CHILDREN ENJOY CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

On Wednesday afternoon, December 21, the children of Highlands and the surrounding community enjoyed a special Christmas program at the theatre, given as a Christmas present by the theatre and the business people of Highlands. The large bag filled with candy and fruits which was given to each child present attested the real Christmas spirit in the hearts of the people. The picture was "Penrod and his Twin Brother," with the Mauch Twins, a Gang Comedy and a musical short.

The grown people of the community enjoyed the same program in the evening, with the exception of the candy and fruit given to the children at the afternoon performance.

DRAMATIC CLUB SPONSORS CHRISTMAS TREE

The Dramatic club is sponsoring the brilliantly illuminated Christmas tree in the center of town at the intersection of Main and Fourth streets. Tudor Hall and his assistant, Elbert Gibson, brought the tree in from the forest, and were assisted in placing it by the Boy Scouts. The Scouts also helped Mr. Hall and Mr. Gibson to decorate the tree with its dozens of vari-colored lights, and the town is furnishing the electricity. This tree was made possible through the generosity of the business people of Highlands.

P. T. A. RECEIVES GENEROUS GIFT

Mrs. F. H. Potts, president of the Parent-Teacher Association, has announced the receipt of a hundred dollar check, given through this association for use in the school work, the giver preferring to remain anonymous. This gift is very much appreciated by the entire school and the Parent-Teacher Association. Prof. Summer states that it is the largest "lump sum" that has been given during the time he has been connected with the school.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HAVE TREES

The children of the Presbyterian church school will have their Christmas tree and program on this (Thursday) afternoon at 4 o'clock. The program and Christmas tree for the Episcopal church school will be Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Sunday school Christmas tree and program at the Baptist church will be at 7 o'clock Friday evening, and the Methodist church school will hold its tree and an informal program at the church at 7:30 Saturday evening, when there will be presents for the older people as well as for the children.

The combined enrollment of the four Sunday schools is 245.

STORES ARE ALL GAILY DECORATED

Practically all the stores are gaily decorated for the holiday season, and particularly lovely are the twin Christmas trees, with their multi-colored lights, in the yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall, and the twinkling little tree on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hall. There is another lovely tree on the spacious lawn at the W. H. Cobb home ablaze with Christmas lights.

LUNCH ROOM GIVES CHRISTMAS DINNER

The school lunch room gave a special Christmas dinner on Wednesday with the following menu: roast chicken, cranberry sauce, dressing, rice, gravy, potato salad, hot biscuit, cocoa, and a congealed fruit salad with whipped cream for dessert.

The school will close Friday, December 23, for a week's holiday. Classes will be resumed on January 2.

MR. AND MRS. MARETT OBSERVES 53rd ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Marett celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary on Saturday, December 17, by planting a hemlock tree on their new office grounds, which they call their "good wish" tree, because of the number of good wishes received from friends on this anniversary. Particularly appreciated is the following good wish made by Mrs. Mary Chapin Smith:

A Wish: The Home Fires
Two Friends,
Most kind, most faithful and most dear,
May your home fires burn always bright;
Through many years may you dwell here
In the glad comfort of their light.

Mr. and Mrs. Marett came to Highlands from Atlanta 15 years ago, and are numbered among our most esteemed residents. Mr. Marett was connected with Highlands Bank for several years, and has been in the real estate and insurance business for the past few years. Mrs. Marett has always been active in church, library and club work, having organized the Highlands Community club in 1924, which a few years ago merged with the Village Improvement society and received the new name "Satulah Club."

What sweeter wish could be made than that this beloved couple have many more happy anniversaries.

MRS. SUMMER GIVES CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. O. F. Summer entertained her music pupils at a Christmas party at her home on Saturday, December 17. Special guests were the mothers of the pupils and Mrs. C. J. Anderson, Angela Anderson and Mrs. R. B. DuPree.

A short program of piano solos, duets and vocal duets were given by: Barbara Zoellner, Jacquelin Aiken, Mozelle Bryson, Marie Neely, Frances Hedden, Florence Waller, Virginia Mae Edwards, Angela Anderson and Mrs. DuPree.

Mrs. Summer presented prizes to the following: first prize for practicing, Jacquelin Aiken; second prize for practicing, Barbara Zoellner; first prize for scrapbook, Virginia Mae Edwards.

After the programs, the pupils enjoyed exchanging presents and in presenting a small Christmas tree to Mrs. DuPree for Bobby DuPree. The refreshments were candle salad, Ritz crackers, cake and coffee.

CANARY E. REESE DIES AT HOME OF SISTER

Canary Edward Reese, 52, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Carl Zoellner at 12:30 o'clock Tuesday, December 20, after a several weeks' illness. Funeral services were held from the residence at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, by the Rev. J. G. Benfield, assisted by the Rev. W. F. Beadle.

Mr. Reese is survived by a step-mother, Mrs. R. W. Reese, and other surviving sisters are Mrs. W. R. Richards, Mrs. S. E. Potts, Mrs. B. A. Cleveland, of Highlands and Mrs. Nettie Tallent, of Franklin; three half-sisters, Mrs. Charlie McElroy, Montgomery, Ala.; Mrs. Elizabeth Reese Potts, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Ernest Crunkleton, Etna; one brother, J. W. Reese, Sr., three half-brothers, Robert, Norman and John, and an aunt, Mrs. Betty Reese, all of Highlands.

The pallbearers were: Carey Reese, Henry Zoellner, Maurice Cleveland, Newell Wright, Ray Tallent and Leslie Reese. Interment was in Highlands cemetery.

Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Miss Marna Cobb and Miss Sara Gilder spent last Wednesday in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hall will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Hall's parents in Hartwell, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hanks, of Miami Beach, Fla., are enjoying a winter visit at their summer home in High Hampton. They have been there several weeks and will remain until after the holidays. Their two children will arrive on Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays. The Hanks are prominent residents of Miami, and Mr. Hanks is the president of the Florida Light and Power company.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook, who have been visiting relatives in Akron, Ala., since Thanksgiving, spent several days in Highlands recently and were guests at Hotel

Edwards while here. They have returned to Akron for the holidays.

Miss Eva Potts of Atlanta and Miss Carolyn Potts, who is a student at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potts.

Prof. and Mrs. F. C. Hents and "Buzzie" Hentz will spend the school vacation in Pomaria and Mullins, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sloan left Saturday for Washington, D. C., where they will spend the holidays. Later Mr. and Mrs. Sloan will go to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Meta N. Hall, Mrs. W. R. Potts, Miss Caroline Hall and Thomas Potts spent Wednesday in Asheville.
