

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

CONLEY-REYNOLDS

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Conley, of Franklin Route 1, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rebecca Conley, to Dan R. Reynolds, of West's Mill, Macon county, and of Dee, Ore.

The wedding ceremony was performed on Monday, November 27, at 1:30 o'clock in Clayton, Ga., with R. C. Ramey, probate judge, officiating.

The bride was attired in a beautiful teal blue wool dress, with black accessories.

Mrs. Reynolds, who is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conley, is a graduate of the Franklin high school and of the Franklin commercial school.

Mr. Reynolds is the son of Mrs. Mamie Reynolds, of West's Mill. For the past two years he has been employed with the Oregon Lumber company in Dee, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were accompanied to Clayton by Mrs. Frank J. Murray and Mrs. Charlie Bradley, close relatives of the groom.

They are now making their home with the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zoellner, of Franklin Route 1.

GORDEN CLUB HOLDS MEETING AT ROCK HAVEN

Mrs. I. T. Peek, Mrs. Walter E. Furr and Mrs. A. R. Higdon were hostesses to the Franklin Garden club on Monday afternoon at Rock Haven, the home of Mrs. Peek, for its regular monthly business and social meeting. There were approximately 25 members present.

The Peek home was artistically decorated with yuletide wreaths, candles and bells, a lighted Christmas tree and the Nativity scene in the huge fireplace. The dining room table and the buffet were decorated with snow scenes and greenery, furthering the yuletide festivities.

Mrs. Charles Melichar, president, presided over the business session. Following the reading of the minutes, the roll call and the secretary's report, a committee consisting of Mrs. A. R. Higdon, chairman; Mrs. R. M. Kimmmer, Mrs. J. S. Sloan and Mrs. W. A. Rogers, was appointed to contact the various clubs and organizations in Franklin and Macon county to formulate financial plans for the community building that is being planned.

A round table discussion was held on the bookmobile for Macon county, but was tabled for further discussion.

Mrs. Ben W. Woodruff spoke on the "Christmas Decorations, the Tree, House and Table," giving many simple as well as elaborate suggestions on the yuletide decorations.

Mrs. I. T. Peek was winner of the prize for having the nicest wrapped package in the Christmas wrapping contest.

The January meeting will be held with Mrs. R. M. Kimmmer and Mrs. Frank Higdon, at the home of the former on Bidwell street. Mrs. Frank Killian will have charge of the program and will use for her topic "Window Gardens."

The hostesses served a salad and sweet course consisting of grape juice, chicken salad, cranberry sauce, cheese straws, star and Christmas tree shaped sandwiches, and gingerbread Santa Claus fruit cake.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET MONDAY

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Monday evening, December 11, at 7:30, in the American Legion Hall. All members are urged to be present.

U. D. C. TO MEET WITH MRS. CHURCH

The Macon County Chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy will meet on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Herbert E. Church, in the Orlando apartments on Harrison avenue, for the regular monthly meeting.

Each member is asked to bring a Christmas package which will be numbered and drawn by the members. All members are requested to attend.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR R. S. HALL, 87

Mrs. R. S. Hall, of Franklin Route 3, entertained with a dinner Sunday, honoring her husband on his 87th birthday anniversary.

A delicious picnic dinner was served and everyone present spent an enjoyable day.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Hall were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Myers; Mr. and Mrs. James Myers and son, Charles; Mr. and Mrs. James Watts, all of Franklin Route 3, and Mrs. Bryan Myers, of Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Bryan Myers, of Norfolk, Va., came in last week for a visit with Mr. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Myers, at their home on Franklin Route 3.

Mrs. Jess Oliver, who has been spending several months with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Campbell, has returned to her home in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Smith, of Manchester, Tenn., were among the visitors here Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank L. Henry, Jr., and son, Nick, of Cullowhee, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Henry's mother, Mrs. Eloise G. Franks, and other relatives.

James Coman, of Marshall, former state highway patrolman for Macon county, was among the visitors here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Greenwood, of Gainesville, Ga., spent the week-end here with their aunt, Miss Lassie Kelly, at the Kelly Tea Room.

Winton Perry, a student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perry, at their home on Harrison avenue.

J. B. Matlock, of West's Mill, who underwent an operation at Angel hospital for the removal of his appendix, was reported to be getting along nicely the first of the week.

