MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

SHEARER-McGLAMERY

A wedding of interest in Western North Carolina, was that of Miss Frances Shearer of Umatilla, Fla., to Bennie Lee McGlamery, of Franklin, which was solemnized on Monday morning, September 4, at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Huggins on North Eighteenth street. Dr. James M. Howard, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by Dr. Huggins, and Mrs. Huggins was matron of honor. Neil McGlamery, of Murphy, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The wedding took place before an improvised altar. Coral vine and palm fronds were arranged in a large wall niche, with two tall floor baskets of gladioli and tuberoses being placed at each side. The coral vine, roses and gladioli were also placed at intervals about the rooms.

The bride wore a royal blue crepe frock, the skirt of which had a bustle effect. A sleeveless bolero trimmed with soutach braid in matching color was worn over the high neckline waist. Her veiled hat and other accessories were of navy blue, and she wore a shoulder corsage of bride's roses and tuberoses.

Mrs. Huggins wore a peasant type dress, the full graceful skirt being in navy with a blouse of royal blue with white coin dots. With this she wore a red leather belt and had navy accessories. Her flowers were talisman roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. On a lace-covered table was a crystal bowl of fruit punch that was served by Mrs. W. P. McCormie. Mrs. Harvey A. Zaver presided at the bride's cake, which was a tiered effect topped with a miniature bridal couple. Miss Mary Griffin was at the bride's book, where friends registered.

Later Mr. and Mrs. McGlamery left for a motor trip through Florida and the Carolinas. For traveling, Mrs. McGlamery wore a tailored dress in teal blue with navy accessories.

Mrs. McGlamery is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shearer, of Fellsmere, Fla. She attended local schools and was graduated with the class of 1936 from St. Lucie county high school. She attended the Western Union Training school in Bloomfield, N. J., and for the past three years has been manager of the Western Union office in Umatilla, Fla.

Mr. McGlamery is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. McGlamery, of Asheville. He attended the Anthony Wayne School of Commerce in Fort Wayne, Ind., and is connected with the Nantabala Power and Light company of Franklin. He is a member of the Masonic lodge and holds the office of worthy patron in the Order of Eastern Star chapter in Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. McGlamery are residing in the Wright apartments on West Main street in Franklin.

OLIVER-DERISO

Mrs. Roy Mashburn, of Franklin Route 1, has announced the marriage of her sister, Miss Amelia Oliver, of Franklin Route 3, to Wilbur Deriso, of Americus, Ga.

The wedding ceremony was performed in Clayton, Ga., on Sunday, August 20, with Judge R. C. Ramey, officiating. Only a few close friends were in attendance.

The bride was dressed in a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories. She is the daughter of Bert Oliver and the late Bertha Fouts Oliver.

Mr. Deriso, has been stationed in the CCC camp at Aquone for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Deriso left immediately following the ceremony for Americus on a two weeks' wedding trip.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MRS. WILBUR DERISO

Miss Nettie Hurst entertained with a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday afternoon at her home, "Woodhurst Farm," on Franklin Route 3, honoring Mrs. Wilbur Deriso, the former Miss Amelia Oliver.

The Hurst home was attractively arranged with quantities of summer flowers.

About 50 guests of the honoree called during the afternoon, leaving many lovely and useful gifts, consisting of linens, pottery, dishes, cooking utensils and quilts.

Miss Hurst, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Roy Mashburn, a sister of the bride, served delicious punch and cookies to the guests.
