

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

JOHNSON-LATHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Perry Johnson, of Des Moines, Iowa, announces the marriage of their daughter, Nadine Johnson Peacock, to David Sterling Latham, of Greenville, S. C., on Thursday, November 24, at 1 o'clock at Buck Creek Ranch.

The sunny lobby of the Ranch, where the wedding took place, was artistically arranged in native shrubbery and wintergreens, which made a very pretty background for the simple but impressive ring ceremony which was used by the Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church.

The bride wore a lovely afternoon gown of versailles crepe and her shoulder corsage was of gardenias. Her only attendant was Mrs. Robert S. Latham, of Greenville, S. C., who was attired in an aquamarine afternoon gown, with a corsage of talisman roses.

Robert S. Latham, of Greenville, served as best man to his brother.

Following the ceremony a delicious wedding dinner was served.

Those attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson, of Des Moines, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Latham, of Greenville, S. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Flanagan and two children, Ann and John Flanagan, of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Slagle and daughter, Myra, of Cartoogechaye.

Mr. and Mrs. Latham will be at home at 320 Haviland avenue, Greenville, S. C.
