P-T. A. TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday, February 7. After the business session the Rev. W. F. Beadle will have charge of the program, and will present a playlet, consisting of three Biblical dialogues. It is hoped that the parents will make a special effort to be present at this meeting.

Mrs. W. A. Hays and Mrs. S. E. Potts will have charge of the refreshments which will be served in the lunch room.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR TEAM WINS ALL GAMES PLAYED

The Christian Endeavor basketball team has played five games this season, coming off victorious in all of them. The game scheduled with Rosman last Monday night was called off due to the severe weather.

PIPE ORGAN DEDICATED BY PRESBYTERIANS SUNDAY

The pipe organ, recently given to the Presbyterian church by the Hodgson family, of Athens, Ga., as a memorial to their mother, the late Mrs. Joseph M. Hodgson, was dedicated at a special service Sunday morning, January 29.

Singers from the other churches were invited to join the Presbyterian choir, and the combined talent gave the people of Highlands a rare musical treat. The solo by Mrs. O. F. Summer was especially beautiful. The sermon topic was "Music."

The pastor, Rev. R. B. DuPree, on behalf of the church, expressed appreciation to the Hodgson family for the gift of the organ; to Ralph Hodgson for reconditioning and installing it; to Miss Minnie D. Warren for the gift of the installation; to W. H. Cobb for its transportation from Athens to Highlands; and to all those who in any way assisted in the moving and installation of this organ.

MRS. RAMEY'S DEATH SHOCKS HIGHLANDS FRIENDS

The news of the untimely death of Mrs. Mollie Merchetti Ramey on Sunday afternoon, January 24, at her home, "Valley View Farm," near Franklin, came as a shock to her Highlands friends. Mrs. Ramey was employed at Hotel Edwards for a number of summers, making many friends, and was quite familiarly known as "Aunt Mollie." Mrs. Ramey leaves a husband, one son by a former marriage, Louis D. Marchetti of Florence, S. C., four brothers in Highlands, Joe, Paul, Miller and Love Henry, and one brother, Ike Henry, of Mountain Rest, S. C.

PRESBYTERIAN ELDER EJECTED SUNDAY

At the Presbyterian church congregational meeting Sunday, January 29, S. L. McCarty, Jr., and O. F. Summer were elected to serve as elders for the coming year.

EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY MEETS WITH MRS. DAVIS

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Incarnation met with the new President, Mrs. W. S. Davis, last Thursday. Mr. Bloxham led the devotional, and the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read by Miss Estelle Edwards and Miss Rebecca Harris. The 1939 budget was accepted. Mrs. J. A. Hines was appointed secretary to succeed Miss Estelle Edwards, who left Sunday for Greensboro where she will enter the North Carolina State college for women.

The next regular meeting will be held at the church on February 23. This being the first day of Lent, the Auxiliary decided to postpone the selection of a Lenten study till that time. Mr. Bloxham announced that there will be a service every Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the church during Lent.

Mrs. Davis was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. W. R. Harper and Mrs. Furman Merrill.

CARD CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MISS SARA GILDER

Miss Sara Gilder entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Card Club on January 25. Before the game began, a salad course, with hot cheese biscuits, crackers and coffee, was served in the dining room. The beautifully appointed table was centered with a bowl of begonias, flanked with silver candelabra holding red tapers.

After the social half hour in the dining room, the guests matched their tally cards and repaired to the living room for a very pleasant game. The high score prize, a bottle of toilet water, was won by Mrs. H. G. Story. Mrs. Elliott Caziarc was final winner of the traveling prize, a beautiful blooming white narcissus. During the course of the game delicious crystallized fruits were enjoyed by the guests.

Miss Gilder was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. W. H. Cobb.

BODY OF GARFIELD ROGERS THOUGHT DISCOVERED

Several weeks ago D. M. Rogers was notified of the disappearance of his son, Garfield Rogers, from his home in Washington state on December 26. Not being able to find out anything definite, Mr. Rogers and three of his sons went out to Washington, and Ed Rogers, an uncle of Garfield's, is in receipt of a letter from them saying the river had been dragged and the body of a man, thought to be that of Garfield, brought to the surface, but before positive identification could be made the body sank again in 18 feet of water, and at the last writing had not been recovered.

