MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

HARBISON-HAUSER

The many Franklin friends of William Hauser will be interested in the following account of his marriage, which appeared in the Asheville Citizen of last Sunday:

"The marriage of Miss Musette Harbison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moran Harbison, to William R. Hauser took place on Friday evening, December 23 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, near Morganton. Only members of the two families were present. The Rev. J. R. Cantrell, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, performed the ceremony, using the ring service.

"The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of white pine, and candelabra held lighted white tapers. Prior to the ceremony William Harbison and Yates Harbison, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles. A program of nuptial music was played by Miss Juanita Ross and the traditional wedding marches were heard.

"The bride's only attendant was her aunt, Mrs. Clarence Garrison. She wore a dress of grey with wine accessories and her shoulder corsage was of red rose buds.

"During the ceremony Miss Ross played 'Hearts and Flowers.' The bride wore a teal blue dress with wine accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

"The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hauser, of Franklin. He holds a position with the Drexel Furniture company.

"Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hauser left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will make their home with the bride's parents until spring."

MOZELEY-ALLEY

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Mozeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mozeley, of Otto, to Thomas Alley, son of Mrs. John Alley and the late Mr. Alley, of Cullowhee, was performed Saturday afternoon, December 24, at 4 o'clock, at the Methodist parsonage in Clarksville, Ga., by the Rev. Mr. Sewell, using the ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a blue dress with blue accessories. Her coat was rust with a silver fox choker.

Mrs. Alley is a graduate of the Franklin high school. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee. At present she is teaching in the public schools of Macon county at Otto.
