BOY SCOUTS PUT CABIN IN GOOD CONDITION

The Boy Scouts, under the leadership of scoutmaster K. B. DuPree and assistant scoutmaster Edward Potts, spent the entire time while on their camping trip last week in renovating and putting the old Richardson cabin at Shortoff in good camping order. Elmer McDowell and Vernon Aiken have been elected patrol leaders; "Buddy" Potts, scout scribe, and Barak Wright, treasurer.

MRS. HINES AND MRS. HOLT ENTERTAIN AUXILIARY

Mrs. J. A. Hines and Mrs. A. C. Holt were co-hostesses to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Incarnation at the home of Mrs. Hines on Thursday afternoon, December 29th. The devotional was led by the Rev. Frank Bloxham, and the president, Mrs. A. C. Holt, conducted the business session. Miss Estelle Edwards gave an interesting report of the Sunday school Christmas tree, and also suggested that the Auxiliary give a benefit Chinese checkers party. Miss Edwards was appointed chairman of the arrangements committee, and Wednesday evening, January 18th, is the date set for this party, which will be held at the Satulah Club rooms. There will be prizes and refreshments.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mr. Bloxham. Delicious sandwiches, cake and tea were served by the hostesses. The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Davis.

SANTA CLAUSES VISIT CLEAR CREEK NEIGHBORS

As a celebration of the holiday season in Clear Creek, a number of Santa Clauses decided to visit the different neighbors and put on an entertainment program, while a band of Gypsies, who followed them, proceeded to lift cakes and other Christmas goodies, winding with a feast for all at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Talley. Some of the revelers feeling quite sure that nothing had been removed from their homes, were slightly taken back when faced with their own prized cakes at the feast.

At another celebration during the holidays, 17 "boys" were the self-invited dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Than Talley, as a penalty to "Uncle Han" for refusing to get up and welcome them when they serenaded him on Christmas Eve.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARDS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards entertained at a family dinner during the holidays at their home in Horse Cove. The children present were: Miss Mary Edwards, Miss Margie Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Will Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dillard. The grandchildren present were: Miss Estelle Edwards, Miss Johnnie Edwards, Miss Louise Dillard, Jim Dillard and Henry Dillard. Dr. C. E. Mitchell was also a guest at this dinner.

The diningroom was beautifully decorated with Christmas colors. The two long tables, one for the older people and one for the grandchildren, held lovely centerpieces of fruit surrounded by Christmas candies. The favors were miniature Santa Claus workshops.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR HAS ADVERTISING PARTY

The members of the Christian Endeavor celebrated the close of the December contest with an advertising party at the manse last Thursday evening. Although the guests came dressed to represent very familiar advertisements, it took some time to place them all. There were a number of other contests as well as games, and Jacquelin Aiken won the prize for the best piece of modeling with chewing gum. Refreshments were cookies and punch. About 30 young people enjoyed the evening.

CARD CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. HINES

The two-table Wednesday Afternoon Card Club held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hines on December 28. The members are: Mrs. E. R. Gilbert, Mrs. C. C. Potts, Miss Bernice Durgin, Mrs. J. A. Hines, Mrs. G. W. Maret, Mrs. Eliot Caziarc, Miss Sara and Mrs. H. G. Story. Miss Hilder was holder of high score, winning a beautiful bridge set, and Mrs. Durgin was final winner of the traveling prize, a unique pepper and salt set.

The rooms were gay with Christmas decorations, and the tables where dainty refreshments were served, held miniature Christmas trees, their boles concealing delicious home-made candy. Mrs. C. C. Potts is entertaining the club at a special New Year's party this week. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. G. W. Maret on January 11.

The Adult Education Class, taught by Mrs. Annie Westbrook, enjoyed a party at the home of Mrs. R. A. Baty during the holidays. The rooms were beautiful with a lovely Christmas tree and holiday decorations. Mrs. Jamie Rogers won the contest prize, a copy of "Wild Flowers of the United States." The refreshments, a salad course and a sweet course, were carried out in the season's colors.

The guests were: Miss Velzie Hicks, Miss Etta Stanfield, Mrs. Paul Walden, Mrs. J. S. Baty, Mrs. J. E. Hicks, Mrs. J. W. Baty, Mrs. C. E. Crunkleton, Mrs. Jamie Rogers and Mrs. Annie Westbrook.

MRS. AECK ENTERTAINS WITH QUILTING BEE

Mrs. R. L. Aeck entertained at an old-fashioned quilting bee and luncheon last Thursday at her home on the Country club grounds. The guests were her neighbors from Yellow Patch and the Club colony. Mrs. Aeck also entertained 18 children in the Turtle Pond section with a Christmas tree, and their parents with a square dance during the holidays.

MR. AND MRS. C. C. POTTS GIVE INFORMAL CARD PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Potts entertained a number of friends from Clayton, Ga., at an informal card party on Friday evening, December

30. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Garland Tomlin; Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Tomlin; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reeves; Miss Margaret Smith and Bill Reeves. Delicious refreshments were served.

BAPTIST W. M. S. MEETS AT PARSONAGE

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Highlands Baptist church met at the parsonage Monday afternoon, January 2, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Carl Zoellner presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. M. A. Pierson. The topic was "The Great Commission—Our Mission."
