SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. CARL P. CABE

A surprise birthday party and dinner was given Monday night by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Clarke Soper in honor of Mrs. Carl P. Cabe. Mrs. Cabe was detained in town on various pretexts, and when she reached home the guests were assembled and the dinner was ready.

A telegram was delivered during the evening requesting Mrs. Cabe to look under her bed, and when she complied she found a number of gifts concealed there.

The guests at the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Soper, Miss Stella Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Guffey, D. P. Cabe, Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Anderson, parents of Mrs. Cabe, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. Cabe.

BIBLE CLASS MEETING HELD WITH MRS. PAGE

The F. S. Johnston Bible class met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. H. Page on Rogers Hill for the regular monthly business and social meeting with approximately 25 members present.

Mrs. W. W. Sloan, president, presided over the business session, and following the reports from the various committees, a round table discussion was held on ways and means to finance the obligations the class has assumed for the year's projects.

The following committees were appointed: ways and means, Mrs. Herbert E. Church; chairman; Mrs. W. A. Rogers, Mrs. Reba Tessier and Mrs. Lester S. Conley; flowers, Mrs. R. G. Beshears, Mrs. J.

S. Conley and Mrs. W. T. Moore; reporting on the sick, Mrs. P. F. Callahan and Mrs. C. C. Cunningham.

Mrs. Herbert E. Church and Miss Amy Harrison were winners of the two prizes given in the two very enjoyable contests held.

Mrs. Page, assisted by Mrs. C. L. Morton and Mrs. Sam L. Rogers, served delicious refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chandler and the Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Phillips, of Tallulah Lodge, Ga., spent Friday of the past week visiting Mrs. Chandler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Thomas, at their home on Iotla street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smart and son, Billy, of McCormick, S. C., were here for the funeral of Mrs. Smart's father, Edgar A. Vanhook, and for a visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Nora Leach, who is teaching school at Nantahala, spent the week-end with home folks.

Miss Dorothy Stewart and nephew, Richard Briggs, of Atlanta, Ga., spent the week-end with Miss Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stewart, at their home on River-view street.

Miss Evelyn Poliakoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poliakoff, is spending two weeks in Miami Beach, Fla. For several months Miss Poliakoff has been in Anderson, S. C., clerking for her father in his store there.

Lee Leach, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is able to be out on the streets again.

Ford Mann, of Newton, came in Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Mann, at their home on Franklin Route 2. He is connected with the Catawba News-Enterprise at Newton, which is owned and edited by his uncle, G. W. Mann.

Benny McGlamery, of Andrews, who is employed by the Nantahala Power and Light company, and was formerly stationed in Franklin, spent a while here Monday on business.

Mrs. Ray Orr, of Andrews, is spending several days with her cousin, Miss Grace Baird, at her home on Bonny Crest.

The condition of Charlie W. Dowdle, who has been quite ill at his home at Prentiss for the past month, suffering with jaundice, was reported to be unchanged Tuesday.

Francis B. Johnson, son of Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson, has accepted the position of engineer in charge of Porterfield-Turner Airplane Corporation, of Kansas City. For the past year he has been stress-analysis engineer of Rearwin Airplane company, of Kansas City.

The postmasters from Macon county attending the meeting in Waynesville Saturday were: Mrs. C. Tom Bryson, Cullasaja; Mrs. W. M. Parrish, Otto; T. W. Porter, Franklin; E. O. Rickman, Leatherman; J. D. Burnette, Sealy and Oscar C. Corbin, Gneiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas J. Womack have returned to their home here after spending a few days with their son, John Womack, who underwent an operation at the Northburn hospital for the removal of his appendix. They reported their son to be getting along nicely and It's Nice Work, but Can He Do It?

It's a big job for a little fellow, but Sonia, Labrador Eskimo pup owned by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Seale of Wonalancet, N. H., nevertheless attempts to pull Nancy Horst, seven-year-old Greenwich, Conn., girl, when she visited a sportsmen's show in New York recently.

BRIGADIER GENERAL

First native born soldier of the U. S. territory of Puerto Rico to be made a brigadier general in the national guard or regular army is Luis Paul Esteves, former colonel recently elevated by President Roosevelt. He is now the highest ranking army officer in Uncle Sam's tropical island, regarded as a strategic outpost for the Panama canal.

expects to be able to leave the hospital within the next few days.

Mrs. Locke Davis, of Candler, came over last week to be with her father, Edgar A. Van Hook, who died at his home at Riverside Monday evening.

Sheriff A. B. Slagle, Mayor Guy L. Houk, of Franklin, and Town Clerk Thad Smith, of Highlands, were in Raleigh on business the first of the week.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cochrane announce the birth of a daughter, at their home in Franklin township on Friday, February 17.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nondis Fouts, on Thursday, February 23, at their home on Franklin Route 3.

Forest Fire Training School Conducted

A one day Forest Fire Training school has just been completed at Camp F-24, Robbinsville. All forest officials attended the school. Methods of handling fires was the main training job. The foresters returned to their jobs upon completion of the school confident that this year their efforts at suppressing fires would be very successful. They felt that the continued cooperation of local residents will be a big help in attaining a good record. January and February were passed without a fire to darken the horizon and continued care by everyone in the Nantahala forest will enable these fire fighters to continue their good work.

HARD FARMING

Madison county farmers sell most of their produce in the raw state because, says County Agent G. W. Miller, the county has no factories, no tobacco warehouse, no furniture plant, no hatchery or milk plant, no cannery or greenhouse, no feed lot cattle sold directly to the butcher, nor, any produce house,

Play At Mulberry School March 4

A play, "The Path Across the Hill," will be presented at the Mulberry school house on Saturday night, March 4, at 7:30.

The cast will include members of the school and others in the community.

The proceeds will be used for the school lunch room. Admission charges for adults will be 25 cents and children 15 cents.

MORE PIGS

Farmers cooperating to conduct the five-county livestock market at New Bern last week shipped 423 hogs weighing 59,866 pounds for which the owners were paid over $5,000. This money scattered among the adjacent farm owners is supplying needed cash at this season, reports county agent L. G. Matthis.

ENJOY ALL THE PLEASURE THERE IS IN SMOKING—

Let up—Light up a Camel

CAMELS GIVE ME TWO BIG THINGS I WANT IN A CIGARETTE—MILDNESS AND GOOD, RICH FLAVOR. CAMELS MAKE SMOKING MEAN A LOT MORE TO ME. 'D WALK A MILE FOR A CAMEL' TOO!

WHEN the combination to a safe gets lost, Harold J. Weidman is likely to get a call. His work as a locksmith is opening locks by touch and sound. Often that's a long, wearisome job, and, as Harold says, "No task for a man with jittery nerves." So he pauses now and then to let up—light up a mild, tasty Camel. He finds these recesses pleasant and refreshing.
