MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

HYATT-CROOM

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hyatt, of Franklin Route 4, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emma Elizabeth Hyatt to Mr. James Leighton Croom, of Robersonville.

The ceremony was performed on Saturday, March 4, 1939 at Clayton, Ga.

Mrs. Croom is a graduate of the Franklin high school and Western Carolina Teachers' college, at Cullowhee and at present holds a position in the Gold Point school.

Mr. Croom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Croom, of Robersonville. He is a graduate of the Robersonville high school.

At present, the couple are making their home with the groom's parents.

T. E. L. CLASS TO MEET WITH MRS. WICKLIFFE

The T. E. L. class of the Franklin Baptist church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Clarence Wickliffe for the regular monthly business meeting. All members are urged to attend.

P.T.A. OFFICERS ELECTED AT MEETING MONDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the high school auditorium, with approximately 60 members and visitors present.

The meeting was opened by singing "America the Beautiful" in unison, with Mrs. James L. Averell at the piano.

Mrs. John Wasilik, president, presided over the business session, and the nominating committee, composed of J. R. Wells, Mrs. James E. Perry and Mrs. Lola P. Barrington submitted the following names for officers for the coming year, who were unanimously elected: Mrs. John Wasilik, Jr., president, reelected; Mrs. A. R. Higdon, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Bloxham, secretary; Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr., treasurer, and Mrs. Lee Guffey, historian.

The association voted to sponsor the Girl Scouts.

Clyde Gailey, manager of the Macon Theatre, held an open discussion on "Motion Pictures," while Mrs. Thomas W. Porter, Sr., spoke on the New York World's Fair.

C. W. Phillips, of Greensboro college, state recording secretary of the Parent-Teacher congress, who is making a tour of the Western North Carolina counties, was the guest speaker of the evening, using for his topic the three outstanding things that he would want, "The Desire to Learn, How to Study, and be of Strong Character." His lecture was very instructive as well as educational.

Mrs. James L. Averell was in charge of the musical program and those taking part were: Betty Lou Scroggs, a piano solo; Cullen Bryant, a violin solo; Mrs. Harry S. Higgins and Betty Lou Scroggs, a piano duet.

Following the meeting tea and cake were served from the beautifully appointed table, which was covered with an exquisite lace cloth over pink, and centered with a bowl of bridal wreath and peach blossoms, and four pink candles. Mrs. L. H. Page poured tea from one end of the table while Mrs. John Wasilik, Jr., served cake from the other end.

Those who donated cakes last week for the benefit of the lunch room equipment were: Mrs. Reba Tessier, Mrs. Jack Sanders and Mrs. I. L. Easton.

Those who gave cakes to be sold at the P.T.A. meetings were: Mrs. A. R. Higdon, Mrs. M. L. Dowdle, Mrs. Jimmy Sutton, Mrs. Fred S. Sloan and Mrs. John Wasilik, Jr.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS WITH MRS. CUNNINGHAM

The F. S. Johnston Bible class of the Franklin Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Cunningham on Thursday afternoon for the regular monthly business and social meeting, with more than 20 members present.

Mrs. W. W. Sloan, president, presided and following the secretary's report and reports from the different committees, a report was made from the members of the class on how they had made their "quarter" grow.

Each member in the class was asked to take a "quarter" of their own money, and see how many times they could increase the valuation of that money in one month. Various and sundry projects were used by the members to increase their money, but when it was totaled, it was found that something over $40 had been made. This money is being sent to the children's orphanage at Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Cunningham, assisted by Mrs. P. F. Callahan and Mrs. W. J. Zachary, served delicious refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

EASTERN STAR INSTALLS

Tranquility

A funeral service must have the quality of harmony that depends upon experienced arrangement and skillful direction if it is to bring tranquility to the minds of those suffering bereavement.

The question of cost should at all times depend entirely upon the family's wishes. Our privately-arranged prices never exceed, and are often less, than the amounts paid for price-publicized services.

Appropriateness is more a reflection of good taste than of the size of the funeral bill.
