MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

VINEGUM-BAKER

Miss Katherine Vinegum, of Whittier and Franklin, and Woodrow Baker, of Statesville and Franklin, were married in Clayton, Ga., Sunday evening. R. C. Ramey, ordinary, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few invited friends.

Mrs. Baker, who has made her home in Franklin for the past 18 months, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Vinegum, of Whittier.

Mr. Baker, is the son of Lee Baker and the late Mrs. Baker, of Statesville. He came to Macon county four years ago, an enrollee in a CCC camp. During his first two years he was in the camps at West's Mill, Otto and Highlands. For the past year he has been employed in the Nantahala national forest service, stationed at Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their home in Franklin.

MORRIS-PEARCE

The marriage of Miss Mary Dan Morris, of Salisbury and Asheville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Morris, also of Salisbury, to Alvah Pearce, of 224 Chestnut street, has been announced. The wedding was solemnized October 16 at the First Methodist church of Salisbury with the minister, the Rev. Walter West, officiating.

The bride was educated at Salisbury high school and took a training course at Mission hospital in Asheville.

The bridegroom is with the Standard Oil company and is located in Asheville where the couple will reside.

Mr. Pearce, as pharmacist in Smith's Drug store, made his home in Franklin for a number of years.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MRS. C. D. BAIRD

One of the largest and most attractive parties of the fall season was the miscellaneous shower given on last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. T. Moore and Mrs. Roy F. Cunningham, at the home of the former on the Georgia road, as a courtesy to Mrs. C. D. Baird nee Miss Cassie Dills, a recent bride.

The living room, where more than 100 friends gathered during the afternoon, was artistically arranged with bowls of white, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and other fall flowers. The dining room table, which was overlaid with an exquisite lace cloth, was centered with a crystal bowl of mixed fall flowers placed on a reflector. At either corner of the table four burning white tapers were placed.

The honoree was the recipient of many attractive and useful gifts, such as linens, woolen blankets, dishes, pottery, cooking utensils and many other gifts too numerous to mention.

The hostesses assisted by Mrs. Carl Tysinger, Jr., and Mrs. Amos Harris, served delicious punch, cake and mints.

MRS. C. L. BLAINE CELEBRATES 68th ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Charlie L. Blaine celebrated her 68th birthday anniversary at her home on Cartoogechaye Sunday with a dinner.

A delicious dinner was enjoyed by the family and a large number of friends, who gathered to wish Mrs. Blaine many more happy birthdays. She was the recipient of many nice gifts.

Among the children and their families present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blaine and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Blaine and baby; Mrs. Frank Hughes and family; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Moffitt, of Cartoogechaye; Walter Blaine, and Miss Jewel Jackson, of Asheville.

LEGION AUXILIARY OFFICERS VISIT FRANKLIN

Mrs. Herbert Taylor, Dunn, president of the American Legion auxiliary of the state of North Carolina; Miss Arelia Adams, state secretary and Mrs. A. C. Duncan, aerial vice-president, made their official visit to the Franklin Macon auxiliary on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Taylor, who was introduced by Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, gave a very able and inspiring address after which she installed the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, committeewoman for the 20th district; Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, president; Mrs. John Wasilik, vice-president; Mrs. J. E. Perry, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. J. Henry Slagle, chaplain; Mrs. Kate Waldroop, sergeant-at-arms.

After the installation Mrs. Jones presented Miss Adams and Mrs. Duncan, who spoke on the objectives of the auxiliary for the year, John Wasilik, Jr., commander of the local legion and A. R. Higdon, adjutant, extended greetings and welcome to the guests.

Gilmer A. Jones, district commander, gave the address of the evening.

Several musical numbers were very beautifully rendered by Mrs. B. W. Woodruff and Mrs. J. L. Averell.

A social hour was enjoyed, presided over by Miss Lizzie Kelly, Mrs. Jess Thomas and Mrs. J. E. Perry.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR J. P. ADAMS

Mrs. William Cogdill and Miss Alice Adams entertained with a farewell party, at the home of the former, on Ellijay Saturday evening, as a courtesy to their uncle, J. P. Adams, who will leave soon for Sedro-Wooley, Wash., and other Western points.

A large crowd of Mr. Adams' friends attended the party and a good time was enjoyed by all.

String music was furnished by a band of musicians from Fines Creek in Haywood county, throughout the evening.

MR. NICHOLS CELEBRATES FIFTIETH BIRTHDAY

Mr. V. A. Nichols celebrated his 50th birthday at his home on upper Tesenta last Sunday, October 23. Many relatives and friends were on hand for the occasion, and a bountiful dinner was served in the grove near the home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, Misses Ada Belle Sherrill, Meta Peek and Helen Cunningham, Dr. Ralph Wimberley and Lewis Mauney all went to Brevard Sunday for a visit with Excel Lothery.

Mrs. Lon Campbell returned to her home Monday, after spending a month visiting relatives and friends in Verden, Okla.

Norton Holbrooks, of West's Mill, left Friday for Detroit, Mich., where he has employment.

Mrs. J. E. S. Thorpe, Mrs. H. E. Church and Mrs. C. S. Brown, Sr., attended the first district meeting of the Federal Woman's clubs in Andrews on Friday of the past week.

Charles Melichar, supervisor of the Nantahala national forest service, who has been confined to his room for the past two weeks with influenza, is able to be out again.

Mrs. O. W. Ashe left Monday for her home in Portland, Ore., after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barnard, and other relatives and friends in Franklin.
