Father-Son, Mother-Daughter Banquet

The first Father-Son, Mother-Daughter Banquet was held Thursday night by the home economics and agriculture departments of the Rabun Gap high school. A delicious plate was served to more than two hundred guests in the auditorium of the Rabun Gap-Nacoochee school gymnasium. William Turner, president of the local F. F. A. chapter, made a welcoming address and introduced the speakers.

Bob White, J. C. Porter, Ruth Grist, Leo Fry and Carolyn Ussery gave short talks on various phases of vocational home economics and agriculture.

The principal address was delivered by L. M. Sheffer, state supervisor of vocational agriculture.

Correction

In the colt show that was held Saturday, October 1, the colt placed third in the horse colt class was not mentioned nor was the man who gave this cash prize recognized.

One of the colts shown by John C. Ferguson was placed third and the three dollar prize was given by John Justice. This colt was sired by Mr. Justice's stallion.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our little son and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Henson and Family.

ADDITIONAL FRANKLIN SOCIAL ITEMS

CIRCLE MEETS AT MISS NOLEN'S CAMP

The Mary Johnston Allman Circle of the Franklin Methodist church met Tuesday evening at Miss Carolyn Nolen's camp at Arrowood Glade for its regular monthly business and devotional meeting. In the absence of Mrs. T. W. Porter, the group leader, Mrs. P. F. Callahan, gave a most interesting and inspirational message.

The society was organized one year ago on October 14 with 14 members. Since that time new names have been added and others taken from the roll as they moved away and found work in other cities.

Tuesday night there were 14 old members and five new members in attendance, with four guests, making a total of 23—the largest group for the whole year.

At this meeting a nominating committee was appointed to present a list of officers at the November meeting when the annual election will be held.

After the meeting adjourned the hostess served a very delicious and attractive plate and coffee.

MISS SLAGLE ENTERTAINED AT DINNER PARTY

Misses Amanda and Lucy Slagle entertained with a dinner party at their home on Cartoogechaye Monday evening honoring Miss Mary Slagle, whose wedding to J. B. Southerland will be a social event of Saturday, October 15.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the Misses Slagle with the honoree were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Slagle and daughter, Myra Slagle; Thomas M. Slagle and Richard Slagle.

DINNER GIVEN FOR BRIDE ELECT

Mrs. A. B. Slagle and Miss Elizabeth Slagle were hostesses at a dinner party at their home on West Main street Tuesday evening, as a further courtesy to Miss Mary Slagle, bride elect of this week.

Those enjoying the party with Miss Slagle were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Slagle and Mrs. W. W. Sloan.

MISS MARY SLAGLE HONORED WITH SHOWER

Miss Mary Slagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Slagle, of Cartoogechaye, and a bride elect of October 15, was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Hayne Arthur, on Cartoogechaye, Tuesday afternoon.

The rooms where the guests assembled were beautifully decorated in the autumn flowers.

As the guests arrived, the gifts were deposited in a rain-barrel which had been placed on the porch. Myra Slagle, sister of the bride-elect, rushed into the room and exclaimed that a "shower was coming" and would Mary come and assist her with the rain-barrel. Upon reaching the barrel, the honoree found many dainty and useful gifts.

A book on advice to the bride made by the guests and presented to the bride-elect, caused much merriment.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Jeff Enloe, of Cartoogechaye and Mrs. Rufus Snyder, of Franklin, served delicious punch, cakes and mints to about 30 guests who called during the afternoon.

LUNCHEON GIVEN FOR MISS SLAGLE

Miss Mary Slagle, bride-elect of Saturday, October 15, was honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Ben W. Woodruff Wednesday at her home on Harrison avenue.

The living room and dining room, which were thrown ensuite, were artistically arranged in bowls of mixed fall flowers, while the luncheon table was centered with a bowl of white fall flowers.

Covers were laid for six and the places were marked with bridal place cards. The honor guest's place was noted by a tulle bow showered with lillies-of-the-valley.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Woodruff with the honoree were: Mrs. Carl S. Slagle, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. T. J. O'Neil, Mrs. Frank Bloxham and Miss Lucy Slagle.

LUNCHEON GIVEN FOR MRS. NEIL JOHNSTON

Miss Lottie Kelly gave a luncheon for Mrs. Neil Cunningham

Johnston on Friday, October 7, at Kelly Tea Room.

The invited guests were Mrs. Charles Melichar, Mrs. John Hamer, Mrs. Furman Angel, Miss Jess Angel, Mrs. Roy F. Cunningham, and Mrs. W. T. Moore.

Mrs. Johnston and small daughter, Mary Ann, left Saturday morning for Lufkin, Texas to spend the winter.

THOMAS FAMILY GUESTS OF MR. AND MRS. W. T. WRIGHT

The members of the Charles Thomas family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wright and two children at their home on West Main street Sunday.

At the noon hour Mr. and Mrs. Wright and guests went to Arrowood Glade, where a very delicious picnic lunch was enjoyed by all.

Those attending were: Mrs. B. H. Carpenter and son, Lawrence, of Franklin; Mrs. Harley Gray, of Clear Lake, Wash.; Mrs. Charles Addington, and son, James; Mr. and Mrs. Hoke Addington and family, of Toccoa, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Thomas and children, of Greenville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hunt, of Seneca, S. C., and Mrs. Louise Addington Grant and two sons, of Cornelia, Ga.
