HUDSON-WALL

Of interest to many Franklin people is the marriage of Mrs. Kathleen Petty Hudson, formerly of Franklin, daughter of Mrs. James Petty, of High Point, to Dr. Herbert William Wall, of Los Angeles, Cal., last Friday evening in Dallas, Texas.

The ceremony was solemnized in the morning at the home of Dr. George Truett, Baptist minister, in Dallas. Only a few close friends were present.

The bride wore a black silk suit and a black silk hat with a small veil. Over this costume she wore a man-tailored topcoat of black needle-point wool bound in velvet. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Wall is the daughter of Mrs. Petty and the late Mr. Petty, pioneer manufacturer of High Point. She is an alumna of Meredith college, Raleigh, and is a member of the Ray street school faculty in High Point. She has travelled extensively in this country and abroad.

Dr. Wall, a native of Ontario, Canada, has been a resident of Los Angeles for a number of years. He is widely known in the field of medicine and surgery. He attended Western university in Canada where he received his M.D. degree and later did post-graduate work in Chicago, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., and New York City. During the World War Dr. Wall was qualified on the General British Medical council. He has since served on the staffs of such hospitals as Cedars of Lebanon, St. Vincents, Queen of the Angeles, and the California hospital of Los Angeles. He is a member of the Hollywood academy of Medicine, the California State Medical society, the American Medical association, the Rotary club and the Breakfast club of Los Angeles.

About Funeral COSTS

Living properly is one of the fine arts. So is the judicious spending of money. This applies as truthfully to arranging funerals as to everyday transactions.

Some families may have mistakenly believed that they could not afford our services. But it is a fact that our confidentially-arranged prices never exceed the amounts charged for publicized offers.

Consulting us about funeral matters brings mental peace to those who dread costs beyond their means.
