GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. T. W. ANGEL, JR.

Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr., and Mrs. Frank M. Killian entertained the Franklin Garden club Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the former, for the regular monthly business and social meeting. There were approximately 20 members present.

The archway leading to the living room was festooned with greens and the colored Christmas lights. The living room was artistically decorated in mistletoe, holly, hemlock and nandinas, with the coffee table being centered by a large poinsettia surrounded by attractively wrapped Christmas packages which were drawn by the members.

Mrs. R. M. Rimmer, president, presided over the business session, at which time it was decided to confer with the members of the town about cleaning up the unsightly spots in town.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. W. C. Penn, who was in charge of the program. Those taking parts on the program were:

Mrs. Herbert E. Church, who read a very interesting article on Christmas decorations. Mrs. James L. Averill demonstrated a Christmas tree for birds. A number of Christmas carols, led by Mrs. Averill, were sung by the group.

The refreshments served by the hostesses consisted of boiled custard, fruit cake, mints and coffee, with the nosegays of hemlocks, popcorn and cranberries, which furthered the Yuletide decorations.