FUNERAL HELD FOR H. B. PICKLESIMER

Funeral services for H. B. Picklesimer, 70, who died at his home in Whiteside Cove Monday morning, January 30, after several weeks' illness, were held at the residence at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Rev. W. F. Beadle.

Mr. Picklesimer is survived by his widow; seven daughters, Mrs. Edward Bryson, Cullowhee; Mrs. Ivey G. Willis, Williston; Mrs. P. H. Kline, Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Claude Jones, Sylva, Miss Gladys Picklesimer, Raleigh; Mrs. Chas. Fogueland, Ft. Madison, Iowa, and three sons, Thomas and Lewis, Grimeshaws, and Haywood, Douglas, Wyoming.

Pallbearers were: Turley Picklesimer, Herman Alley, Eugene Alley, Tom Alley, Kay Bumgarner, and Frank Bumgarner.

Burial was in the family cemetery in Whiteside Cove.

The dance at Helen's Barn Saturday night netted $12.00, and the two shows at the theatre $16.60. Chairman C. C. Potts says that the total amount raised from all sources in the county will be published at an early date.

Little Beverly Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook, who has been quite ill with bronchial pneumonia, is very much improved. Mrs. Meta N. Hall, Miss Caroline Hall, Mrs. W. R. Potts and Miss Peggy Potts spent last Saturday in Asheville.

The many Highlands friends of Billy Nall, who has been spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nall at their winter place in Carrabelle, Fla., will be interested to know that Billy is now in Ann Arbor, Mich., attending the Ann Arbor high school preparatory to entering the University of Michigan in September. While in Ann Arbor Bill will be with his cousin, Thomas Greville and Mrs. Greville.

Miss Estelle Edwards left Monday for Greensboro, where she will enter the North Carolina State college for women, and will take up the study of medicine. She was accompanied as far as Hendersonville by her mother, Mrs. F. A. Edwards. Miss Edwards was a student at the University of Georgia, at Athens, last year.

Rev. and Mrs. R. B. DuPree had as their week-end guests, Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Nelson and their two daughters of Homestead, Fla. Mr. Nelson came to North Carolina to consider a call to the Dillingham Presbyterian church near Weaverville.

The past week-end saw Hotel Edwards with more guests than could be accommodated, a number having to be turned away. There were guests from all sections who came up for ice skating as well as for the square dance at Helen's Barn given for the President's birthday on Saturday evening.

The Christian Endeavor is starting another contest between its two groups, beginning February 5. This contest will last through the month of February, and the losing side will entertain the winners with a party.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis had as their week-end guests Mr. Davis' daughter, Mrs. O. D. Bolton and Mr. Bolton, of Commerce, Ga. The Boltons were accompanied on their return by their aunt, Mrs. W. R. Harper, who will later come back to Highlands to complete her visit with the Davises before returning to her home in Como, Texas.

Miss Rebecca Harris is spending two weeks in Atlanta, the guest of relatives.

C. V. Rainwater, Brown Rainwater, and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Rainwater, of Pensacola, Fla., were guests at Hotel Edwards several days last week.

G. W. Marett, Fred Littleton and Jeter Buchanan left last Tuesday for a week's hunting trip near Summerville, S. C.

Friends of Mrs. Evelyn Harris, of Atlanta, who owns a lovely summer home on Bearpen Mountain, will be interested to know that she is enjoying a South American cruise with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wardlaw.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Flowers spent the past week-end in Asheville.

Mrs. Mary Zachary has returned from a week-end visit with her sister, Mrs. Bud Carpenter, near Franklin.

Wildlife Bureau Gives Estimate Of State's Game

An inventory of big-game animals in the United States in 1937, recently completed by the U. S. biological survey in cooperation with local, state, and other national agencies, shows that out of a national total of more than 5,000,000 North Carolina ranks 19th with almost 53,000, including more European wild boars than in any other state. The report for North Carolina shows 51,000 white-tailed deer, 1,100 black bears, and 300 European wild boars.

NOW GETS WATER

H. C. Howard, who lives near Deep River in Moore county, dug a well 93 feet deep and still got little water. Now he is establishing a simple hydraulic ram which will supply him with 300 gallons a day and the cost for installation, ram and pipe will not exceed $155.

BIG GAME

The first nation-wide attempt to determine the number of big game animals in the United States showed more than 5,000,000, a recent study of the biological survey revealed.
