

Funeral Held Sunday For Miss Henrietta Lewis

Final rites for Miss Henrietta Georgia Lewis, 77, were held on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of her nephew, Ted Gillespie two miles west of Franklin on the Murphy road. The Rev. J. C. Swain, pastor of the Macon circuit, was in charge of the services. Interment was in the Franklin cemetery.

Miss Lewis, who had been in ill health for the past two years, died on Saturday morning at 5 o'clock. She was the daughter of the late Thomas and Althea Lewis. She was born November 5, 1862, and was a life-long resident of Macon county.

The pallbearers were: Ernest Wallace, Chuck Leatherwood, Henry Waldrop, George McGee, Clifford Dowdle and Gilmer Waldrop.

Surviving are one son, James P. Lewis, of Oregon; one sister, Mrs. Charlie Reece, of Franklin; one brother, John Lewis, of Canton; and a large connection of close relatives.

Union School Library Given 71 Volumes

Mrs. W. L. Corbin of Union school reports that the school has received a gift of 71 books, including an encyclopedia and dictionary, from Mrs. Angie W. Cox, Walworth, Wis. This is another example of Mrs. Cox' benefactions to the libraries of Macon county, and the generous donation is acknowledged with appreciation.

Horse Shoe Bend

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Edger Oliver to Miss Margaret Tice, both of the Iotla section. The marriage ceremony took place in Clayton, Ga., on Sunday, September 3.

Mr. Oliver is the son of Mr. Bert Oliver, while Mrs. Oliver is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Tice.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver are making their home at Iotla.

J. K. Conley and family are moving from the Iotla section to Cullasaja. We are very sorry that they are leaving our community.

The guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hall Sunday, November 5 were, Charlie, Lucy, Werner Hall, and Hubert Henderson, all of Lake Toxaway, and Mr. and Mrs. James Watts, of Franklin.

Mrs. Harley Reynolds has been very ill for the past few months. We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. J. B. Collins is very ill.

Mrs. DeWeese

Passes At Iotla Saturday Afternoon

Mrs. Margaret Lucinda DeWeese, 61, died at her home in the Iotla section Saturday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock from a sudden heart attack. She was apparently in good health and was preparing supper for the family when she was stricken. She was found dead on the floor by one of her sons when he returned from doing his evening chores.

Mrs. DeWeese was a member of the Iotla Baptist church. She was the former Miss Margaret Lucinda Wilkes and 42 years ago was married to Joseph Manuel DeWeese, who died on July 11, 1939.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the Iotla Baptist church. The Rev. R. F. Mayberry, pastor, assisted by the Rev. Robert L. Poinexter, a Methodist minister of the Iotla community, were in charge of the services. Interment was in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were: John Campbell, Gene Tallent, Algie Guyer, Joe Tallent, Coleman Campbell, and Howard Willis.

Surviving are eight children: Mrs. Norman Evans, Mrs. Clyde Hughes, Weymer, Charlotte, and Cornell DeWeese, of Franklin, Route 3, Mrs. Fred Evans, of Enka, Malcolm DeWeese and Mrs. George Moore, of Belmont; one sister, Mrs. Rachel Willis, of Franklin Route 3; two brothers, J. F. Wilkes, of Franklin Route 3, and W. C. Wilkes, of Franklin, and 17 grandchildren.

J. M. Underwood, 75, Dies Friday Night

James M. Underwood, 75, died after an illness of two months at his home in the Mulberry section on Friday night. A native of Georgia, he moved to Macon county two years ago. He was a farmer and a blacksmith.

Surviving are seven daughters: Mrs. Doris Birch, Mrs. Ida Anderson, and Mrs. Mary Murphy, all of Georgia; Mrs. Sally Bryson and Mrs. Flora Bryson, of Jackson county; Mrs. Georgia Franks, of Transylvania county, and Mrs. Bradshaw, of Macon county; and four sons, Vance of Jackson county; Wayne and Elijah of Macon county, and Sherman of Georgia.

Funeral services were held at the Mulberry Baptist church at 10 o'clock Sunday morning with the Rev. J. I. Vinson officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

ADDITIONAL FRANKLIN SOCIAL ITEMS

ZACHARY-CLARK

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Zachary, of Franklin, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Annie Ruth Zachary, of Franklin, to Arnold Clark, of West's Mill.

The wedding ceremony was solemnized in Clayton, Ga., on Sunday, October 15, with R. C. Ramey, probate judge, officiating.

Mrs. Clark was attired in a beautiful Royal blue knit suit with matching accessories.

