BAPTIST MEN MEET SUNDAY

Laymen From W. N. C. to Gather For Rally At Bryson City

A great rally for men of the Baptist churches in this section of Western North Carolina, including the counties of Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Swain, Graham, Clay and Cherokee, has been planned for Sunday, October 30, to be held in the Bryson City Baptist church, from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

This meeting was suggested by Rev. C. W. Rogers, pastor of the Bryson City Baptist church, as the beginning of a concerted movement among Baptist men of this section, whereby the man power of Baptist churches may be more fully utilized in the Kingdom work.

The Bryson City Baptist Brotherhood, of which McKinley Edwards, prominent attorney and layman, is president, enthusiastically adopted Rev. Rogers' suggestion and appointed a committee consisting of Mr. Edwards, J. H. Harwood, Vance A. Browning and Rev. Rogers to plan such a meeting, arrange the program and issue invitations to the men through their pastors and churches.

Favorable responses are already coming in in sufficient number to indicate that other pastors and laymen in this western district have been feeling the need of such a movement, and that they welcome the opportunity to meet and plan to work together in the cause of Christ. An attendance of at least 500 men is anticipated.

John L. Orr,
Publicity Chairman.

Following is the program for the session:
2:30—Song.
2:35—Devotional: Rev. J. S. Hopkins, Waynesville.
2:45 — Address, "Brotherhood Work," McKinley Edwards.
3:15—Song.
3:20—"Who's Here," and Reports.
3:50—Song.
4:00—Address, "Men and the Kingdom Work," Rev. C. W. Rogers, Bryson City.
4:30—Adjourn.
Presiding officer, McKinley Edwards, president of Bryson City Baptist Brotherhood.
Song leader, A. L. Smiley, Bryson City.

Mrs. Charity Tallent Dies In Gaston County

Mrs. Charity L. Tallent, 84, died Friday, October 21, at her home in Dallas, Gaston county.

Mrs. Tallent was a native of Macon but had lived in Gaston county for several years.

Funeral services were held at the Cramerton Baptist church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. E. V. Hudson, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the Cramerton cemetery.

She is survived by two sons, Sam Tallent, Cramerton, and Jim Tallent, of Franklin; one daughter, Mrs. Mamie Tew, of Tampa, Fla., 21 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Farewell Party For Charles Lyle Raby

Misses Vennie and Orpha Holbrook entertained a large number of friends at their home at West's Mill Saturday night, October 15, with a farewell party in honor of Charles Lyle Raby. Mr. Raby, who has been visiting friends and relatives for the past four months, returned to Fort Bragg last Friday where he is enlisted in U. S. Army. Many interesting games were played after which delicious refreshments were served.

We have just installed a complete line of new machinery in order to give our customers a faster and neater repair job.

ADDITIONAL FRANKLIN SOCIAL ITEMS

BAPTIST W. M. U. TO MEET AT LIBRARY

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Union will hold the regular monthly business meeting on Thursday afternoon, November 3, at the Franklin Public Library. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. C. C. Cunningham is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Valentine and Mr. Valentine at their home in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Welmer Jones and daughter, of Asheville, spent the latter part of the past week with Mr. Jones' mother, Mrs. George A. Jones.

Mrs. I. T. Peek left Friday for Russellville, Ark., for a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Phillip Newton and Mr. Newton. Mrs. Newton was the former Miss Velma Peek.

Mrs. Ray Orr, of Andrews, is spending this week visiting Miss Grace Baird and Miss Ruby Caloway, at their homes on Bonny Crest.

Mrs. John Wasilik, Mrs. Joe Setser and Mrs. Fred Slagle, attended the district conference of the Parent-Teacher Association at Swannanoa last Friday. The Franklin association was given the banner for having present at the convention members who had traveled the greatest distance.

Dr. Paul Jones, of Wakefield, R. I., spent a few days of the past week in Franklin with his brother, Gilmer A. Jones and Mrs. Jones; also his stepmother, Mrs. George A. Jones, and R. S. Jones and family. Dr. Jones was enroute to Rochester to attend a medical convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Sloan, of Atlanta, spent the week-end in Franklin, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Jones, at their home on West Main street.

Mrs. Janet Vilner and son, Siling Vitner came up from Atlanta Tuesday and will spend a few days with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Jack Sanders and Mr. Sanders at their home on Harrison avenue.

Helen Rickman, daughter of Mrs. Winnie Rickman, of West's Mill, underwent an operation for acute appendicitis at Angel hospital Tuesday morning. She is reported to be getting along very nicely.

Albert H. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rogers, of Prentiss, left Monday for Detroit, Mich., where he will spend some time visiting his uncle, Ernest Vanhook and family.

Harold Sloan, Jr., a student at Brevard college, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sloan, returning to his school duties Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jones and daughter, Miss Laura Jones, came over from Asheville Friday for a visit with Mr. Jones' brother, Gilmer A. Jones and Mrs. Jones. On their return they were accompanied by Misses Lillian and Dorothy Jones, who spent the week-end visiting in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanders and son, Sol, and Misses Elizabeth and Pauline Meadows spent Sunday in Atlanta with Mrs. Sanders' mother, Mrs. Janet Vinter. Mrs. Sanders and Sol had to remain in Atlanta until Tuesday on account of the sudden illness of Sol, who was taken sick with an infection of his throat Sunday.

Silver Tea An Enjoyable Occasion

The silver tea given at Kelly's Tea Room last Friday afternoon for the benefit of the lunch room milk fund for undernourished children was a most enjoyable occasion and was largely attended.

Guests were met at the door by Mrs. W. J. Zachary, Methodist, and Mrs. Derald Ashe, Baptist.

Mrs. A. R. Higdon presided at the registration book.

Mrs. J. A. Flanagan and Mrs. Frank Bloxham had charge of the refreshment table and served the guests.

Mrs. J. S. Sloan and Mrs. R. M. Rimmer poured.

The ladies were ably assisted by Miss Margaret Cozad, Miss Meta Peek, Mrs. Verna Greene May, Mrs. Roy Cunningham, Mrs. Carl Tysinger, and Mrs. Pearl Wright. Mrs. Pearl Hunter brought a group of children from the fourth grade, who presented songs and recitations and a little play, "Ten Little Indians." These children were the guests of the four societies and were served like grown-ups.

The dining hall was attractively decorated with fall flowers.

Mrs. G. A. Jones had been invited to speak to the societies about the present lack of funds for the underprivileged children, but had been called out of town and was unable to be there.

The net proceeds were $11.20 and the committee voted to turn the money over to the principal of the school to be used for milk for children that he should select. Mrs. Zachary, as chairman of the committee, reported to Mr. Wells on Tuesday with the $11.20 for this fund.

The four societies thank the public for their cooperation and support and want them to know that they will continue to ask for it for this cause.

Funeral Held For Infant October 19

Funeral services were held at Pleasant Hill church on October 19 for Leonard Ray Sanders, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sanders, of Prentiss. He was born on October 10 and died on the 18th.

Interment was in Pleasant Hill cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters and one half brother.

Hog shipments by small cooperating groups of farmers in eastern North Carolina have been started for the fall season. The Beaufort-Hyde group sold 136 last week for $2,355.53. Extension specialists predict increased popularity of this kind of selling this year.
