesday where she will spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Holt, while recuperating. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Myra Ellard.

A. E. Griffith and Miss Ann Tankersley, of Athens, Ga., arrived Sunday to join Miss Lucy Griffith at Trimont Inn.

Miss Esta Mae Childers and Miss Louise Blaine left Saturday morning for Philadelphia, Pr., where they will spend 10 days with the former's brother, Henry D. Childers and Mrs. Childers. On their return they will visit Miss Childers' brother, Lester Childers and Mrs. Childers, at their home in Hopewell, Va.

Moses Blumenthal and family have moved from the Charles Bradley house to the newly erected house of Manson Stiles on Bidwell street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wells, who have been attending summer school at the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, have returned to Franklin. Mr. Wells is the new principal of the Franklin high school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kinnebrew and young daughter, of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end in Franklin visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Bomer Hill and daughter, Miss Wilmot Hill, have returned to Charleston, W. Va., after a visit to Mr. Hill at Trimont Inn.

A party was given Monday afternoon for Pheobe Stanfield, in honor of her 12th birthday. Many interesting games were played, and delightful refreshments were served. There were 26 guests present.

Mrs. James H. Shelley and twin

New Rapid-Firing Rifles for U. S. Army

Army privates at Fort Hamilton, N. Y., test the new Garand model, 30-caliber semi-automatic rifles which will replace the Springfield rifles they are now using. The new rifles are capable of firing 60 rounds per minute. The Springfields are capable of firing a maximum of 15 rounds per minute.

Is Lovely Lady Real Living Mermaid?

Is "Sea-Tiny," pictured above, the answer to that old question "Do mermaids really exist?" Of all the countless curiosities that have ever been presented from time to time, there has been absolutely nothing to equal Sea-Tiny, from an anatomical standpoint. Sea-Tiny is one of the feature attractions with the Mammoth Marine Hippodrome that will exhibit in Franklin for one day only, Wednesday August 17. The exhibit, will be located near the courthouse immediately upon arrival and will be open to the public from noon until 11 p. m. Admissions ten cents.

daughters, of Lake Helen, Fla., are spending several days visiting Mrs. Verna Green at her home on Green street and relatives and friends at Prentiss.

Miss Kathleen Arrowood, of Washington, D. C., will arrive this week to visit Mrs. J. E. Abernethy.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Fouts and two sons have returned to Detroit, Mich., after spending two weeks with relatives on Iotla.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Rogers and Miss Bonnie Parrish, of Robbinsville, were visiting at the home of Miss Parrish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Parrish, at West's Mill Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jewell Parrish and little daughter, Maxine, of Bryson City.

Nelson Cole, of Baker, Ore., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McConnell at their home on Iotla street last week. While here Mr. Cole also visited other relatives and friends in Macon county.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown, of Gainesville, Ga., spent the week-end here with their mothers, Mrs. C. S. Brown, Sr., and Mrs. H. O. Cozad.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert L. Jerome and young son, Lyle, of Wilmington, are spending several days in Franklin visiting Mrs. Jerome's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Porter. Mrs. Jerome was the former Miss Jean Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dover R. Fouts and three sons, of Burnsville, spent the week-end visiting Mr. Fouts' father, Dr. J. H. Fouts and Mrs. Fouts, at their home on Iotla street.

Lucius Taylor, of Harlan, Ky., composer and teacher of music, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. West, at their home at Iotla recently.

Clifford N. Harrison, John O. Harrison, Jr., and Mrs. Talley, of Fort Worth, Texas, arrived Sunday for a two weeks visit with the former's father and sister, John O. Harrison and Miss Amy Harrison, at their home on Harrison avenue.

T. B. Higdon, of Atlanta, spent the week-end at Higdonville with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Higdon, who celebrated her birthday anniversary Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Tysinger and son, Durmont, of Lexington, are here for a visit with their son and brother, Carl Tysinger, Jr., and Mrs. Tysinger, at their home on Harrison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. West, of San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. Eva Mumpower, of Asheville, are spending several days with their brother, C. C. West.

The Rev. and Mrs. Roy C. Matthews and three children, of Long Island, N. Y., and a Mrs. Rogers, of Atlanta, spent the week-end on Bonny Crest, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carelock.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Watkins and children, of Pittsburgh, Pa., arrived in Franklin Sunday for a visit with Mr. Watkins' sister, Mrs. Charlie Stiles and Mr. Stiles, and Mrs. Watkins' brother, John H. Thomas and Mrs. Thomas. While here they will attend the Watkins' reunion, which is to be held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stiles.

Congressman Zebulon Weaver will be the guest of T. W. Porter and Dr. Furman Angel at Dr. Angel's fishing lodge on Buck Creek over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Guffey returned Sunday after spending a week visiting points of interest on the coast. While at Roanoke Island they attended the pageant, "The Lost Colony."

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Saye and daughter, Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Waldrop, of Athens, Ga., spent the week-end with Mr. Waldrop's mother, Mrs. Mary Lyle

Waldrop, at her home on Franklin Route 1.

Aubrey Carelock returned to his home on Bonny Crest Saturday, after spending two months in Macon, Ga., with his grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Hartley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Landrum and daughter, of Daytona Beach, Fla., are spending several days with Mr. Landrum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Landrum, at their home on Cullasaja.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley T. Rogers and young son, Wiley, of Chattanooga, Tenn., are here for a visit with Mr. Rogers' mother, Mrs. Sam A. Rogers, at Rogers Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleet Scroggs and three children returned to their home in Richmond, Va., Tuesday morning, after a visit with Mrs. Scroggs' parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Smith, at their home on Bidwell street. Mr. Scroggs also made a business trip to Atlanta while here.

N. C. TOBACCO QUOTA

The North Carolina flue-cured tobacco marketing quota for the 1938-39 marketing year to be apportioned among growers is approximately 494,934,000 pounds, reveals E. Y. Floyd, AAA executive officer at State college.

Loyal Order of Moose

Franklin Lodge, No. 452 Meets In Americal Legion Hall Every Friday Night 8:00 O'Clock Billy Bryson, Secretary

Permanent Waves or Ringlets $2.00 up
GIRLS ENROLL NOW FOR FALL CLASS IN BEAUTY CULTURE AT THE

Nantahala Beauty Shop

McCOY BUILDING FRANKLIN, N. C.

NOW YOU CAN BUY Tailored-to-Measure Clothes on TIME PAYMENTS

SMALL DEPOSIT AND AS LOW AS $1.00 PER WEEK
All Wool Fabrics—Expert Union Tailoring
SATISFACTION IN STYLE, FIT AND WEAR GUARANTEED

See Bob Gaines

SCOTT GRIFFIN HOTEL

FRANKLIN, N. C.