Holt Patton, of Eff, Clay county, spent the first of the week visiting his sister, Mrs. D. Robert Davis and Mr. Davis.

Miss Grace Berry, nurse in the Aston Park hospital in Asheville, spent the latter part of the past week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Berry at their home on Ellijay and her sister, Miss Clyde Berry, at Angel hospital.

The Rev. Frank Bloxham left today for a speaking tour in the north. While away he will address gatherings of church people as a speaker for the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal church in Massachusetts and in New York and vicinity and expects to return to Franklin about February 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newman, of Winston-Salem, were here last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. S. Thorpe will go to Marshville, Ga., Thursday, to attend the christening services for Felder Fredrick III, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Felder, Jr.

Ben Guffey, 47, was brought to Angel hospital Sunday suffering with a fractured skull and lacerations on his nose and face, which he received when he was knocked down by a car driven by Ray Anderson. The accident, which occurred on the Georgia road near the county home, was said to be unavoidable and no charges were placed against Mr. Anderson.

Mrs. Hugh Leach has accepted a position as supply teacher of Home Economics of the Waynesville high school for the second term. Her little daughter, Louise, accompanied her.

A letter to The Franklin Press from Mrs. Frank Carmack states, "We will be in your midst much earlier this year than formerly, as we plan to leave here shortly after March 1st in order to get some building done and some changes made." Major and Mrs. Carmack are owners of the Franklin Lodge and Golf Club.

Mrs. F. L. Siler is spending the winter in New York with her daughters, Mrs. Michael D'Onofrio, and the Misses Annie Will and Frieda Siler.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Phillips announce the birth of a son, Gaines Larry, Jr., at their home in Clinton, Tenn., on Thursday, January 11. Mrs. Phillips will be remembered as the former Miss Kate Solesbee, of Franklin Route 3.
