LORENZ-PORTER

The wedding of Miss Ellen Jane Lorenz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kumber Lorenz, of Dayton, O., to James Bryson Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Porter, of "The Hall in The Pines," Franklin, took place Friday evening, December 30, at the home of the bride's parents.

The mantel above the fireplace was banked with smilax among which was shown red berries, and clusters of white chrysanthemums were placed at vantage points in the rooms. The Rev. Hazen Werner, officiated, assisted by the bridegroom's brother-in-law, the Rev. Robert L. Jerome, of Wilmington.

Miss Eleanor McCann, at the piano, offered a musical prelude to the ceremony. She played Bach's New Year chorale, "In Thee Is Joy." A chorus of youngster guests joined in singing the wedding invocation just before the ceremony. The words of the invocation were written by the bride's mother, and the music was written by the bride.

The same group sang the wedding benediction at the close of the ceremony. The words to the benediction were written by the bridegroom's mother, and the music was written by the bridegroom.

The bride, who was given in marriage by both her parents, wore a dress of frost blue crepe, fashioned with high lace yoke and long pointed sleeves. The long full skirt fell from soft shirring at the waistline. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Porter's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Robert William Zehring, of Orange, N. J., who acted as informal matron of honor. She wore a dress of Mediterranean blue taffeta, which was made with square neck and puffed sleeves and trimmed with shirred bands around the full skirt. She carried a bouquet of red poinsettias.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Thomas W. Porter, Jr., of Nashville, Tenn.

An informal reception at the residence followed the ceremony, which was attended by only a few guests in addition to the family.

Mrs. Porter is a graduate of Wellesley college. She is associate editor of the Lorenz Publishing company and is interested in many musical activities in addition to being a choir director.

Mr. Porter attended Duke University and is a graduate of Arizona College of Commerce. He is an organist. His business association is with the Burns Automobile company.

Following a short wedding trip to Dearborn Inn, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Porter will reside at 23 Dorothy Lane, Dayton, O.

Among the large crowd attending were: Mrs. Thomas W. Porter, Sr., and Miss Lane Porter, mother and sister of the bridegroom, of Franklin; Thomas W. Porter, Jr., of Nashville, Tenn., brother of the groom, and the Rev. and Mrs. Robert L. Jerome, of Wilmington, a sister of the bridegroom.

JOHNSON-JARRARD

A marriage of much interest to a wide circle of friends and relatives in Franklin and Macon county, of Franklin, to Lamar D. Johnson, of Clarksville, formerly of Franklin, to Lamar D. Jarrard, of Clarksville, Ga., and Detroit, Mich.

The quiet, but very impressive ring ceremony was solemnized Friday afternoon, December 30, at the Baptist parsonage in Clarksville. Rev. Douglas M. White officiating.

The bride wore her traveling suit, a smartly cut three-piece, brown Shetland tweed, with a matching fur collar, with which she wore an eggshell satin blouse. Her shoes and bag were of brown alligator. Her hat and gloves of a matching shade, camel suede.

The couple entered together as there were no attendants.

Mrs. Jarrard, who is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Johnson, formerly of Franklin, had made her home with her sister, Mrs. Emory M. Fry, after the death of her father in 1933.

Mrs. Jarrard was a member of the 1933 graduating class of Clarksville high school, and for the past few years was connected with the Stovall chain stores. She is a niece of George M. Johnson and Mrs. R. M. Ledford, both of Franklin. She will be remembered as one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Mrs. Ledford's daughter in 1936.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jarrard, of Clarksville, and was a graduate of Clarksville high school in the class of 1927, and for the past several years has held a responsible position as superintendent of W. J. Phillips Co., in Detroit, Mich.

Following their marriage the couple left on a wedding tour through North Carolina, the Virginia, and Northern States and on to Calif., Mich., at which place they expect to make their home.
