Annual Goober Derby Draws National Champs

Twenty-five national peanut-pushing champs roiled for honors in an Edenton, N. C., race, celebrating the opening of the largest Tar Heel market. Schnozzle snubbers of adhesive tape were invented to prevent wear and tear caused by friction. Best of the goober racers was James Small, 6 foot 5 inch high school student who won the race by a nose. The event, held yearly, draws huge crowds who cheer their favorite peanut pushers to the finish line.

Cauliflower Carries the Meal

IF THEY like cauliflower, they'll doubly like this delicious stuffed cauliflower—with its creamy interior of diced ham and bread crumbs. It's a main dish you can well be proud to serve.

STUFFED CAULIFLOWER

- 1 large head cauliflower
 - 1 cup diced cooked ham
 - 2 tablespoons butter
 - 1½ cups soft bread crumbs
 - 3 tablespoons salt and pepper
 - 1 cup flour
 - 1½ cups milk
 - 1 cup buttered soft bread crumbs
- Remove leaves and stalk from the cauliflower and soak, head down in cold salted water for about 20 minutes. Cook in a large amount of boiling salted water until tender. Place in a buttered baking dish with the flowerets downward. Melt the butter in a double boiler, add the flour and mix well. Add the milk gradually and cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Add the ham and the 1½ cups of bread crumbs and season with salt and pepper to taste. Place on top of the cauliflower and press down between the flowerets. Cover with the buttered soft bread crumbs and bake in a moderately hot oven (375° F.) for 25 to 30 minutes. Serves six.

Squirrel and Grouse Hunt Announced for Dec. 5-10

On December 5, 1938, the Pisgah national game preserve will be opened to 100 hunters daily who desire to hunt squirrels and grouse. The hunt will continue for the entire week and end at 5 p. m. December 10.

The purpose of the hunt is to demonstrate ways and means of harvesting small game of the east and to reduce the overstocking of squirrels and grouse on the Pisgah national game preserve.

Mr. Ochsner, forest supervisor, stated today that in order to participate in the small game hunt a person must be at least 16 years of age and possess a valid North Carolina hunting license. The fee for hunting will be $1 a day and permits can be obtained at the supervisor's office in the Arcade Building, Asheville, and at the Pisgah ranger station, Pisgah forest. Each hunter will be permitted 10 squirrels or eight squirrels and two grouse. Only four days hunting will be allowed each person.

Firearms will be non-automatic rifles of a calibre .22 and non-automatic shotguns, 12 gauge or smaller. Each hunter will be allowed to carry only one gun to the shooting area. Ammunition shall be standard velocity .22 calibre or shot of No.

6 or smaller. Hunters will furnish their own transportation to the area they are to hunt. Red caps will be furnished by all hunters for wear on the hunting area.

Rules and Regulations

- a. Dogs will not be permitted on the hunting area under any circumstances.
 - b. No wildlife of any type other than that designated as available for taking will be hunted, disturbed, or molested in any manner.
 - c. Intoxicated persons will be expelled from the game preserve immediately and their permits cancelled.
 - d. Loaded guns will not be carried in an automobile.
 - e. All game killed must be brought into the checking station.
 - f. Shooting shall not be done upon, from, or across any public highway.
 - g. Hunting or shooting shall not be done with or from automobiles.
 - h. Firearms shall not be discharged within 100 yards of any building or improvement.
- There will be two checking stations—one at the Davidson river equipment depot and one at North Mills river recreational area. Hunters will be checked in to either the northern shooting circle or the southern shooting circle and cannot change areas during that day's hunting. The same checking stations used during the big game hunt will be used on the small game hunt, using the checking station at North Mills river recreation area and that at the Davidson river equipment depot.

Two Macon Boys Stand High At Clemson

J. Fred Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gray, of Franklin Route 2, and George W. McClure, son of Mrs. C. H. McClure and the late Charles H. McClure, of Franklin Route 2, are reported as having outstanding records in the junior class at Clemson college, Clemson, S. C.

