MRS. GEO. POTTS HOSTESS AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Mrs. George Potts was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at her home at West's Mill Saturday night, as a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Clark. Mrs. Clark was the former Miss Katherine Ray.

Little Joan Potts, small daughter of Mrs. Potts, entered the living room drawing a wagon in which was seated little Carlene Sorrells, niece of the hostess, surrounded by daintily wrapped packages, and carrying an open parasol. She was followed by a group of small children also carrying packages for the honorees.

The guests were invited into the dining room where Mr. and Mrs. Clark opened and displayed the large assortment of attractive and useful gifts to their many friends present.

Following the party cake and punch were served by the hostess.

U. D. C. MEETING HELD WITH MRS. A. B. SLAGLE

The monthly business and social meeting of the United Daughters of Confederacy of the Macon county chapter was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. B. Slagle, on West Main street, with 12 members present.

The Slagle home was attractively arranged in yellow jonquils and greenery and the St. Patrick motif of yellow and green was further carried out in the refreshments.

The meeting was presided over by Miss Elizabeth Slagle, president. Following the reports from the different committees, plans for organizing a junior chapter in Macon county were discussed. This was left open for further discussion and will probably be definitely decided upon at the April meeting.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Herbert E. Church, chairman of the program committee. Mrs. James L. Averell, sang three lovely selections, "The Kerry Dance," by Molloy; "Londonderry Air," old Irish melody, and "Flow, Gently Sweet Afton," by Robert Burns, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Jack O. Werner gave a reading and short sketch on historical places and early settlers of Charleston, S. C., which was very instructive as well as interesting.

Mrs. Carl S. Slagle was winner of the prize in the "stitch" contest. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Zeb W. Conley in April.

MRS. SCAGGS GIVES PARTY FOR DAUGHTER

WAX POTATOES

Two Cornell University scientists found that treating seed Irish potatoes with 30 per cent 231-B wax emulsion while still in a dormant condition resulted in a stimulation of sprout growth, an earlier emergence of plants, and a corresponding increase in yield.

PEANUTS

It now appears likely that North Carolina farmers will plant fewer acres of Spanish type peanuts this year and devote a larger acreage to the Virginia type.
