

DEATH CLAIMS JESSE C. GRANT

Widely Known Citizen Of County Passes At Age Of 92

Jesse Calvin Grant, 92, well-known Macon county citizen, died at his home Saturday morning after an illness of 14 months.

Mr. Grant for many years operated, in several sections of the county, a burr mill. In his latter active years he was a farmer. Until he was taken sick last year, he had the reputation of never having taken a dose of medicine. He was known all over the county and was highly esteemed for his high character and good citizenship.

Surviving Mr. Grant are his second wife, the former Miss Ella Boston, and eight children. Four of the children, James Grant of Waynesville, Mrs. Rosie Wood of Hindale, Mrs. Dora Clark of Rutherfordton and Mrs. Oddie Ford of Waynesville, are of his first marriage to the former Miss Sarah Queen. The other four are Fred and Elijah Grant of Franklin, Mrs. Dewey Cunningham of Hickory Knoll and Mrs. Carl Bingham of Murphy.

Funeral rites were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Franklin Baptist church by the Rev. C. F. Rogers, pastor, and burial was in the Franklin cemetery.

Pallbearers were Lon Campbell, Henry Reid, C. S. McFall, Henry Turpin, Wade Arvey, Jack Weyman, W. T. Moore and Lon Dalton.

Change In Services At St. Agnes' Church

Beginning Sunday, June 4, a slight change will be made in the services at this church. Morning services at 11 a. m. will be held on the second, fourth and fifth Sundays of the month and evening services at 8 p. m. will be held on the first and third Sundays of the month. Members and friends are asked to take special notice of this change.

J. W. Ray

Passes Saturday At Home
At West's Mill

J. W. Ray, 51, died Saturday at his home in the West's Mill section after being in ill health for the past 20 years.

Mr. Ray, the son of J. Robert Ray and the late Mrs. Ray, was born on November 3, 1887. He was a member of Snow Hill Methodist church, the Woodmen of the World, and the Eagles lodge, in Montana, where he formerly lived. Mr. Ray had been ill for the past 20 years.

Surviving are his widow, the former Miss Byrdelle Jenkins; one daughter, Mrs. Clyde Clark, of Franklin; his father and step-mother; and two sisters, Mrs. Hyacinth Roper, of Franklin, and Miss Rebecca Ray, of West's Mill.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at Snow Hill Methodist church. The Rev. H. S. Williams officiated, and burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Lester and Weimer Ray, Fred McGaha, Weaver and Harold Sheffield and Harold Roper.

LEE LEACH, 66 PASSES SUNDAY

Gus and Tom Leach, of Franklin; and five sisters, Mrs. Lee Waldroop, Mrs. Pearl Wright, and Misses Nora, Laura and Ida Leach.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Franklin Presbyterian church. The Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the church; the Rev. C. F. Rogers, pastor of the Baptist church, and the Rev. I. L. Roberts, pastor of the Methodist church, were in charge of the services.

Pallbearers were John Bulgin, George Brown, William Waldroop, Jr., Charles Waldroop, Robert A. Patton and Harold Waldroop.

The business houses of the town were closed during the funeral and the services were attended by a great number of people from Franklin and surrounding country. The many beautiful floral offerings attested the esteem in which Mr. Leach was held by his fellow citizens.

Among the out-of-town people here for the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. John Leach, Andrews; Mrs. W. H. H. Hughes and Mrs. Hallie Bell, Greenville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Messer and J. Luther Phillips, Asheville; J. E. Lancaster and John Earl Lancaster, Hendersonville; Mrs. Charles Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Moody and Miss Mattie Moody, Waynesville; Mrs. Sadie Long, J. R. Long, Dan Bryson and A. O. Allison, Sylva; the Rev. P. P. Thrower and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Black, Bryson City; Miss Bertie Rogers, Cullowhee; J. M. Cunningham, Glenville; Miss May McDowell and Mr. Baughn, Clayton, Ga.

ADDITIONAL FRANKLIN SOCIAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hendrix, Jr., and little daughter, Charlotte, of Charleston, Miss.; Mrs. Charles Hendrix, Sr., and daughter, Miss Woodline Hendrix, of Gainesville, Fla., spent the week-end with their sister and daughter, Mrs. H. S. Lyle and Mr. Lyle, at Trimont Inn. Mrs. Hendrix, Sr., will remain in Franklin for a while.

