NEW TIGER BOSS

Del Baker, who succeeded Mickey Cochrane as manager of the Detroit Tigers, is spurring the team toward a permanent place in the American league's first division. Cochrane left for a fishing vacation in Wyoming following his dismissal by owner Walter O. Briggs Sr., after he had won pennants in 1934 and 1935, a world's series in 1935 and finished second in 1936 and 1937. The new manager said he did not have any changes in mind immediately, but declared he would demand that every player hustle on every play.

Pallbearers were: Ed Mozeley, Harley McDowell, James McDowell, Robert Cabe, John Cabe and J. M. Cabe.

Dryman Reunion Held August 20

The annual reunion of the Dryman family was held at the home of Earl Dryman, the old Dryman homestead, on Saturday, Aug. 20. A large number of the family was present and a few visitors attended.

The biggest attraction of the day was the delicious picnic dinner which was spread on a long table under the shade of a huge oak tree on the spacious lawn.

Pictures were taken of different members of the Dryman family.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Reverend Fred Dryman, president, and Mrs. Prelo Dryman, secretary. The meeting closed with "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The reunion will be held at the same place next year on the first Saturday in September.

Mrs. M. J. Martin Dies At Rainbow Springs

Mrs. M. J. Martin, 82, died Monday, August 22, at Rainbow Springs.

She is survived by seven sons, A. H., Jim, Pink, Lee, John, R. J. and Isaac Martin, and one daughter, Mrs. Will Bradley.

Mrs. Martin had been a member of the Baptist church for many years, and was highly esteemed.

Funeral details could not be learned at the time of going to press.

Gladwell Reunion Held Last Saturday

The Gladwell reunion was held on August 20 at T. A. Gladwell's home near Otto.

On this occasion all the living children of J. H. Gladwell were present. Hill Gladwell and wife and Alex Gladwell and family, of Lincolnton, Ga.; Charlie Garland and wife, of Martin, Ga.; Mrs. Callie Enloe and family, of Greenville, S. C.; Mrs. Nina Ashley, of Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. Jesse Carpenter and children, of Otto; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williamson and children and Mr. and Mrs. Eli Henson and family, of Prentiss.

After hearty greetings and handshakes, a very delicious dinner was spread. Following dinner there was special music and singing by Bill and Frank Bell. F. C. Carpenter read a portion of scripture from the book of Genesis, and Rev. H. A. O'Kelley made a very appropriate talk, as did Mr. Eli Henson.

There were over 100 people present. The hosts were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gladwell, Miss Eva Gladwell, Mrs. Mamie Moss and Barnett Gladwell.

The next reunion will be held at Mrs. Fred Williamson's at Prentiss on the third Saturday in August, 1939.

A Correction

In the August 11 issue of The Franklin Press, an article was printed stating that a considerable amount of work was given by the Home Demonstration Club to the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Turner E. Breedlove at Etna.

We find that the information given as was incorrect and that Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove did the work entirely by themselves without the aid of anyone. However, Mrs. Breedlove is a member of the club in her community.
