Passes Friday At Home In Prentiss Section

John Reynolds Ledford, 87, well known citizen and farmer of the Prentiss section, died late last Friday night at his home following an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Ledford was born on May 7, 1852. He was a member of the Union Methodist church. On September 15, 1874, he was married to Miss Rachel Cornelia Ledford, of this county.

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Union Methodist church on the Georgia road. The Rev. J. C. Swain, pastor, was in charge of the services. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Charles, Alex, Monroe, Carl and William Ledford and George Byrd.

Surviving are one daughter, Miss Eliza Marina Ledford, and George Hanson Ledford, both of the Prentiss community, 10 grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren.

Vacation Bible School Held At Iotla Church

The churches of the Franklin circuit held a daily vacation Bible school at the Iotla church June 14 to 25. The school was in the nature of a demonstration school for training workers to lead in carrying on this work.

There were 25 leaders and 35 children taking part in the school. On Friday, June 16, representatives from the board of education of the Western North Carolina conference of the Methodist church came and made moving pictures of the school in action. These pictures will, in combination with others, be shown over the conference in promoting such work.

The school closed with a picnic for the children and workers at Arrowood Glade Thursday, June 22, and commencement exercises at the Iotla church Sunday, June 25.

The school was under the direction of Miss Mattie McNinch of Charlotte. Miss McNinch is a worker in the First Methodist church of Charlotte and is said to be one of the most capable workers in the field of children's work throughout Methodism in North Carolina.

The following workers helped with the school:

Miss Jessie Mae Barnard, Mrs. Clyde Clark, Joe Dalton, Mrs. Joe Dalton, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. Leonard Horn, Leo Hurst, Miss Elizabeth Meadows, Mrs. Robert Morgan, Jake Myers, Mrs. John Grady Owens, Mrs. Fred Palmer, Mrs. Pritchard Peek, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ramsey, Mrs. John Ray, Miss Frances Robinson, Miss Jennie Scott, Mrs. Leon Sloan, Miss Irene Sloan, Clyde West, J. L. West, Jr.

Agricultural Students To Meet Saturday

A meeting of the agricultural students of Franklin high school will be held next Saturday, July 1, at the high school building, according to an announcement received from E. J. Whitmire, vocational teacher.

The meeting will be held at 2 p. m., and all the boys are urged to attend as delegates to the state convention will be elected at that time.

C. C. Jones

Dies Sunday Night After Long Illness

Christopher Columbus Jones, 73, died at the home of Mrs. Cora Potts at West's Mill Sunday night about 12 o'clock following an illness of several months. Death was caused by Bright's disease.

Mr. Jones was a farmer and was born at West's Mill where he spent his entire life. He was a good citizen and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

He is survived by one cousin, W. L. Jones, of Flats.

Funeral services were held at the Cowee Baptist church Monday morning at 11 o'clock, with the Rev. R. F. Mayberry, pastor, and the Rev. W. L. Bradley in charge. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Early Bradley, J. A. Clark, Robert Rickman, Frank Roper, Leo Hurst and Ed H. Parish.

Cliffside Lake Open For Swimming July 1

Cliffside Lake will be opened for swimming to the public commencing Saturday, July 1. All developments on the area have been completed. Life guards will be available at the beach at all times while swimming is permitted and the bathhouse will be available for use. White river sand has been hauled in for the beach and has added considerably to the attractiveness of the entire area. A spacious beach area has been laid out covered with the sand. Playground facilities, such as a water slide and swings, are available. A concrete diving platform has been completed and is ready for use, and two diving boards have been erected on it.

Large crowds are expected over the 4th of July holiday and many picnic parties are planned for the area. An ideal combination is a swimming party and picnic at Cliffside Lake.

This entire area is to be opened on July 22 at a general celebration to be held at the lake. Swimming contests are to be held at this time and various other outdoor events.
