FOUNDERS' DAY OBSERVED BY P.-T. A.

At the regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association, which was held Monday afternoon in the high school auditorium, Founders' Day was observed with an appropriate program. Mrs. John Wasilik, Jr., president, presided over the meeting.

The high school glee club, under the leadership of Miss Josephine Weaver, and Hayes Overcash, members of the high school faculty, sang three numbers, "Cradle Song," "How Can I Leave Thee" and "Stars of the Summer Night," which were thoroughly enjoyed.

The Rev. I. L. Roberts, pastor of the Franklin Methodist church, used for devotional the 5th Chapter of Matthew, followed by a short talk and prayer.

J. R. Wells, principal of the Franklin high school, Mrs. James E. Perry and Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, were appointed to serve as a nominating committee to nominate new officers for the ensuing year.

"America The Beautiful" was sung in unison, led by Mrs. Frank Bloxham, accompanied by Mrs. James L. Averill at the piano.

Mrs. Hugh Leach, teacher of the home economic class, gave a very interesting talk on "Training for Home and Family Life." J. R. Wells, gave a short talk on Founders' Day, giving the statistic on the Parent-Teacher Association, which celebrated its 41st anniversary on February 17.

Mrs. Frank Bloxham sang, "The Song of Home." The music is the familiar Largo Movement from the New World Symphony by Antonin Dvorak and the words are composed by Ellen Jane Lorenz, who is now Mrs. James Bryson Porter. She also sang in closing, "A Parting Song."

A short skit on "Home Hygiene" was presented by four girls of Miss Josephine Dixon's class.

Mrs. Herbert E. Church, chairman of the program committee, announced the program for March, which will include a talk from Clyde Gailey, on "Motion Pictures" and Mrs. Thomas W. Porter, Sr., will tell about the "New York World's Fair." Also a program by one of the elementary grades will be given.

Following the meeting, tea and cake were served from the table which was covered with a beautiful lace cloth over yellow. A silver bowl filled with yellow jasmne and yellow jonquils centered the table, and lighted white tapers in silver holders were placed diagonally on the table. Mrs. L. H. Page poured tea from one end of the table, while Mrs. S. H. Lyle, Jr., and Mrs. John Wasilik, Jr., served cake from the other end.
