Farm Tours Held; Best Farmers Selected

Recently a number of demonstration farm tours were held in Macon county. These tours were conducted by townships and at the end of each tour the farmers who attended selected the best demonstration farmer in each township. The farmers thus selected were as follows: Millshoal township, J. E. Taylor; Elijah, J. L. Clark; Smith-bridge, Bob Wiggins; Flats, H. C. Miller; Cartoogechaye, Charles Southards; Burningtown, J. R. Ramsey; Cowee, J. R. Hollbrooks; Sugarfork, C. W. Henderson; Highlands, R. J. Cobb; and Franklin, Wiley B. Brown.

Upon completion of these township tours, a county demonstration farm tour was held. The best demonstration farm in each township was visited and J. E. Taylor of Millshoal township was selected as the best demonstration farmer in the county. The average attendance of each township tour was 16 farmers, with a total of 54 being present for the county tour.

Farmers attending the tours expressed much surprise and were very complimentary to the type of farming that the demonstration farmers are doing in connection with the farm management program. Very good results were noted on the various farms from the use of lime and phosphate on pastures and legume crops. Also some very good livestock and various other farm practices were viewed with much interest.

A campaign has been started among Polk county farmers, in which they will be asked to plant five pounds of crimson clover on their pastures this fall.
