SWAIN-EDWARDS

Miss Elizabeth Swain, of Pinehurst, Ga., and Louis A. Edwards, of Highlands, were quietly married in Clayton, Ga., on July 3, which was a culmination of a four years' romance. The young couple planned to keep the marriage a secret till the 15th of October, when the bride, who has been hostess at the Edwards Hotel this summer, would leave for her home in Pinehurst, and they would take their postponed honeymoon trip. However, fate stepped in in the form of a troublesome appendix for Mr. Edwards, and the secret came out. Mr. Edwards underwent an operation for the removal of his appendix in Angel hospital on Monday, October 3.

Mrs. Edwards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swain, of Pinehurst, Ga. She studied music in Wesleyan Conservatory in Macon, later studying voice in Atlanta under Prof. Edgar Howerton, and is a graduate of the American School of Art in Chicago. Mrs. Edwards is the oldest of four sisters, Mrs. H. A. Woods, Misses Mildred and Mary Laura Swain, of Pinehurst, and has two brothers, Bill Swain, of Cordele, Ga., and Hiram Swain, of Pinehurst, who is a student at the University of Georgia.

Mr. Edwards is the only child of Mrs. W. W. Edwards and the late J. G. Edwards, and is a graduate of Clemson college of the class of 1937, specializing in architecture. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards expect to make their home in Highlands and have the best wishes of this community.

PRESBYTERIAN SUPPER ATTENDED BY 100

The Presbyterian church supper held at Highlands Inn Tuesday, September 28, was attended by 100 people. The delicious supper was prepared by Mrs. Helen Thompson and Mrs. Frank Potts, who are unsurpassed in this kind of work. At 7:30 o'clock the supper began with the singing of the doxology by all present, and the invocation by the pastor, Rev. R. B. DuPree. Mr. DuPree started the entertainment program by singing "Shortenin' Bread," and a reading by Catharine Nollman followed. The children's choir sang "That Sweet Story of Old," and Angela Anderson gave a piano solo.

Steve Potts, 17-year-old Sunday school superintendent, talked on the part the Sunday school plays in the life of the church, with special emphasis on the importance of educating children in the Christian religion, and the study of the Bible. Jack Potts' talk was along the lines of young people's work, in that the young people of today are the leaders of the church of tomorrow, and urged that the older people help by setting a Godly example.

Mrs. A. J. Anderson spoke on the Woman's Auxiliary and its place in the church as a whole, giving an outline of the working plan of this organization, and called special attention to the fact that every woman who is a member of the church is automatically a member of the auxiliary.

Sidney McCarty spoke on men's work in the church and made an appeal for organized work, stressing the fact that the women of the church do the greater part of the work, and but for them the pews would be mostly empty on Sunday mornings. But, Mr. McCarty said that the world had never fully recovered from woman's first attempt at leadership in Mother Eve! He suggested that the men organize in the way prescribed by the Presbyterian program, and have regular meetings.

In an open discussion for improving the church, one suggestion was that the members show a more cordial attitude toward visitors who come to the worship services. Two visiting Methodists from Wisconsin were welcomed when they came in by mistake. Henry Edmund Ravenel, of Spartanburg, S. C., spoke interestingly on the importance of church fellowship meetings.

The ladies were thanked for their support, and Frank B. Cook and Harvey Trice were thanked for the use of the Inn. The crowd stood with joined hands and sang the first verse of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," which was followed by the benediction, offered by the Rev. DuPree.

All members expressed a wish that suppers of this kind become regular affairs, since the first attempt was so successful.

REFUNDING PLAN DECLARED OPERATIVE

The refunding plan for the Town of Highlands was declared operative by the board of commissioners at their meeting on Monday night. The town has been notified by the local government commission that 80 per cent of the bondholders have accepted the plan, and they will proceed to issue new bonds and make the exchange as rapidly as the law allows.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MRS. GILBERT

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Incarnation held its regular meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, on Thursday, September 29, with 11 members present. Mrs. Gilbert conducted the meeting, and after the devotional, various business matters were discussed and attended to.

Miss Rebecca Nall stressed the importance of the Sunday school, and urged the members to make individual and united effort to build up this part of the church. Miss Louise Hunter, of Pendleton, S. C., told of her work in the church periodical club in upper South Carolina, suggesting that this auxiliary should have a CPC secretary, and Mrs. H. G. Story was appointed to the place.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Tudor Hall.

MRS. DUPREE ENTERTAINS YOUNG SINGERS

Mrs. R. B. DuPree, the leader of the Presbyterian junior choir, entertained the young singers at the manse on Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock. After the choir practice, games were played and ice cream, cake and candy served. Those present were: Mary Bascomb Cook, Margaret and Dot Rogers, Jessie and Nancy Potts, Angela, Anne and Mary Deas Anderson, Virginia Mae Edwards, Catharine Nollman, and June Thompson.

SCHOOL NOTES

The seventh grade, under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Brown, had charge of the chapel program last Friday morning, which began with the singing of America by all present. Virginia Burnette led the devotional. A health play was given in connection with diphtheria vaccination, which came at a very appropriate time, since the second "shot" was scheduled for Monday.

The play was very impressive, and showed a mother pleading with her husband to have their baby vaccinated. But the father refused till he saw what happened to a kinsman's child, who died of diphtheria. This made him a believer in vaccination. Those taking part in the play were: Christopher McCall, Leona Norton, Wilma Owen, Edna Phillips, Edwin Penland and Dorothy Rogers.

The second part of the program was Longfellow's poem "Excelsior" dramatized, with Bidd Burton taking the part of the boy who carried the banner, and Florence Waller reading the poem as it was enacted on the stage.

The O. F. Summer Literary society met recently and elected the following officers: Peggy Thompson, president; Harold McConnell, vice-president; Edith Crunkleton, secretary; Mozelle Bryson, chaplain; Marie Nelly, pianist; L. C. Nix, program critic; Victor Smith, order critic; Malcolm Zollner and Barak Wright, pages.

The lunchroom is serving approximately 175 pupils a day. Tuesday's menu consisted of lamb stew, rice, gravy, hot biscuit, butter, prunes, sliced tomatoes, and cocoa with marshmallows. Fourteen ladies from Clayton, Ga., were entertained on Tuesday, who were seeking information about operating lunch rooms, as they expect to open one in the Clayton school at an early date. These ladies expressed themselves as being delighted with the lunch and with the efficiency of the staff.
