WORK ON ROADS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

The grading and graveling on the Dillard road has been completed. This road intersects U. S. Highway No. 64 at First street.

Many radical changes have been made on the Walhalla highway from Highlands to the Georgia line, in the way of straightening curves, reducing grades, and shortening the distance. This last link between Highlands and Walhalla will be completed by early Spring, thus giving Highlands first-class hard-surfaced roads to Franklin, Asheville, Dillard, Ga., and Walhalla, S. C., and a graded gravel road through Cashiers via Bull Pen and the Glades to Walhalla.

SATULAH CLUB MEETS WITH MISS DURGIN

The Satulah club held its regular meeting on Wednesday, November 2, at the home of Miss Bernice Durgin, with the president, Mrs. Carl Zoellner, presiding. Important business matters were voted on and the club planned a special entertainment program for the December meeting, which will be held at the club rooms in the Masonic building.

ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM FRIDAY AFTERNOON

National Education Week is being observed in the Highlands school, and the ministers of the various churches are cooperating with the school in this work. The high school gave a special program on Monday, and the upper elementary grades on Wednesday.

Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the first, second, third and fourth grades will give a special Armistice Day program, under the direction of their respective teachers, Miss Veva Howard, Mrs. J. M. Hall, Miss Nina Howard, and Miss Mattie Wilkes. The Rev. R. B. DuPree will lead the devotional.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

FUNMAKERS TO PRESENT PLAYS NOVEMBER 17

The Funmaker plays which the P. T. A. are sponsoring, will be presented Thursday, November 17 at 8 o'clock in the School Theatre. Tickets are now on sale.

It has been agreed that the proceeds from the evening will be used by the P. T. A. for something which both the P. T. A. and the Funmakers believe will be advantageous for the school. Since the P. T. A. is sponsoring the entertainment Mr. Summer has allowed the free use of the theatre for rehearsals.

The cast for "I'm Terribly Sorry," which was not complete last week, is as follows: Betty Speed, Estelle Edwards, Audrey Aiken, Tom Chastain, Jean Keener, Charles McDowell, Earl Young, Harold Speed, Buddy Thompson, "Sunbeams" and "Pirates."

The three plays are all amusing and the casts have put their best efforts into making them entertaining to everyone. This is the first evening of plays the Funmakers have given for a year, and the first program sponsored by another community organization. It is therefore in high hopes and a good deal of assurance that they contemplate a capacity audience the night of the 17th.

FIRST ISSUE OF SCHOOL PAPER OUT FRIDAY

The first issue of the Highlands school paper, The Mountain Trail, made its appearance on Friday, November 4, and is a very attractive publication. The paper contains items of interest from each grade and is published by the high school students, with the following staff:

Editor-in-chief, L. C. Nix; associate editor, Elmer McDowell; advertising manager, Doris Potts; assistant advertising manager, Mozelle Bryson; circulation manager, Edith Crunkleton; society editor, Jessie Keener; humor editor, Eugene Paul; reporters, Ernest Munger, Virginia Mae Edwards, Victor Smith, Fred Littleton; faculty adviser, Miss Whiteside.

This paper will be published monthly and may be had in single copies or by yearly subscription.

B. Y. P. U. MEETING LARGELY ATTENDED

The rainy weather Sunday evening was no drawback to the B. Y. P. U., which met as usual, with 20 members present. This number does not include the Junior or Intermediate Unions. Carleton Cleaveland, the president, was in charge of the devotional service, and Paul Walden, the group captain, had charge of the lesson program, the subject being "Money Talks for Christ." Those taking part on the program were, Mildred Littleton, Edward Potts, Carleton Cleaveland, and Mrs. A. B. Potts. The three Unions are doing good work and increasing in membership. Practically all of these young people remain for the church services.

PLANS MADE FOR BOY SCOUT CLUB

Twelve invited boys met with the Rev. R. B. DuPree and Louis Edwards at the Satulah club rooms Sunday afternoon, November 6, for the purpose of talking over plans for the proposed Boy Scout club. These 12 boys are to invite other boys to join the club, and Wednesday, November 16, will be charter night.

This club is being organized under the auspices of the Lions club, with Mr. DuPree elected scoutmaster and Mr. Edwards assistant scoutmaster. The boys are very enthusiastic over the prospect of a scout club.

P. T. A. HELD REGULAR MEETING TUESDAY, NOV. 1

The Parent-Teacher Association held its regular meeting on Tuesday, November 1. The association voted to make future meetings more of a social affair. The meeting on December 6 will feature a musical, with Mrs. O. F. Summer and her pupils, Mrs. R. B. DuPree and her pupils, Mrs. A. C. Holt and Mrs. Frank Bloxham on the program. A tea will be given in the school lunch room immediately following the musical program.

The rummage sale sponsored by this association on Saturday, November 5, netted approximately $15.

