PAGE TEN

HOUSE MODERN

· (Continued from fage One) and gold cloth lend the last touch. of elegance to the completesstage jurnishings.

Local Labor and Materials

Most of the materials used in the construction were furnished by local firms, while 95 per cent of the labor employed were Macon county men. Only where specialized work could not be done by local people were outside workmen brought in. This construction has boosted employment at a time

Classified Advertisements

FOR RENT-Two cottages on Harrison avenue, one furnished. S. H. LYLE.

14 tic

SALE-Numerous articles of furniture, dishes, and cooking utensils to be held in poolroom of Scott-Griffin hotel on Friday and Saturday, February 2 and 3. MRS. C. S. BROWN.

11p

For the next six weeks we will deliver wood on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Dry oak kindling, $1.50; dry mixed stove wood, $1.50; dry chestnut, $1.50. Zickgraf Hardwood Co.

lic

FOR SALE-Shubbery and Evergreens. We plan and plant your yard, or you come and get them. Better Plants for less money, and guaranteed .- A. A. Lee, 21/2 Miles South of Franklin on the Georgia Road. 107-8tp-J25 when work is slack. Besides the main auditorium, two galleries are provided in the rear, with excellent view of the stage, and reached by comfortable steps. One of these galleries will be reserved for the use of colored citi-cens. have leased the refreshment shop adjoining the theatre lobby and will operate it for the convenience of patrons.

The theatre is located on the lot adjoining the Burrell Motor com-pany, and opposite Franklin's imposing new post office building on Main street, at the northern entrance of the town by U. S. Highway No. 23.

Enterprise Shown

This enterprise is an example of faith in the continued growth, not only of Franklin, but the surrounding area, and deserves the patronage of all who are interested in clean, high class entertainment.

Seal Sales Broke Record In 1939

The 1939 Tuberculosis Seal drive in Macon county has resulted in an all time record. In Franklin $37.59 was collected while the Highlands contribution was $24.45. The total county-wide donation was $65.04, which will be used in Tuberculosis control in Macon county | and in North Carolina, Seventyfive per cent of the total amount will be used solely for local county tuberculosis control needs such as sputum cups, disinfectant solutions, linens and diagnostic x-ray examinations.

Prof. O. F. Summer, of Highlands, was county chairman, and Mrs. Helen Macon was chairman for Franklin. The sum of $15.51 was sent to the state association and $46.53 was retained for use in the county. Sales in 1938 were $50.31, show-ing a gain for 1939 of $11.73.

CONGRATULATIONS

AND BEST WISHES

FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE NEW

MACON THEATRE

THE FRANKLIN PRESS AND THE MIGHLANDS MACONIAN

Miss Myrom Clinard, food pres-Erwin Patton and Carl Howard ervation specialist of Ball Brothers company, will conduct a meat canning demonstration at the agricultural building Wednesday, January 31, at 10 a.m.

Miss Clinard's demonstrations are being sponsored by the home demonstration clubs of Macon county. Miss Florence Stalcup, home agent, is urging all rural women to attend these meetings since Miss Clinard comes so highly recommended to PLEDGE SUPPORT our county.

Miss Clinard was reared on a large Tennessee farm. Her early experiences were based around home canning and her mother owned the first steam pressure cooker in the county. She has served as canning supervisor of the Tennes-see relief administration and was specialist with the resettlement ad-James A. Farley ministration of Alabama. Miss Clinard's combination of sound, scientific training, a rural background and experience in teaching women and girls how to preserve their food, has qualified her for effective public work.

