BIBLE CLASS HOLDS MEETING AT ARROWOOD

The F. S. Johnston Bible class met last Thursday afternoon at Miss Amy Harrison's camp at Arrowood Glade for their regular monthly meeting, with Mrs. M. D. Billings and Mrs. Lon Campbell, as assisting hostesses.

The old officers presided at this last meeting and a full financial report was read by Mrs. Page for the year's work of the class. The new officers took their respective places at the class meeting on Sunday morning.

After the business session, an interesting contest was held. Each member had been requested to bring her baby picture and Mrs. L. S. Conley won the prize for guessing the nearest number correctly.

Thirty-four members of the class enjoyed the afternoon meeting and social.

The hostesses served a Halloween plate, which contained pumpkin custard pie, with grapes and a cup of coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Perry and Vic Perry went to Chapel Hill on Friday for a visit with their sons and brother, Winton and Jimmy Perry, who are students at Chapel Hill. While there they attended the Carolina-Duke game on Saturday, returning home on Sunday.
