S. S. Convention To Meet At Oak Dale Sunday

The Sunday school convention of the Macon County Baptist churches will meet on Sunday, October 22, with the Oak Dale Baptist church on Upper Burningtown. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock, it has been announced by Paul Swafford, president.

The program will open with a song by the congregation, followed by the roll call and reports from the various churches in the county. A talk will be made by Mrs. Sam Gibson, of Iola, using for her theme, "State Missions in Sunday School." J. Horner Stockton, of Franklin, will lead the open discussion on "Sunday School Problems." The Rev. R. W. Williams will be the principal speaker for the afternoon.

The churches throughout the county are urged to send a large representation of members. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Franklin Teachers Hear Dr. Carl Killian

Dr. Carl Killian, of Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee, talked to the teachers of the Franklin high school Friday afternoon at the high school building on the subject of guidance.

The speaker outlined for the group the program in guidance which is being carried out under his direction in a number of high schools in Western North Carolina. The program consists of the administration of tests and the accumulation of various types of data on several thousand high school seniors in order that they may be counseled wisely in choosing a vocation and in many other types of problems.

According to the principal of Franklin high school, W. H. Finley, one period every other week will be devoted to the high school classes to the study and discussion of problems in guidance.

Baptists To Conduct Loyalty Crusade

Twenty-seven groups, with three workers in each group will lead the Baptist church in a "Church Loyalty Crusade," the object of which will be to seek for ten weeks, or from October 29 through December 31, to enlist every member of the church to attend the worship services as far as possible, both morning and night each Sunday.

The pastor, Rev. C. F. Rogers, will preach a special series of sermons these ten Sunday mornings on the "Calling and Responsibility of a Christian," and each Sunday night on "The Lord's Prayer," using a portion for each sermon through the ten Sunday nights of the Crusade.

Every resident member will be visited and urged to make his or group to reach the 100 per cent mark as often as possible and no member will be overlooked in the effort of increasing church loyalty.

The public will be welcome to attend all of these special services as we come to the close of this year, 1939.

"What kind of a church would my church be if every member were just like me?"

The pastor will preach Sunday at 11 o'clock on the theme "The Four Natures in Man as Manifested in Jesus," Lu. 2:52, and following the evening message at 7:30 the ordinance of baptism will take place.

S. Marion Justice Visits Franklin School

S. Marion Justice, of the state vocational guidance division of instructional service, visited the Franklin school on Wednesday. After addressing the student body, Mr. Justice presented a guidance program to the senior class.

Stating that the average U. S. citizen ranks about eight grade in his education, the speaker cited the advantages of a thorough education in preparing for any kind of employment, pointing out that of the approximately 20,000 types of work open to youth today, only six to eight per cent are "white collar" jobs. Poor use of English was found to be characteristic of the average American, in spite of all the school and college facilities available, and one of the most common drawbacks to securing a good position.

Former Home Town Of M. Blumenthal Bombed

M. Blumenthal, Franklin merchant, is a native of Bialystok, Poland, a city about 75 miles northeast of Warsaw, which was bombed by the Germans a few weeks ago.

Mr. Blumenthal, who came to this country 32 years ago, has a married sister in Bialystok whose fate he has not yet learned.

SUICIDE IN LOUISIANA SCANDAL

Suicide ended the life of Lawrence Merrigan, former internal review collector, when two grand juries returned 14 more indictments against former Gov. Leche and others involved in Louisiana Huey Long machine scandals of embezzlement, using mail to defraud, hot oil, income tax evasions and other violations.

BEAL AT DIES HEARING

Fred Erwin Beal, Communist organizer of the Gastonia 1929 textile strike, serving a prison term for the murder of Chief-of-Police Aderholt, testified before the Dies committee yesterday. He told the whole story of his convicting, flight to Russia, false passport, false lectures to Russian peasants and disillusionment, his return to the United States to serve a prison term in preference to living in Russia.

LINER HIT BY HURRICANE

The President Harding, carrying 579 passengers, bound for home, 300 miles south of Newfoundland, was struck by a hurricane that caused injury of 73 and loss of one member of the crew. Aboard were 330 Americans and 36 survivors of the British freighter-Heronspool, torpedoed off the Irish coast six days ago. War conditions were responsible for the disaster, through disruption of international weather reports.

SCANDINAVIAN CONFERENCE

A throng of 100,000 greeted the kings of Denmark, Norway and Sweden and the president of Finland when they gathered on the balcony of the royal palace in Stockholm. They are meeting to discuss the preservation of their solidarity and neutrality in Europe's war. Stockholm's papers carried an appeal to the northern states to make the meeting a starting point for a general European peace move.

The gathering received messages from 21 American republics, including the United States, expressing support of the principles of neutrality.
