As the World Turns

vult and some of his recent callers at Warm Springs Tuesday.

A number of persons who have seen Mr. Roosevelt lately, it was learned, have recommended that the conventions, ordinarily held in June, be deferred for a month or a month and a half. The main reason advanced was economy for both parties.

HOPES FOR END TO CHRYSLER ROW

Hopes for an early settlement of the labor dispute that has tied up Chrysler car and truck production for nearly eight weeks rose Wednesday as three outstanding figures in the controversy met privately to discuss "basic issues."

KUHN CASE NEARING END

Judge James G. Wallace charged jurors Tuesday who will decide whether Bundfuehrer, Fritz Kuhn is guilty of three counts of larceny and two of forgery. Prosecutor McCarty warned them not to lean over backwards on false notions of Americanism to acquit the defendant even though they believe him guilty. "Americanism is not on trial here," he said, "Fritz Kuhn is on trial as a thief."

STATE BAPTIST CONVENTION

The N. C. Baptist state convention, meeting in Winston-Salem

last week, reelected R. N. Simms, of Raleigh, president. The convention served notice of a campaign on legalized liquor, and wired a message of support for President Roosevelt's efforts for world peace.
