MRS. H. G. STORY

THE WATCH-TOWER FROM SATULAH

High Yellow's crest is boldly crowned
By a stately watch-tower, sturdy—round;

On sunny days, 'tis seen on high,
Outlined against an azure sky.
Its guardians must never tire
To guard against a threat of fire.

Before the sun sinks out of sight,
The eye is dazzled by a bright
And blazing beam of brilliant light
That from the Tower's windows stream—

A million candle-power, 'twould seem,
Concentrates in that dazzling beam.

No artificial light could be
So powerful in intensity!
But, on the Tower's glass cheek, I wiss,

Is pressed Apollo's good-night kiss.
The startled glass awakes to fling
An answering message to the King.

Arrowood Glade Pool To Open Saturday

The Arrowood pool will be opened to the public for the first time on Saturday, July 1. Added safety precautions have been installed at this pool making it more attractive than ever before. Life guards will be placed on duty while swimming is permitted, and various life saving facilities, such as life preservers and a boat, have been installed on the area. This is a most popular spot for residents of Franklin and these added safety facilities should attract most anyone desiring a cool dip in the clear, crystal waters on Wayah Creek.

Added picnic facilities at Arrowood Glade will also add to the crowds expected over the holiday. The new log rain shelter just completed for this season will provide the necessary shelter in case of showers and picnickers should not hesitate at the prospects of unsettled weather.

The Arrowood rearing pools have been filled with approximately 50,000 trout and are a sight to be gloated over by any prospective fisherman.

Arrowood Glade presents a most inviting spot for the annual 4th of July picnic—providing swimming and picnicking at its best.
