TEA GIVEN BY WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

A tea given by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church at Faraway, the lovely summer home of Mrs. Duncan Dougall, on Satulah mountain, Saturday, September 3, was attended by about 45 guests, who were received by the officers of the Auxiliary, Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, Miss Rebecca Nall, and Miss Cora Miltimore.

The musical program, under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Hall, was greatly enjoyed. Piano selections were given by Mesdames A. C. Holt, J. M. Hall, O. F. Summer, R. B. DuPree, and Miss Hetzel; vocal selections by Guy Paul, Jr., Miss Betty Nollman, and R. B. DuPree.

The rooms were artistically decorated with dahlias, asters and marigolds. Miss Esther Elliott poured tea at the well appointed table, which was centered with a bowl of fall flowers. Other members of the auxiliary assisted in serving delicious sandwiches and several kinds of cake. Fifty-one dollars was realized.

The occasion was a delightful one, and Mrs. Dougall a most gracious hostess.

Serving Sundaes at Home

WHAT more interesting dessert could you offer guests than this "make your own sundae" idea? So simple, too. Just a suitable order of ice cream, heaped up in a large bowl—and a few assorted sauces, fruits, nuts, or other delicacies. Everyone will enjoy this dessert—and come back for more.

"MAKE-YOUR-OWN" SUNDAE (Illustrated)

Serve ice cream at table from a large platter or on individual plates. Pass a tray of assorted trimmings such as shaved chocolate, sweetened crushed raspberries, toasted coconut and fresh peach sauce and let the guests choose their own trimmings. The trimmings may be varied according to the time of the year. This is an interesting and novel way of varying ice cream service.

BLACKBERRY TARTS

½ cup sugar	1½ teaspoons
3 tablespoons flour	lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt	butter
½ cup water	6 baked tart shells
2 cups blackberries	Ice cream

Mix the sugar, flour and salt and add with the water to the blackberries. Cook, stirring gently but constantly until thickened. Add lemon juice and butter and cool slightly. Pour into tart shells. This makes 6 tarts. Serve with vanilla, orange-pineapple or peach ice cream.

Muse's Corner

POEMS OF FALL

1. PAINTING
 Autumn is a Gypsy woman
 Beautiful and still,
 Resting on a gray rock
 Upon a wooded hill;

Autumn is a Gypsy, in
 A crimson, tattered gown;
 About her, yellow leaves
 Are slowly drifting down.

2. MILKWEED
 Did you ever see milkweed
 Silky spun,
 Afloat in the air
 Between you and the sun?
 Hair of the fairies
 Or shimmering wings,
 Pale gold and silvery
 Miracle things.

What—
 You've never seen milkweed
 Silky spun
 In between, you
 And the afternoon sun?
 You've missed, then, a sight
 Which can only compare
 To more silky milkweed
 Afloat in the air!

3. TAPESTRY

The still blue wonder
 Of the sky
 At Autumn Earth's
 Clear, color-cry;
 The pine trees stir
 In soft amaze
 At the changing beauty
 Of her days.
 Only the butterflies
 Born of Fall
 Deem it not unusual,
 Drifting dreamy
 Here—and there
 Like painted wings
 On the painted air. . . .
