

Hospital News

Harvey Cody, of Cashiers, who suffered a broken arm and was practically scalped in an automobile accident on September 14, is reported to be recovering at Angel hospital. Cody, an employee of the B. ythe Construction company, said the accident was caused by his brake catching on gravel, causing the car to run off of the road and over the end of a bridge, throwing him through the windshield.

Charlie Wesser, whose back was broken when a rock rolled from a cliff and struck him after a dynamite blast, is recovering.

James Burch, of Hayesville, is in the hospital suffering from a broken back caused by falling from a haystack.

The deadline for securing triple superphosphate under the 1938 agricultural conservation program caught many Mitchell county farmers, who expressed regret that the limited supply would hinder them from applying the phosphate to their lands this year.

Box Supper At Watauga Very Successful

The box supper at Watauga school house last Saturday night was a very successful affair, and $40 was realized which will be used to pipe water to the school house. James Raby sold the boxes with the help of Lee Crawford and J. J. Mann, and the following teachers assisted: J. B. Brendle, Misses Mattie Brendle, Katherine Ramey, Louise Siler and Kute Reece. The teachers of the school and the patrons desire to express their appreciation to the teachers and others who assisted in making the supper successful.

Tenant Farmers Apply For 14,824 FSA Loans

Applications have been filed by 14,824 tenant farmers in Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia for loans to buy farms under the tenant purchase program of the farm security administration, C. Carter Chase, chief of the tenant purchase section, announced today.

"Applications have been received from 124 of the 133 designated counties," Mr. Chase said. "This shows an average of 120 applicants per county. Nine counties not yet reported should raise the total of tenants seeking loans well above 15,000."

Report for the period ending

September 17 showed Tennessee far in the lead with an average of 202 applications per county, with only 23 of the 31 designated counties reported. Applications from Tennessee total 4,641. Of these, 5,588 were white tenants and 1,053 were Negroes.

North Carolina was first in the total number of applications with 5,658 reported from 49 of the 50 designated counties. This was an average of only 115 applications per county. Of these, 3,931 were white, 1,659 were Negroes and 68 Indians.

Kentucky, with all 21 designated counties reported, showed a total of 2,201 applications or an average of 105 per county. Of these, 2,165 were white and only 36 Negroes.

Virginia turned in 1,934 applications for an average of 81 in all of the 24 designated counties. Of these 1,108 were white and 426 Negroes. West Virginia, with only seven designated counties, turned in 390 applications for an average of 56 in each county.

White tenant applications totaled 11,582; Negroes 3,174 and Indians, 68.
