THANKSGIVING

What does the word "Thanksgiving" mean
To the Pilgrims of today?
Let us move more thoughtfully
Along November's way.

What did it mean to the Pioneers:
A battle long and grim
With cold and hunger, loss of life,
For the right to worship Him;

For the freedom which is ours who sit
In churches safe and warm—
For us no fear of Indians
No icy winds of storm;

For us no flying arrows, yet
There is another foe:
Too materialistic now
The minds of mortals grow:

Too complacent, satisfied
In self-encircling thought;
Let us lift our spirits up
To the light that David sought

Long ago on the emerald hills
When he sang his psalms of praise
Of the earth and sky, to the God
of Love,
For the Miracle of days . . .

What does the word "Thanksgiving" mean
To the Pilgrims of today?
Let us move more reverently
Along November's way.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held its regular meeting at the home of Miss Ruth Carter on Tuesday, November 15, with 10 members present. The devotional was led by Mrs. A. J. Anderson, president, and Mrs. W. H. Cobb had charge of the program on "World Missions." A number of business items were discussed and a committee appointed to look into the matter of buying a new carpet for the church aisle. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

PROF. O. F. SUMMER CHARISMAS SEAL CHAIRMAN

The Christmas seal sale for Macon county will begin immediately after Thanksgiving. Prof. O. F. Summer has again been appointed chairman for the county. The money from these seals will go to help in the fight against tuberculosis. Seventy-five per cent of the money raised will remain in the county to be used by the health department in fighting this disease.

Last year our part locally was $35.66. This was turned over to Miss Josephine Dixon, county health nurse, and was used in the county.

This year's quota for Macon county has been set at $60, and that amount should be raised without difficulty. Most of the seal sales here were made through the school children. This method was used last year and found to be quite successful.

It is hoped that a considerable part of these seals may be sold in sheets of 100 each again this year.

AYLOR C. CHASTAIN, 65 PASSES NOVEMBER 18

Funeral services for Aylor C. Chastain, 65, who died at his home Friday afternoon, November 18, after an illness of 11 weeks, were conducted by the Rev. W. F. Beadle Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence.

Mr. Chastain was born in Rabun county, Ga., and moved to Macon county shortly after his marriage in 1895 to Miss Amanda Littleton, of Texas. He is survived by eight children, Mrs. Lyman Zachary, Dan, Albert, Aylor, Robert, Lawton and Henry Chastain, all of Highlands, and George Chastain, of Washington, D. C. Surviving also are 18 grandchildren.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR FINISHES LESSON SERIES

The Christian Endeavor Sunday evening devotional was led by the president, Wendell Cleaveland. Miss Estelle Edwards had charge of the program. Virginia Mae Edwards and June Thompson sang a duet.

The last of a series of lessons on "How to study the Bible" will be given next Sunday evening, and the November contest will close at this time. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

SCHOOL NOTES

A second rummage sale, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association, will be held in the Satulah club rooms on Saturday, November 26, from 2 to 6 o'clock.

The menu will consist of baked ham, candied sweet potatoes, peas, carrots, sweet pickle, hot biscuit, butter, cornbread doughnuts, pumpkin pie and cocoa.

The Funmakers' club presented its three one-act plays in the school theatre to a good-sized audience last Thursday evening despite the inclement weather. These plays were well given and reflected credit on the actors and their leader, Mrs.

Men at Work: Czechoslovakia and U. S.

Czech soldiers are now helping scores of farmers plow their fields. Here is one working in a field near Prague. During the crisis a widespread shortage of labor resulted in help from the army. Ray Gordon of St. Louis just missed joining another army—the army of the unemployed—when he was fired from a WPA road job. His fellow workers, who believed he had not been treated fairly, agreed to contribute a nickel a day each until he received the regular WPA wage of $56 a month. He provided the shovel himself.

Few are Qualified

HUMAN HEARTS beat in harmony when death visits a family. Many friends earnestly wish to be of assistance to those who are bereaved. But there are few whose temperament or experience fits them to help even in minor particulars.

THE FAMILY depends upon the funeral director to handle the numerous details in a manner that will bring harmony to the service. Those we have served voluntarily testify to their appreciation of our personal attendance, the appropriateness of the ceremony and our reasonable charge.
