Miss Mary Slagle, a bride of Saturday, October 15, was honor guest at a tea and miscellaneous shower on Thursday afternoon at "Sunnyside Farm," the home of Mrs. W. W. Sloan.

The Sloan home was artistically arranged in quantities of late fall flowers. The dining room table was overlaid with a white cloth and was centered with a bowl of nasturtiums.

About this were arranged grapefruit, making a very effective and colorful centerpiece.

At either end of this beautifully appointed table, Mrs. Jess S. Sloan and Mrs. Thomas J. Johnston poured tea and coffee and delicious refreshments were served.

The guests were later ushered into the living room where Miss Slagle received a huge clothes basket full of beautiful gifts.

Assisting Mrs. Sloan as hostesses were Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Fred Slagle. About 30 friends called during the afternoon.

FOOD FOR NEEDY

Purchases of 41 agricultural commodities by the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation at a total cost of $48,400,000 during the fiscal year July 1, 1937 to June 30, 1938, are shown in the corporation's annual report. Purchases are diverted into relief channels.

When W. A. Brown, of Concord, Route 1, started to house his lespeza hay this fall, he had to remove 73 tons of old hay out of his barns to make space for the new. Hog pastures not rotated are but breeding places for parasites and diseases, say Halifax farmers who are adopting improved sanitary measures for growing their animals.