Mr. Clark is the son of D. L. Clark and the late Mrs. Clark, of West's Mill, and has been employed by the Mineral Products company in Franklin for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark are now residing in Franklin.

Baptist Church Items

"Church Loyalty Crusade" continues in interest in the Baptist church. Nearly two-thirds of the resident membership of the church attended at least one service on last Sunday, and over one-half the resident members attended both morning and night services.

Sunday, the pastor, Rev. C. F. Rogers, will preach his fourth series in this Crusade, at 11 a. m. on "The Christian and His Bible" and at 7:30 p. m., a portion of the Lord's Prayer—"Thy Will Be Done on Earth as it is in Heaven."

Bible school meets at 9:45 a. m. and Brotherhood and B. T. U. at 6:30 p. m.

Baptist state convention convenes in Winston-Salem next week, Tuesday through Thursday, in First Baptist church.

Missionary meetings will be held next week at their usual time and places.

Numbers of our members are donating Baptist hymnals to the church and thus assisting the church in purchasing new hymn books. Others who desire to do so, or to purchase for their home use, may notify the pastor or finance committee by Sunday, as we hope to secure them soon. The price is 75 cents each.

Warning Given To Campers And Hunters

Owing to the extreme dryness of the forest, all persons are warned not to throw down lighted matches or cigarette stubs or to knock the ashes from pipes while in the woods or fields. Also be sure to have a permit from the land owner before building a campfire, and be sure it is a legal campfire.

According to North Carolina law, "any person who shall kindle a campfire or shall authorize another to kindle such fire, unless all combustible materials for the space of 10 feet surrounding the place where such fire is kindled has been removed, or shall leave a campfire without fully extinguishing it, or in any manner whatever start any fire upon any grass-land, brushland or woodland, without fully extinguishing the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days.—Sec. 4311 Consolidated Statutes.

Otto

By JOSEPHINE BRADLEY

Miss Roberta Henson entertained a group of her friends Saturday night, November 11, at her home. Those present were: Bernice and Roberta McDowell, Josephine and Lottis Bradley, Edith Cunningham, Ruth Cabe, Margaret Corbin, Edna Ramey, Blanche Keener, Hazel Seagle, Joe Keener, Nat Bloom, Max Parrish, Robert Cunningham, J. B. Brock, Alex Wood-en, Don Cabe, Junior McDowell, Perry Corbin, Jr., and Gilmer Henson. At the end of the evening delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those visiting Miss Louise Holden recently were John Henry Hyatt, of McCormick, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Slotton and Rev. W. A. Salson, of Anderson, S. C.

The H. D. C. met November 13 at the Otto schoolhouse. There were 14 members present. Also the Ladies' Aid met Saturday, November 11, at the schoolhouse.

Bethel

The Woman's Missionary Society met with Mrs. Boise Hall last Thursday. A large crowd was present and officers were elected for the coming year.

Mrs. Jerry Love, who has been confined to her bed with influenza, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Boise Hall spent the week-end in Canton visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. H. S. Williams will fill his appointment at Bethel Sunday night, November 19.

We are glad to report Charlie Fulton has returned home after receiving treatment at Angel hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Henderson have completed their new home at Cullasaja.

As the World Turns

(Continued From Page One)

ton that President Roosevelt will go to Asheville on November 28, on his return trip from Warm Springs, to visit his secretary, Marvin McIntyre, who has been ill nearly a year, it was announced at the white house today.

ARMISTICE DAY

The 21st anniversary of the end of the World War was celebrated on November 11, chiefly with prayer services throughout the nation. President Roosevelt, attended the wreath-laying ceremony at the unknown soldier's grave at Arlington.

GAMBLING RACKET ENDED

Millionaire Publisher Annenberg has announced that he would "voluntarily" discontinue his illegal racing news wire service to gambling houses all over the United States.

This was "a clear cut victory for the department of justice" in ending "the biggest racket in the country."

KUHN CASE

The trial of Fritz Kuhn, German Bund leader in New York, for embezzlement of Bund funds continues with evidence to show that his business affairs are sadly mixed with affairs of the heart. His defense claims he is "fincher" of the Bund and can spend the money as he desires.

AL CAPONE FREE

Al Capone, No. 1 racketeer of the 20's, will be released from prison Sunday after serving seven and a half years of an 11-year sentence for tax evasion.

Suffering from mental and physical disease, the place of his release will be kept secret by government officials.

SMITH SENTENCED IN LOUISIANA COURT

Dr. James Monroe Smith, former President of L. S. U., pleaded guilty to three charges of forgery and of obtaining money under false pretenses, and received sentences this week stretching 8 to 24 years in the Louisiana penitentiary. This is in addition to sentences in federal court.