The ladies of St. Agnes church will hold a rummage sale on Saturday, June 10. Through the courtesy of Mr. Thomas, the sale will be located in the old Bank Building on Main street.

PEGGY DUNBAR ROLL LEADER

There will be no losers in this race. Every active candidate in the race who stays to the end wins either one of the prizes or a 10 per cent commission where a $15 "club" of Franklin Press subscriptions has been reported. This makes a participant sure of a prize for all are bound to win if they make any effort whatsoever. Impress upon your friends to ASK FOR BABY COUPONS from the co-operating Baby Derby merchants. Also that Franklin Press subscriptions count, too.

While we are making the last call for parents to enter their baby, we are at the same time going to start eliminating babies who have neither coupons or subscriptions reported for them each week from now on. It is necessary that you report either coupons or subscriptions if you want YOUR baby kept in the race. Activity on your part will insure running of the baby's picture in The Franklin Press.

In The Franklin Press' large subscription list in this territory there are many who have neglected to renew their subscription and these are the persons who should be contacted by candidates. Stop in the Derby office today and learn how you can get to those people whose subscriptions are due to elapse. There are plenty of miles in renewals and new subscriptions and these will carry you on a long journey toward winning the Baby Honors.

Last week subscriptions were received for only a few of the babies in the race. Now here is the ironical part of that situation. Right on the regular subscription list can be found dozens—even hundreds of people who are either uncles, aunts, grandmothers, grandfathers of those babies who didn't have a subscription entered for their record. Yes, we'll even take it closer than that. There are many parents who are regular subscribers to The Franklin Press who weren't interested enough in their own baby to renew their subscription and give the little one the credit. Why wait until the Derby is over and then pay up when it does no one any good.

Keep impressing upon the people who are helping your baby that THEY MUST ASK FOR COUPONS. Some of the merchants report that close relatives of babies entered in the race, have been shopping with them continually—but they don't ask for coupons. That ballot box can hold lots of coupons, so don't be afraid to bring in all you can. Put 'em in a bundle with the name and number on the outside. Lots of coupons keep the Baby Derby folks busy.

Why not work doubly hard from now on to Saturday night and try to place YOUR baby at the top of the Honor Roll list? Your efforts this week will count toward winning the $10 or $5 special prizes.

W. M. S. MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Officers to send their reports on time. She stated that the Waynesville district ranked first in the southern Methodist districts in offerings.

Following the luncheon served by the women of the different auxiliaries of the county to more than 200 guests, the afternoon session was opened by special music by Mrs. W. A. Huggins, of Waynesville, soloist, and Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, organist.

Mrs. James Atkins, of Waynesville, presided over the service of remembrance, held in memory of the deceased members. White rose buds furnished by Mrs. F. E. Branson, district secretary, were placed on the grave of Mrs. Mary I. Siler, one of the charter members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Franklin Methodist church.

Mrs. C. G. Hefner gave a talk on the "Missionary Education of Our Children," which was very instructive.

"Aunt Mary" Allman, 85, a charter member of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Franklin Methodist church, oldest society in southern Methodism, was present.

Dr. E. J. Coltrane, president of Brevard college, was present and made a short talk. Miss Vivian Moore, president of the alumni association of Brevard college, made a short talk and announced that she would give $50 for the next two years on the tuition of the girls sent to Brevard by the Woman's Missionary Societies of the Waynesville District. Two students are sent each year.

Donkey Baseball Here Saturday Night

Donkey Baseball, one of the funniest games ever conceived, is coming to Franklin on next Saturday night.

The game is being put on for the benefit of the Franklin baseball team, and will be played under flood lights.

In selecting the players for the game the committee in charge has used great care to pick men who know "Donkey Psychology." After very careful going over the list of eligible players two teams have been selected and the members are expected to give the spectators a thrilling exhibition.

The game is scheduled for 8 p. m. sharp, and will be played on the Franklin field.

Admission charge for adults will be 25 cents, and for children under 12 years of age, 15 cents.

A donkey baseball game was played here on July 4 last year and was voted the funniest entertainment ever witnessed in Franklin.

Cradle Roll Day Sunday At Iotla

"Cradle Roll Day" will be observed at the Iotla Baptist church on Sunday, June 4. The parents are requested to come and bring their children and be present for the exercises, at which time certificates will be presented to all the members of this department.