POUND PARTY GIVEN FOR REV. W. F. BEADLE

Members of the Highlands Methodist church and members of the Cashiers Methodist church gave their pastor, the Rev. W. F. Beadle and Mrs. Beadle, a "pounding" on Wednesday evening, November 2, at the parsonage. This get-together was well attended by the members of both churches, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

W. M. U. HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist church held an unusually interesting meeting at the parsonage on Monday afternoon, November 7, with 11 members present. Mrs. M. A. Pierson led the opening prayer and Mrs. Carl Zoellner conducted the meeting. The topic for the day was "China." The speakers and their subjects are as follows: Mrs. O. F. Summer, "China 50 Years Ago;" Mrs. S. T. Maret, "China of Today;" Mrs. M. A. Pierson, "The War and Missions in China;" Mrs. Guy Paul, "The Co-operative Program at Work in China;" Mrs. Bessie Cleaveland, "Medical Work and Workers;" Mrs. Lawrence Hicks, "Evangelistic Work and Workers;" Mrs. J. G. Benfield, "China of Tomorrow;"

They Shine for Navy, Duke and Notre Dame

Playing in three important games Saturday will be, left to right: I. F. Fike, Navy end in the Navy-Columbia game; Co-Captain Eric (Red) Tipton, Duke halfback in the Duke-Syracuse tussle; and Benny Sheridan, Notre Dame back, playing against Minnesota's vaunted Gophers in one of the day's biggest games.

Mrs. Carl Zoellner, "Our Chinese Neighbors."

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mr. Benfield.

SCHOOL NOTES

The second grade under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. J. M. Hall, had charge of the chapel exercises last Friday morning. Wearing "Mother Goose" costumes this grade presented "The Truth About Mother Goose." The devotional was led by Frances Crane, and Billy Waller announced the program.

Bernice Keener was reader; the playmates were Maxine Talley, Doris Keener, Mary Phillips, Peggy Gibson and Mary Crunkleton; Farmer's Wife, Fay Reese; Little Miss Muffett, Ethel Crane; Jack-o-Nimble, Fred Talley; Little Boy Blue, Billy Waller; Little Bo-Peep, Alene Owens; Tom-the-Piper's Son, Lendall Waller; Jack Spratt, Albert Lee Crane; Mrs. Spratt, Margie Stewart; Little Tommy Green, Duane Edwards; Johnny Stout, Felix Speed; Three Men With a Tub, Ernest Webb, James Reese, and Ronald Jenkins; Dr. Foster, Harry Holt, Jr.; Little Jack Horner, Billy Regan; The Little Girl with a Curl, Fay Reese; Jack and Jill, Mack Hopper and Lillian Zachary; Mistress Mary, Quite Contrary, Ernestine Zachary, her Flowers, Doris Gibson, Geraldine Moss, Helen Talley and Anne Parker; Old Mother Goose, Eula Crane; stage manager, Billy Speed.

The lunchroom is now serving free lunches to nine children. One of these children gained five and a half pounds in one month. The pupils of the grammar grades are given free milk three days a week at 10 o'clock in the morning. This milk does not interfere with the drinks at dinner time. The lunchroom workers regret that free milk for the mid-morning lunch cannot be served every day.

The Rev. Frank Bloxham was a welcome guest at the lunchroom on Wednesday of last week.

Since the Clear Creek pupils were taken from the Highlands school, because the construction work on the Walhalla road made it impossible to keep to the schedule, the number taking lunch at school has been reduced, but the lunchroom is still serving approximately 135 pupils a day.

Beginning this week, the Highlands high school is to have a Bible course twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, at 1:30 o'clock. Forty-two students have registered for this course, which is entirely voluntary on the part of the students. The Rev. R. B. DuPree is the teacher.

The illness of Mrs. Martha Gottwals is a source of regret to her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Maret left Monday for Winter Haven, Fla. They will also visit Sarasota and other points in the state. Mr. and Mrs. Maret expect to be away two or three weeks.

Steve Potts and Wendell Cleaveland spent the week-end in Atlanta, the guests of Mr. Potts' sister, Mrs. Jay Chapman and Mr. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook and their two daughters, Mary Bascom and Beverly, have returned from a visit with relatives in Greenwood and Troy, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Edwards have rented the Blanchard cottage on East Main street for the winter.

Among those attending the fair in Anderson, S. C., last week were: T. M. Keener, Miss Jessie Keener, Miss Jean Keener and Miss Margie Waller. Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Edwards, Miss Virginia Mae Edwards, Miss Mozelle Bryson and Billy Edwards, Mrs. Meta Hall, Mrs. W. R. Potts, Miss Peggy Potts, and Miss Caroline Hall. Mrs. J. E. Hicks, Mrs. Gus Baty, Miss Esther Waldrup, and "Rink" Baty.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Eskridge have returned to their home in New Orleans, after several months spent at their summer place, "World's End," on Satulah.