Fred Gray is first sergeant of Company C of the second regiment of cadets, and is also a cabinet member of the Junior Y. M. C. A. council and assistant chairman of the Y. M. C. A. social committee.

George McClure is a sergeant in Company C of the first regiment, is president of the Junior Y. M. C. A. council for 1938-39, and assistant chairman of the religious programs of the college Y. M. C. A.

They are two of 553 cadets chosen from a total of 2,000, for the reserve officers training corps. In order to be selected for the reserve officers training corps, one must have a high rating in military training, which can be attained only through hard work and constant study during the freshman and sophomore years. He also must have an excellent scholastic rating.

Macon County Club At Brevard College

BREVARD, Nov. 30.—At the first meeting of the newly organized Macon County Club on the Brevard college campus it was decided to stimulate similar organizations of Brevard college alumni in the county by inviting them to a Christmas meeting for that purpose. The club will be meeting once a month and its members will aid in publicizing the college in Macon county, getting in touch with prospective students, and having social functions on the campus.

Officers elected for the club are Guy Paul, Highlands, president; Kenneth Cabe, Franklin, vice-president; and Mildred Bryson, Cullasaja, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the club are: Kenneth Cabe, Audrey Conley, Gwendolyn Morgan, Virginia Scott, and Thomas Sloan, Franklin; Estelle Edwards and Guy Paul, Highlands; Mildred Bryson, Cullasaja.

CONDEMNED

Although bovine tuberculosis in the United States has been reduced to less than one-half of one per cent, this small infection is responsible for many condemnations of animal carcasses and parts in connection with Federal meat inspection.

CORN FOR HOGS

Manly Gray of Trenton, Jones county, grew 71.6 bushels of corn on his 4-H club acre this year and is now feeding the corn to hogs which will be shipped from the co-operative market next spring.

Muse's Corner

FOOL'S ROCK—WHITESIDE MOUNTAIN

I feel a growing madness
 As I stand upon a cliff,
 And leaning to the valley see
 The broken cloudlets drift
 Above the emerald tree-tops,
 Interspersed with darker green
 Of pointed pines and hemlock:
 From the invisible ravine
 Comes a distant rumbling, faint
 It falls upon the ear . . .
 Solidity recedes and space
 Is tangible and near . . .
 Suddenly it seems that on
 The very edge I sway—
 Falling back I hide my face
 Clinging to the gray
 Of sun warm stone, far from the valley
 Comes a kindred pull,
 Like that of moon on ocean
 In Spring, when tides are full!

Revival Held At Mountain View

A stirring revival was recently held in the Coweta Creek community from November 13 to 23, under the auspices of the American Sunday school union missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hull. Mr. Alexander Harley, from Flat Rock, was the evangelist.

The meeting was conducted in connection with the Mountain View Union Sunday school, the power of God being manifested in 29 decisions for Christ, and a general spiritual awakening of the Christians in that locality.

An outstanding feature of the revival was the interest taken among the CCC camp boys, 11 of whom accepted Christ as their Saviour.

Surplus Products Help Many In County

There were 1,636 persons representing 295 families certified by county welfare officials in Macon county as eligible for receipt of surplus commodities during October, Arthur E. Langston, state director of commodity distribution with the state board of charities and public welfare, announced this week.

A statewide total of 166,845 persons comprising 36,632 families were listed during the month as eligible to receive the foodstuffs through 10 warehouses in the four surplus commodity districts in North Carolina. Three hundred and eleven school lunch rooms, representing 40,124 persons, were on the certified list.

No More Than They Planned to Spend

In a family group there is usually one to whom the others turn for guidance in important matters. At least one member of every family should be correctly posted on funeral procedure and costs.

Those who called upon us for information in advance of their need were placed under no obligation. Many have expressed their relief when they learned the simplicity of our arrangement plan. They understood that a service of recognized quality and value would cost no more than they might plan to spend.
