MRS. LESTER S. CONLEY, PHONE 104

DAVIS-SLAGLE

Mrs. Katie Davis, of Franklin, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Alice M. Davis to John R. Slagle, of Franklin. The wedding ceremony was performed on Monday, December 25, in Clayton, Ga. The ordinary, R. C. Ramey, officiated. Mrs. Slagle, who is a graduate of the Swannona high school and Montreat college, is now employed as office manager of The Franklin Press. She is a very popular member of Franklin's young social set. Mr. Slagle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Slagle, of Franklin. He is a graduate of the Franklin high school and is now employed in the Pendergrass grocery and market. Mr. and Mrs. Slagle will be at home to their many friends in the Jones apartment on West Main street after Thursday, January 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crawford returned Wednesday evening from a brief honeymoon in Charleston. They are at home in their apartment on Harrison avenue in the home of Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ensley and Mrs. Bertha Naylor, of Asheville; Miss Flora Wilkie, of Marshall, and Miss Dorothy Naylor, of New York, were recently visiting their mother and grandmother, Mrs. W. G. Wilkie.

John J. Moore and son, William Moore, of Stuart, Fla., recently visited the former's mother, Mrs. Hattie M. Moore and her two daughters, Mrs. Jennie Nolen and Mrs. A. B. Slagle.

Miss Frances Roper has returned to her home in Augusta, Ga., after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hirsch at Franklin Terrace.

GRAY-CRAWFORD

In a wedding ceremony of quiet simplicity, Miss Lucy Sue Gray became the bride of Elmer Wilson Crawford on Saturday afternoon, December 30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Javan Gray.

The Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. The living room was artistically decorated with gladioli, chrysanthemums and white carnations. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of native greens. White tapers in tall standards completed the arrangement. Fred Gray, brother of the bride, lighted the candles which shed a soft glow over the wedding scene.

The bride's sister, Mrs. R. F. Davis, was the bride's only attendant. William Crawford, cousin of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride wore a becoming three-piece suit of viking blue with dubonnet accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of Western Gold roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Crawford is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gray. She graduated from the Franklin high school and after completing a course at the Athens Business college, Athens, Ga., held a position with the U. S. Forest Service. For the past two years she has been in the employ of the Nantahala Power and Light company.

The groom, son of Mrs. Mays Crawford, graduated with honors from Piedmont college, Demorest, Ga. He has taught in the Franklin high school and other schools in the county, resigning this work to accept a position with the Macon county welfare department. For the past three months he has been doing special work in the school of public welfare in the University of North Carolina.

After the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will have an apartment in the home of Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson on Harrison avenue.

REECE-BRADLEY

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Reece of Franklin Route 1, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Kate Reece to Ralph Bradley, of Etna.

The wedding ceremony was performed on Saturday, December 24, 1938, in Pickens, S. C. The couple was unattended.

Mrs. Bradley, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reece, is a graduate of the Franklin high school, and attended Western Carolina Teachers' college at Cullowhee. For the past several years she has been teaching in the public schools in Macon county.

Mr. Bradley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everette Bradley of Etna. He is a dealer in livestock.