Mrs. Maggie Hall, 72 Passes Saturday

Mrs. Maggie Slagle Hall, 72 died at her home in the Oak Grove section Saturday morning about 10 o'clock, following an illness of five days with pneumonia. Mrs. Hall was born on July 14, 1868 and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Slagle, of Car-toogechaye. In June, 1897, she was married to the late Rufus H. Hall, a Confederate veteran, who was a member of Company A, 65th regiment, North Carolina troops. She was a member of the Mount Hope Baptist church on Cartoogechaye. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 2 p'clock at the Oak Grove Baptist church. The Rev. Robert Williams, pastor, was in charge of the services, assisted by the Rev. D. C. McCoy and the Rev. W. L. Bradley, Baptist ministers of the Oak Grove community. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Williams, of the Oak Grove community; Mrs. Ben S. Matlock, of Boise, Idaho, and Mrs. Maude Wells, of the state of Oregan; three stepchildren, Elbert J. Hall, of Warren, Clay county; Mrs. Laura Shaw, of Spokane, Wash., and Doc A. Hall, of Etna; four brothers, George Slagle, of Franklin Route 1; Jess Slagle, of Re-public, Wash; James Slagle, of California, and Ed Slagle, of Montana, and one sister, Mrs. J. H. Sellers, of the Prentiss section.

LEGAL ADVERTISING

LEGAL NOTICE

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO SENATOR BORAH

President Roosevelt and other national leaders bowed in grief today at a state funeral for the revered elder statesman, Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho. Senator Borah, age 74, was stricken down by a cerebral hemorrhage, Burial will take place in Boise, Idaho.

TO 'TRAVEL YEAR'

The six-billion dollar tourist industry in this country has pledged financial support to President Roosevelt's program to make 1940 a "travel America" year.

FARLEY SPEAKS AT

James A. Farley of the Democratic national committee, candidate for the 1940 presidential nomination, Wednesday night defended industry's right to fair profits but warned employers that they must not exploit the workers. He made no direct mention of his candidacy and avoided politics.

U. S.-JAP PACT EXPIRES

union membership.

The future relations between the U. S. and Japan depend on developments in China, Tokyo is told. After Friday night the two nations will be conducted on a dayto-day basis.

LABOR UNION INDICTED

The International Longshoremen's association, an AFL union, and Joseph P. Ryan, its president, were indicted early this week, for viola-tion of the Federal anti-trust laws, specifically accused of putting illegal pressure on lumber dealers

to coerce their employes into ILA

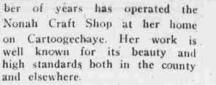

Will Be Open Thursdays For Instruction In Native Arts

The craft center which is sponsored by the home demonstration clubs of Macon county will be open for instruction each Thursday from 9:30 to 3. This center is located at the old Odd Fellows' hall over Reeves' hardware store.

Weaving, metal work, basketry, at Penland, N. C., and for a num- made articles.

Mrs. Hunter Calloway, who taught basketry at the craft school that was held in October, will continue her instructions in basketry and assist with the weaver. Mrs. Calloway received her training at Tallulah Falls Craft school and recently has been under the instructions of Miss Helen Patton, of Western Carolina Teachers' college, where she has taken up metal and leather work.

Although this project is sponsored by the home demonstration clubs, any person who is interestchair bottoming, and a number of ed may attend these meetings. It other crafts will be taught. Mrs. is hoped that through these efforts Carl Slagle will teach the weaving, the old arts will be revived and Mrs. Slagle received her training the tourists who visit Macon counat Penland Weavers and Potters ty will be interested in these hand

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE NEW

MACON THEATRE

Nantahala Power and Light Co.

I Am Buying Mica Again ALL COMPETITION MET HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR ALL GRADES

No Quantity is Too Small or Too Large

See me Tuesdays and Fridays at home at Lake Emory Store, or I will come to you for any amount justifiable

Having a lifetime experience, I will be glad to assist you in your mining in anyway possible

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1940

Perry's Drug Store

accordance with authority vested in the N. C. Board of Con-servation and Development by Chapter 35, Public Laws of 1935, the said Board at Raleigh on January. 17, 1940, adopted the following regulation :

It shall be unlawful to take from the waters of North Carolina, to have in possession, or to destroy unnecessarily Muskallunge of a size less than 22 inches in length. PAUL KELLY, Secretary, Board of Conservation and Development. 125-4tc-F15

I NEED YOUR MICA A. W. REID

Franklin Route 4

Congratulations

TO THE NEW

MACON THEATRE

AND W. C. BURRELL Franklin Insurance

Agency

HENRY W. CABE

GROVER JAMISON We Handle All Kinds of Insurance Congratulations to

THE NEW MACON THEATRE

Tri-State Electrical Company

Clayton, Ga.

31

3

Furnishing Electrical Equipment and Fixtures For the New Theatre