TALLEY-BURTON

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Talley, of Highlands, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sharlee Talley, to Richard Burton on Sunday, March 26, in Clayton, Ga. Mr. Burton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burton, of Atlanta. Accompanying the young people to Clayton were: Miss Myrtle Bryson, Claud Radford, and Thomas Talley, brothers of the bride, and Verlin Burton, brother of the groom. After a short stay with Mrs. Burton's parents, the couple returned to Atlanta where they will make their home.

P.-T. A. TO ELECT OFFICERS APRIL 4

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold its annual election of officers at the regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon, April 4, at 4:45 o'clock. After the business session, Mrs. O. F. Sumner's music pupils will give a number of piano selections, and by request Mrs. J. M. Hall and Mrs. O. F. Sumner will sing Schubert's Serenade, with the piano accompaniment by Mrs. R. B. DuPree. The fourth grade, under the direction of Miss Mattie Wilkes, will present a short play, "Cinderella." Tea will be served in the lunch room.

The public is invited and all members are asked to make a special effort to be present at the meeting.

MRS. BARAK WRIGHT, 86 PASSES MONDAY MORNING

Funeral services for Mrs. Barak Wright, who died in her 86th year at her home in Shortoff early Monday morning, were conducted at the residence by the Rev. W. F. Beadle at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Burial was in the Highlands cemetery.

Mrs. Wright was a member of one of Macon county's oldest and most prominent families, and a loyal member of the Methodist church since early childhood. She is survived by one son, Henry M. Wright, with whom she made her home, and one daughter, Miss Addie Wright. The active pallbearers were J. R. Phillips, S. A. Calloway, W. P. Hedden, G. R. McConnell, Harold McConnell, and J. R. Wright. Mrs. J. W. Edwards and Mrs. Don Watson were in charge of the flowers.

MRS. HICKS ENTERTAINS ADULT EDUCATION CLASS

Mrs. J. E. Hicks entertained the Adult Education class at its monthly luncheon last week. Those present were Mrs. Annie Westbrook, class teacher, Mrs. R. A. Baty, Mrs. Jamie Rogers, Mrs. Sam Baty, and the Misses Frances and Corinne Wilson.

This class expects to begin the study of home arts and handcraft the first of April.

MRS. J. E. ROOT HOSTESS TO CARD CLUB

Mrs. J. E. Root was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Card club on March 22 at her home on West Main street. The living room and sun-room, where the three tables of players assembled, were brightly decorated with spring flowers. The high score prize, a lovely leather desk set, went to Mrs. Eliot Caziarc. Mrs. J. A. Hines was final winner of the traveling prize, a leather-covered letter file.

During the tea hour following the game, Mrs. Root was assisted in serving fruit salad and sandwiches by her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Bullock.

MRS. EARL CRUNKLETON GIVES QUILTING PARTY

Those enjoying a quilting party given by Mrs. Earl Crunkleton on Thursday of last week, were Mrs. John Baty, Mrs. Richard Cobb, Mrs. Myron Russell, Mrs. Tom Crunkleton, Mrs. Ray Norton, Mrs. J. E. Hicks, Mrs. Roy Speed, and Mrs. R. A. Baty. A delicious luncheon was served at noon, and the quilting resumed in the afternoon. Mrs. Crunkleton was assisted in entertaining by Miss Connie Bradley.

MANY ATTEND LIONS CLUB DANCE

More than a hundred people enjoyed the square dance and box supper, sponsored by the Lions club at Helen's Barn on March 25. The crowd danced till 11 o'clock, when the sale of the boxes began, with Ralph Rucker acting as auctioneer. Quite a few parties were formed and the contents of boxes spread and eaten in picnic fashion. Miss Peggy Thompson won the prize given for the prettiest girl, and Fred Houck the prize for the ugliest man. These prizes were a couple of cakes baked and given by Mrs. F. H. Potts. A net profit of $68 was realized.

Beginning April 1 there will be a square dance every Saturday night at Helen's Barn.

HIGHLANDS LIONS ATTEND BANQUET AT CLAYTON

Numbered among the members of the Highlands Lions club attending the ladies' night banquet given by the Clayton Lions club on Thursday evening, March 23, were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Thad D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hicks, S. A. Wilson, W. W. Edwards, and Louis Edyards.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad D. Smith were called to Tuckaseegee last Friday on account of the death of Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. J. H. Smith. Funeral services were conducted from the Tuckaseegee Baptist church on Saturday afternoon. The Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Benfield and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hicks were among those from Highlands who attended this funeral.

The Christian Endeavor Union honored its basketball team with a spaghetti supper on Thursday evening, March 23, at the home of Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson, celebrating their 1939 Macon county basketball championship.

Mrs. C. E. Mitchell has gone to Hawkinsville, Ga., to visit her mother and recuperate from an attack of influenza.

Floyd Waller of Joplin, Mo., who has been ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ed Rogers, for the past several months, is very much improved.

Honor Students

Honor students of the Highlands high school graduating class are, Miss Peggy Thompson, valedictorian, and L. C. Nix, salutatorian. Miss Thompson is the 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Helen Thompson and the late Dr. H. P. P. Thompson. She is president of the senior class and of the high school literary society. Mr. Nix is the 18-year-old son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Nix, and is editor-in-chief of the school's newspaper, The Mountain Trail.

Miss Lois Ledford of Dillard, Ga., was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Townsend have returned to their home, "Far Horizons," after a three months' sojourn in Orlando, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reese, the Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Benfield, and Guy Paul attended the Macon County Sunday convention at Holly Springs last Sunday. Going down with Mr. Paul were his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Edwards, and his son, Herbert Paul, who visited their aunt, Mrs. Margaret Williams at Holly Springs.

Mrs. F. W. Altstaetter and her daughter, Miss Anne Altstaetter, returned to Savannah Sunday after spending the week-end at their summer place, "Laurel Lodge."

Miss Sarah Bridges Thompson, a student at Queen's-Chicora college, is expected to arrive next week to spend the Easter holidays with her mother, Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson.

The Lions Club held its semi-monthly meeting and supper at Hotel Edwards Monday evening.

Mrs. M. M. Hopper is slowly improving from a week's illness at her home on the Dillard road.

MONEY FROM HOGS

A group of Robeson county farmers sold four cars of fat hogs last week at top prices of $7.20 a hundred and grossing $4,306.83 for the shipment. These small cooperative markets organized to serve the farmers have been used as a ready source of cash income and to stabilize the local market price, report county farm agents.

Funeral Costs

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the cost of every funeral we direct is controlled by each family. While we maintain the highest standards of service in every funeral, our confidential prices are never more, often less, than publicly known costs. The entire expense is determined in the choice of furnishings and items of service required.

IN OUR OPINION everybody should know, not guess, about funeral matters including the complete cost. We invite inquiries.
