the future. Fish planting has continued and real results can be seen in the streams within the refuges. Open seasons on certain days in the coming year are being planned. The game protector's dwelling at White Oak Bottoms was completed.

The towns of Andrews and Franklin both printed strips to tie on auto bumpers, advertising the recreation features of the Nantahala that they are proud of. Plans have been drawn for four new recreation areas, one near Andrews, and three near Robbinsville. During the year, a bathhouse was completed at Arrowwood Pool, the recreation facilities at Cliffside Lake were well advanced, and the facilities at Joyce Kilmer Forest were completed.
