MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

ADAMS-CORBIN

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adams, of Ellijay, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Sarah, to Lyman Corbin.

The wedding took place Saturday, August 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dills, of Ellijay, in the presence of a number of relatives and close friends.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of sky blue with accessories of white.

Mr. Corbin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Corbin, of the Ellijay community.

They are at present making their home with the groom's parents.

MRS. HORSLEY GUEST AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Mrs. Lyman Higdon and Mrs. A. R. Higdon entertained with a miscellaneous shower at the home of the former on last Friday afternoon complimenting Mrs. J. William Horsley, a recent bride.

The guests were met by Misses Kate Sellers, Jean Moore, Ruth Higgins and Carol Tessier. Mrs. J. C. Barrington presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Lyman Higdon, Mrs. Horsley, the honoree, Mrs. Claude Evans, mother of the honoree, Misses Mary Will Higdon, Margaret Slagle, Ruth Smith, Frances Smith, and Marjorie McBride.

Mrs. A. R. Higdon was in charge of the registration book, where more than 100 registered.

The guests were then taken to the spacious lawn by Misses Betty Rogers and Leeida Beshears where the punch bowl was placed under the pines. Presiding there were Miss Dorothy Sloan, Nell Smith and Sarah Conley.

Little Miss Julia Ann Higdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Higdon, carried a telegram to the honoree, which announced: "Your ship has arrived, your merchandise unloaded. Follow the messenger." Mrs. Horsley was taken to four "docks" where gifts were found.

The home was decorated throughout with bowls of dahlias and mixed garden flowers. The dining room table, overlaid with a beautiful lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of mixed flowers.

EXPORTS GRAIN

The U. S. department of agriculture reports that American farmers sold $155,000,000 more agriculture products abroad during the fiscal year 1937-38 than during the previous 12 months.

LEAVE HOME

A recent survey by Ray E. Wakeley, rural sociologist at Iowa State college, indicated that more than one-half of the rural children of Iowa leave home, and of these one out of five leaves the state.

North Carolina's tobacco crop occupies about one-fourth as much acreage as corn but had almost three times as much as the value of corn, reports the state department of agriculture.

Although the number of exhibits was doubled last year, officials of the state fair, to be held at Raleigh October 11-15, expect a further increase this year.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace has announced that revisions will be made in tobacco quotas where the allotment seems inequitable.

When you drink Beer in a tavern... choose your tavern

WHEN YOU restrict your patronage to legal, respectable retail outlets, you not only encourage those better outlets but you've made a start toward driving out the bad spots in your community.

And that is exactly the aim of the great body of honest retailers of beer who, along with the brewers, recognize that Beer's only problem is to remove the anti-social conditions that sometimes surround its sale.

Existing laws can curb these evils. Help us by demanding their strict enforcement! Sales to minors, or after legal hours... or use of a beer license as a screen, for selling illicit liquor or for operating an illicit resort... all these are violations of the law and should be stopped. Public opinion, once aroused, can see that such practices are stopped!
