CAKE-CUTTING PARTY FOR NEWLYWEDS

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Southerland, whose marriage was an event of last Saturday, were honored at a cake-cutting on Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Slagle.

The party followed the wedding rehearsal, and was attended by the wedding party and several friends. The guests gathered in the dining room where the table was laid with white linen and held a large bowl of white cosmos. The wedding cake was placed at one end of the table and was presided over by the bride. Mrs. Frank Bloxham poured coffee from a lovely silver service at the other end of the table. Before the cake was cut the guests were invited to pull their "fortunes," which were tied to white ribbons and arranged under the cake. There was much merriment as these fortunes were read aloud.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Woodruff entertained the guests with music.
