HALL-GUY

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hall, of Etna, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Marie Hall to Paul Guy, also of Etna, with the wedding ceremony being performed in Clayton, Ga., on Saturday, August 20.

Mrs. Guy was attired in a lovely dress of blue with accessories in matching color.

Mr. Guy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Furman Guy, of Etna, and is a prominent young farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy will make their home at Etna.

U. D. C. HELD INTERESTING MEETING MONDAY

The Macon county chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, meeting last Monday afternoon, voted to request the North Carolina Historical Commission to place highway markers to point out the location of the Franklin Indian mound, and also the ford of the old Indian trail, near the bridge over the Little Tennessee, where DeSoto crossed with his men in 1540.

Action was also taken to provide for the care of the lawn surrounding the Confederate monument on Main street.

An account of the founding of the national organization and of its work and purposes was read by Mrs. H. E. Church in commemoration of Founders Day, September 10, 1894.

Mrs. Carl S. Slagle was appointed delegate to the annual state convention in Asheville in October.

A social hour was enjoyed after the business meeting. Mrs. Thos. J. Johnston and Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson were hostesses.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. J. S. SLOAN

The Franklin Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. J. S. Sloan in East Franklin on Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Sam L. Rogers as assisting hostess.

Mrs. Charles Melichar, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. Harve L. Bryant was appointed as secretary in the absence of Mrs. James L. Averell.

A round table discussion was held on the rules and plans for the next flower show, so that the planting of the flowers may be so arranged and planned to make it one of the best shows ever held. It is also hoped that this will stimulate the interest of the flower growers throughout the county, thus making a more general distribution of prizes to a wider range of flower growers.

To the non-club members, a small entry fee of 10 cents will be charged on all entries.

The flowers to be entered will include: Roses, best bowl or vase, one specimen; roses, two or more varieties; marigolds; snap dragons; large dahlias, small dahlias; nasturtiums, phlox, lilies, gallardias, large zinnias, small zinnias, mixed zinnias, three or more varieties; gladioli, miscellaneous varieties of zinnias, twin vases, miniature arrangements, fireside arrangements, dinner table centerpieces, corsages, wild flower arrangements, miscellaneous bowl and vase arrangement, best senior project, best junior project, blooming potted plants, foliage potted plants, sweepstakes, most perfect flower, console, breakfast and coffee tables.

Mrs. Melichar reported the progress made toward the erection of the new community building which has been under discussion for several months.

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. S. Thorpe at Cashiers, with Mrs. Herbert E. Church.

Lovely refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Walnut Creek Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. instead of 2 p. m.

How many Sunday schools and churches of Macon will pray earnestly for peace next Sunday? Christ is the Prince of Peace. If we are his followers let us show it by our works. How many petitions will be drawn up and signed by people, (men, women and children) and sent to our congressmen at Washington asking them to do all they can to keep the United States out of war? Work and pray for peace, the gift of God.

Clyde Moses has returned from the Peek Hospital at Six Mile, S. C., where he underwent an operation several days ago.