J. C. Dalrymple, of Cartoogechaye, left Saturday for Raleigh, where he plans to spend some time with his daughter, Mrs. Smith and Mr. Smith.

Mrs. Charles Nargett and small daughter, of Davidson, spent the week-end with Mrs. Nargett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Guiffee, at their home at West's Mill.

Ed J. Carpenter attended the birthday banquet for Julian Price, president of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance company, at the Jefferson County Club in Greensboro last Friday night. Mr. Carpenter was one of the agents whose sales record entitled him to a trip to the meeting with all expenses paid. He reports a most enjoyable trip.

Harold Sloan, Jr., who is attending Brevard college, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sloan, Sr.

Miss Annie Slagle, of Cartoogechaye, has gone to Concord to spend several months with her niece, Mrs. C. R. Zachary and Mr. Zachary.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Justice have moved into the Ed Kinsland house on Franklin Route 4, the property which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chandler, of Tallulah Lodge, Ga., spent the latter part of the week visiting Mrs. Chandler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Thomas, at their home on Iola street.

Miss Margaret Franks, who is teaching school in Kannapolis, spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with her mother, Mrs. Eloise G. Franks.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Flanagan and two children, Ann and John, spent several days in Columbia, S. C., with relatives and friends last week.

Mrs. Chace Tatham, of Robbinsville, is spending this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGaha, at their home at West's Mill.

Miss Amy Harrison, who has been spending several weeks with Mrs. James Freeman in West Asheville, returned to her home on Harrison avenue Sunday.

Miss Nettie Hurst received a message telling of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ellis Hurst, of Outlook, Mont. She died November 30. Ellis Hurst is a native of Macon county and the son of the late Eb Hurst. Mr. and Mrs. Hurst visited here in 1934. Mrs. Hurst has many relatives and friends in Macon county who will regret to hear of her death.

Misses Lola and Jessie Ramsey and Miss Ruth Byrd spent Friday in Asheville.

Mrs. Henry T. Sharp, of Asheville, assistant area supervisor for WPA, has spent several days in town this week conferring with Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, local supervisor, in connection with the opening of the WPA sewing rooms in the Higdon building.

Miss Nettie Hurst spent Thanksgiving as the guest of Miss Katherine Anderson in Mars Hill.

Mrs. Grace Mangum, whose many friends always welcome her visits to her former home, spent the week-end in Franklin. Her brief visit was occasioned by the sale of her home on Bidwell street to Carl P. Cabe, who, with his family, will move in immediately. Mrs. Mangum was accompanied by her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Early, of Jacksonville, Fla., with whom she now resides.

A near record consumption of cotton by American mills during the last three months has been announced by the U. S. census bureau, says J. A. Shanklin, of State college.

No Dog Biscuit

Disaster almost came to Rolf, a German shepherd dog, when the Belgian government decreed that all large dogs must be destroyed to conserve food. However, Rolf was shipped hurriedly to a new home in New York—at a cost of $52. Rolf arrived with a "luggage left behind" label on his neck.

J. W. Sorrells Passes At West's Mill

J. W. Sorrells, 70, formerly of Asheville, died Wednesday evening, November 20, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of his son, J. C., at West's Mill, as a result of a stroke of apoplexy which he suffered on the previous Friday.

Mr. Sorrells, who made his home in Asheville for the greater part of his life, moved to Macon county to reside with his son three years ago. He was born at Marion, in McDowell county, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sorrells, of Yancey county. He joined the Boring Chapel Methodist church in Yancey county in 1890. In 1889 he was married to Miss Belle Briggs. Mr. Sorrells was a farmer.

The body was taken to the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. E. Patton, at 168 Craggy avenue, West Asheville, where the funeral services were held Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial was in Green Hill Cemetery, West Asheville.

Mr. Sorrells is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Alma Garrison, of Asheville; Mrs. Roy King, of Haines City, Fla.; Miss Inez Sorrells, of Asheville; and Mrs. H. E. Patton, of West Asheville; five sons, J. C., of West's Mill; Emory and Edwin, of Asheville; Jack, of Haines City; and Reid, of Asheville; one sister, Mrs. Ida McCoy, of Burnsville; and 10 grandchildren.

RECORD

Present conditions indicate that a larger percentage of Johnston county 4-H club boys will complete projects and submit records this year than ever before.

Mary DeBruhl, a 4-H service club member of Jones county, has one of the best poultry flocks in her county, each hen paying above her upkeep through a good production of eggs.
