GARDEN CLUB MEETS AT ARROWOOD

Mrs. Charles Melichar and Mrs. Zeb W. Conley were hostesses to the Franklin Garden Club on Monday afternoon at Arrowood for the regular monthly business meeting, with approximately 20 members present.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Melichar, president. Following the reports from the different committees and the secretary's report, a discussion was held on the flower show, how the flowers should be arranged, judged and entered, and a committee composed of Mrs. Frank Higdon, chairman; Mrs. W. A. Rogers, Mrs. Herbert E. Church, Mrs. John M. Archer and Miss Mary Willis, was appointed to make the rules and by-laws. These should include the number of entries of one person in the show and how the flowers should be arranged and judged.

Mrs. James L. Averell read a very interesting paper on the "Legend of Standing Indian." She also read an article about Joyce Kilmer, poet, and author of the poem "Trees," who was a World War hero, killed in action in France on July 30, 1918, at the age of 31.

This Memorial Forest located in Graham county, was dedicated July 30, 1936, on the 18th anniversary of the fatal day in France when Joyce Kilmer was killed. Mrs. Averell also sang "Trees" at the closing of the program.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments consisting of cake, sandwiches, punch, and water-melons.

SCHOOL TO OPEN ON WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 6

According to an announcement by Prof. O. F. Sumner, the Highlands school will open Wednesday, September 6, a week later than the rest of the county schools, due to the fact that many of the school patrons and children will be busy through Labor Day week-end.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A two weeks' daily vacation Bible school will begin at the Presbyterian church next Monday, August 14, under the direction of Mr. Hubert Wardlaw, Bible school director for Asheville Presbytery. The ages of the pupils in this school will range from four to 18 years, and classes will be from 9 o'clock a. m. to 11 o'clock a. m. Other churches in Highlands are cooperating in the work of this school.

HIGHLANDS LOSES TO DILLARD SUNDAY

In a seven-inning game last Sunday, Highlands was defeated with a score of 10 to 7 by the Dillard, Ga., team on the home field. Highlands is scheduled to play the Anderson, S. C., strong Equinox team here next Sunday afternoon, and a close game is predicted.

B. Y. P. U. ACTIVITIES BY MILDRED LITTLETON

Sarah Walden lead the opening prayer in the Sunday night program. The subject of the lesson was "A Passion for Souls." Carleton Cleaveland and Sarah Walden gave interesting talks on "The Passion of a Consecrated Cross Bearer," and "The Passion of an Authoritative Ambassador."

The Bible Quiz leader, Sarah Walden, asked questions on the daily Bible readings for the past week. A prize is being offered to the one that answers the most questions in two months. After the Quiz, the program was turned over to Guy Paul, Jr., the director, who lead the Unions in a song service for the general assembly program.

NOTED SINGERS VISIT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Visiting singers at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning were Ben and James Mann of Asheville. Although only 19 and 16 years of age, these young men possess remarkable voices, and have taken part in a number of college operas as well as radio programs. The morning worship service included a four-point sermon, interspersed with musical numbers by the Messrs. Mann and a special number by the choir. Ben and James sing in a concert at Montreat next Saturday.

GREENE SUMMER HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire thought to have been caused by a spark from the kitchen flue destroyed the W. F. Greene summer home on Fifth street Friday evening about 7 o'clock. Voluntary firemen succeeded in removing a few articles of furniture from the burning building. Mr. Greene, owner of the home, lives in Birmingham, Ala., and the place has been occupied this summer by the J. D. Hammett family of Honea Path, S. C., who were at home at the time of the fire. Partial insurance was carried through the Frank B. Cook insurance agency here.

Highlands has a splendid fire record, this being the first total fire loss inside the city limits in six years.

ROACH-ALEXANDER

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Christine Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Roach, of Tollywood, to John Alexander of Highlands. The ceremony took place in Clayton, Ga., July 16, in the presence of two friends of the couple, Miss Lillian Gregg and Joe Baty. Mr. Alexander is employed by the Sinclair Refining company and the couple will make their home here.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

At the annual meeting of the Hudson Library Association Thursday, August 3, at the home of Miss Mary J. Crosby, Miss M. A. Ravenel was re-elected president, Miss Albertina Staub and Miss Mary J. Crosby, vice-presidents; Miss Dorothea Harbison, treasurer, and Miss Cora Miltimore, secretary. Miss Miltimore was for a long term of years head librarian at the University of Florida, at Gainesville. She succeeded Miss Rebecca Nall, who resigned after eight consecutive years as secretary.

Mrs. S. T. Maret's resignation as vice-president was regrettably accepted. Mrs. Maret has been connected with the library for the past 16 years, first as librarian, and later serving as vice-president for a number of years. The board of trustees is composed of Miss M. D. Warren, Mrs. Potts, Mrs. J. A. Hines, and Mrs. Arthur L. Bliss. Mrs. Bliss succeeds Miss Albertina Staub, who asked to be relieved of her duties as trustee, but who, giving up her trusteeship, was elected vice-president.

After the election of officers the Association entered into a general discussion of plans for the year. Mr. and Mrs. Bliss gave a library table for the children, as well as a number of children's books. At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. After the refreshments the trustees met in executive session and appointed Miss Gertrude Harbison to serve as librarian for another year. Miss Harbison has served very efficiently in this capacity for the past several years.

SATURDAY'S CHILDREN HAS NOTABLE CAST

The cast of Saturday's Children in a matinee showing here Monday, August 14, brings together the very pick of the Barter Theatre company. Edith Sumner, who plays the leading role will be remembered as the winner of the Laurette Taylor award in competitive auditions against nearly a hundred other ambitious actors. In this play she has a wonderful opportunity to play a role that is young and sympathetic and for which she is entirely suited. Otis Morse, the male lead, will be welcomed in all his parts. The other excellent performers are Betty Miller, Paul Gene, Jean Hazelwood and Larry Gates.

The purpose of the recently organized Highlands Little Theatre in bringing this show here is to stimulate interest in their own first play, Dulcy, which they are presenting August 29, and to show what this Little Theatre hopes to grow into.

REV. R. B. DUPREE HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

A delightful event of last Friday evening was the surprise birthday dinner given at the manse by Mrs. DuPree, honoring her husband, the Rev. R. B. DuPree, on his 28th birthday anniversary. An attractive color scheme of green and white was used in the dining room, and centering the beautifully appointed table was a large white birthday cake, topped with 28 candles.

Enjoying the occasion with Rev. and Mrs. DuPree were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gaines, Miss Lucy Gray and Elmer Crawford, of Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney McCarty, Mrs. Margaret DuPree and W. B. Hickman.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clay of Miami, Fla., are guests at Highlands Manor. Mr. Clay is Sports Editor of Miami Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill, and their two sons of Atlanta, arrived Sunday and are occupying Mrs. E. L. Billstein's summer home on East Main street. Mrs. Billstein will be with Miss Rebecca Nall during their occupancy of her home.

Dr. John Cook, Doctor of Philosophy at Cambridge college, Cambridge, England, was a recent guest at the Potts House. Dr. Cook, who is making a tour of America, and getting impressions of American people, was very favorably impressed with Highlands and the "congenial, splendid people" he met while here.

Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Schillinger of Atlanta are guests at Tricemont Terrace. Dr. Schillinger is head physician at the United States Veteran hospital. Mr. and Mrs. G. P. McCord of Tallahassee, Fla., are also guests at Tricemont. Mr. McCord is clerk of the supreme court.

An order by a nation-wide grocery chain for 2,500,000 flour bags was hailed recently by the Cotton Textile Institute as a "major victory" in a campaign to boost the home consumption of American cotton.
