MOORE-SLOAN

Mrs. L. B. Moore announces the marriage of her daughter, Mildred Bowman Moore, of Franklin, to Mr. J. W. Sloan, of Franklin, in Georgia, on Sunday, September 25. The Rev. Mr. Helm performed the ceremony before a few friends.

Mrs. Sloan is the daughter of L. B. Moore and the late Mr. Moore. She graduated from the Webster high school and completed a business course in Franklin.

Mr. Sloan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Sloan. He attended Berry School, at Rome, Ga., and Western Carolina Teachers' college, at Cullowhee. He is at present teaching at Mulberry school in Macon county.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan are making their home in Franklin.

HOWARD-INGRAM

In the Sunday, September 18, issue of the Daytona Beach (Fla.) News-Journal there appeared the following account of the marriage of Miss Nancy Irene Howard, of Daytona Beach and Charles Woodrow Ingram, of Franklin, which occurred Saturday afternoon, September 17.

"Miss Nancy Irene Howard, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Paul, Riverview boulevard, became the bride of Charles Woodrow Ingram, son of the late state senator Charles L. Ingram and Mrs. Ingram, of Franklin, N. C., at a quiet ceremony at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Paul home. Rt. Rev. William J. Mullally performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few close friends of the couple.

"Nuptial vows were spoken in front of a fern embanked fireplace. Dahlias ranging from pale pink to dark rose were used in profusion about the green-covered background. Tiered candelabra were placed at either side of the mantel and in the center of the mantel was a large basket filled with pink dahlias.

"The bride was given in marriage by her foster father. She was gowned in a floorlength dress of white silk marquisette over white satin. Her gown was fashioned on princess lines with short train and a square neck edged in chantilly lace. Her sleeves were puffed near the shoulders. She wore a finger tip tulle veil and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, sweetheart roses and other dainty flowers.

"Only attendants were Miss Beatrice Guzewich, of this city, and Joseph McCorkle, also of this city. Miss Guzewich wore a floor-length gown of flesh colored chiffon. This dress was fashioned with tight bodice, full skirt and square neck. Tiny ruffles formed an attractive line on the shoulders. Her bouquet was of dahlias.

"An informal reception for wedding attendants followed the ceremony. Mrs. Paul presided at the refreshment table. She was dressed in a green silk lace ankle-length gown fashioned on simple lines. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Assisting at the reception was Mrs. J. A. Ward, of New Smyrna Beach, sister of Mrs. Paul.

"Centering the refreshment table was a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miniature rosebuds and lilies of the valley also decorated the top of the cake. Dahlias were used in profusion throughout the home and silver service and candelabra were used on the refreshment table.

"Mrs. Ingram was born in Daytona Beach and has lived here most of her life. She was graduated from Seabreeze high school, and took an active part in school activity there.

"Mr. Ingram is a native of Franklin. He attended school there and was graduated from Christ college in Asheville, N. C. He was employed by Mather-Holkins company here up until a short time ago when he left to join his brother in operating a chain of moving picture theatres in North Carolina and Georgia. The couple will live in North Carolina."

STEWART-BRYSON

The following account of the wedding of Frank Lyle Bryson, formerly of Franklin, and Miss Zula Stewart in Tucson, Ariz., is taken from the Daily Citizen, of Tucson:

"Now honeymooning in northern Arizona are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyle Bryson, whose marriage was an event of Monday at the Bryson home. Rev. Leland Koewing officiated at the quiet home ceremony, at which over 50 guests were present.

"The bride, the former Zula Stewart, daughter of Mrs. David Alexander Stewart, of Atlanta, Ga., wore a turquoise blue ensemble of light wool with tie and sash of multi-colored ribbon. Her arm bouquet was of pink and white asters.

"Mr. Bryson was attended by W. H. Hughes. Music at the ceremony was provided by James Porter, nephew of the bridegroom, who played Cadman's "At Dawning," Carrie Jacob Bond's "I Love You Truly," the introduction to Act III and the bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and the wedding march from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream."

"The vows were exchanged in the patio before an altar of white asters and tall green ferns. Garden flowers filled baskets lining the rock wall. Following the ceremony the guests gathered in the living room for an informal reception where the bride cut a traditional white wedding cake in which were a piece of silver, a button and a gold ring. Decorating the table were pink Rosa Montana and ferns. Mrs. L. E. Wyatt and Mrs. H. H. Flickinger presided.

"The couple will return to Tucson in two weeks for a few days before going to the U. S. forest service camp near Portal, where Mr. Bryson is stationed. Mrs. Bryson attended schools in Atlanta, and Mr. Bryson received his education in North Carolina before entering the forest service."

The bride was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Porter in Franklin one week-end during August. Mrs. Porter is a sister of Mr. Bryson.