FATAL BLAZE IN S. A.

More than 1,000 people were burned to death in Venezuela Tuesday when their homes, built on stilts over an oil coated lake, caught fire from the blazing oil. Red Cross, Boy Scouts and Rotary Club took care of survivors.

FOREST FIRES

Major forest fires in the Asheville area threatened Craggy Gardens this week as federal and state forest services threw hundreds of men into the fight.

The drought, in its seventh week, continued.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us through the illness and death of our husband and father, also for the beautiful floral offering.

MRS. JOSEPH MORGAN AND FAMILY.

Classified Advertisements

FOR RENT — Furnished and heated bedroom on Harrison avenue. Close in. Apply Press Office.

FOR RENT—J. E. Lancaster home place on Riverview street. For information, see H. W. Cabe, at Bank of Franklin. 2tp

FOR RENT—House on Riverview street. For particulars write Mrs. Moody Bolick, 5619 4th St., South Arlington, Va. N9—2tp—N16

FOR RENT — The house on Palmer street, known as the J. R. Pendergrass place.—O. C. Bryant S14—1fc

WILL PAY STRAIGHT SALARY $35.00 per week, man or woman with auto, sell Egg Producer to Farmers. Eureka Mfg. Co., East St. Louis, Ill. 1tp

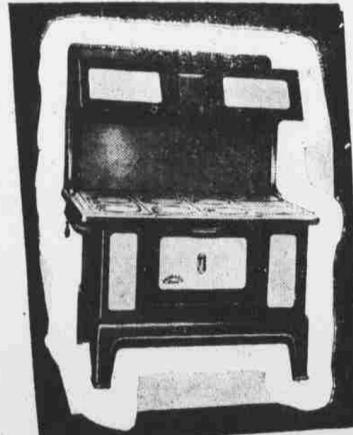

FOR SALE—Flowers for any occasion. Prompt service. Prices very reasonable.—Sylvia Flower Shop, Mrs. Painter, Prop., Phone 6, Sylva, N. C. O12—1fc

FOR SALE — Farmall-12, with plow, disk, cultivating tools and eight foot mowing equipment, $650. Used for one season.—Jack H. Wilcox, Billy Cabin Farm, Highlands, N. C. 2tp

BARGAINS!

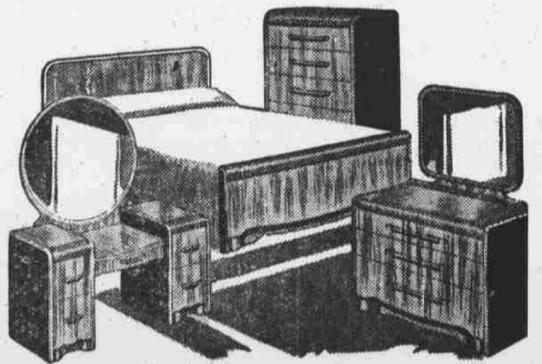

New and good used watches—any make. Grover Jamison, Jeweler. N9—4tc—N30

Pre-Holiday Specials In Household Furnishings

SET OF DISHES GIVEN FREE WITH EACH RANGE

Our store is packed with fine furniture, everything from odd pieces to complete furnishings for your home. We invite you to come in and inspect our stock, and let us explain how easy it is for you to buy your needs here on our liberal credit plan. Think of furniture as gifts for Christmas. Nothing could be more appropriate, besides the convenience of the credit we offer you and also the FREE merchandise we are giving. Come in and "bargain" with us—we like to "trade".

9x12 LINOLEUM RUG GIVEN FREE WITH EACH BEDROOM SUITE

During the past months we have given away free hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise and at the same time have given our customers the advantage of tremendous savings in every article bought from us. We were fortunate in having on hand a large stock of furniture, which we bought before there was any advance in prices, and we are saving you money on every article bought from us while we are running these specials. Prices are still advancing in the market, but we are offering goods bought at OLD prices, and giving our customers the savings.

SET OF DISHES OR RUG FREE WITH EACH RANGE	TABLE OR RUG FREE WITH EACH Living Room Suite	ONE TABLE FREE WITH EACH RCA Victor Radio	SET OF DISHES OR RUG FREE WITH EACH KITCHEN CABINET	TABLE OR RUG FREE WITH EACH STUDIO COUCH	9x12 Linoleum Rug FREE WITH EACH BEDROOM SUITE
--	--	--	--	---	---

Macon Furniture Company, Inc.

Your Credit is Good With Us

Phone 158

Franklin, N. C.