U. D. C. MEETS WITH MRS. J. W. C. JOHNSON

The Macon County Chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson at Trimont Inn on Harrison avenue for the regular monthly business and social meeting. There were 11 members present and one visitor.

The meeting was opened by the reading of the ritual by the president, Mrs. Carl S. Slagle, who also presided over the business session. It was decided at this time to sponsor a "Flag Day" on Saturday, October 29, with the proceeds being used for the benefit of the chapter.

This being the time for the election of officers, the following were elected for the coming year: Miss Elizabeth Slagle, president; Mrs. Herbert E. Church, vice-president; Miss Lily Rankin, secretary; Mrs. Lester S. Conley, treasurer; Mrs. A. B. Slagle, historian; Mrs. T. J. Johnston, chaplain; and Mrs. Carl S. Slagle, registrar.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Herbert E. Church, chairman of the program committee. A very interesting article on the origin of "salt" was read by Mrs. W. W. Sloan. A contest on "What's in the Medical Trunk" was won by Mrs. Sam L. Rogers, who was presented a very pretty prize.

The November meeting will be held at "Sunnyside Farm" with Mrs. W. W. Sloan as hostess.

Those attending were: Mrs. J. E. Abernethy, Mrs. W. W. Sloan, Mrs. Charles Melichar, Mrs. George Slagle, Mrs. Herbert E. Church, Mrs. A. B. Slagle, Mrs. Zeb W. Conley, Mrs. Sam L. Rogers, Mrs. Carl S. Slagle, Mrs. Lester S. Conley and Miss Lily Rankin.

MRS. HERBERT CHURCH HAS 'GYPSY BRIDGE'

A delightful affair of last week was the "Gypsy Bridge" party given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Herbert E. Church, at her home.

A color motif of red and yellow was noted in the flowers and other party appointments. A salad course with accessories was served, which furthered the color scheme.

Upon arriving each guest was presented with a favor. During the afternoon there were five progressions, and at the end of each progression, the one having the highest score got her choice of the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bennett at Iota last Sunday. All present had a nice time, and a delicious dinner was enjoyed by all.
